*For all emotions that are tense and strong
And utmost knowledge, he has lived for these,
Lived full: and let the lesser things live long,
The rocks, the everlasting hills, the trees
Who'd give a thousand years to sing this song
Of life and man's high destiny
Which he unto the face of death can fling.
O Death! thou poor and disappointing thing
Strike if thou wilt, strike breast and brow
For he has lived: and thou canst rob him now
Only of some long life which ne'er has been.
The life that he has lived, so full — so keen
Is his. He can hold it from beneath the blows
And dying, take it with him where he goes.*

IN MEMORY OF
THE LATE
MISS GLORIA SIBUE

Light was

MISS GLORIA SIBUE

It is a pleasure for me to have an opportunity once more to be associated with the conscientious and ambitious students and teachers who produce our Yearbook. The time and effort consumed by this project would be difficult to measure. There were many times when it appeared that deadlines could not be met and the whole effort was of questionable value. It was tempting to quit and say "Why bother to try at all?"

However, they did bother to try.

This book is their achievement.

The value of this book is great when measured in terms of the effort required to produce it. Its value will increase over the years because here is a pictorial and written record of the school year 1969-70 at General Amherst. We will not likely see another year like it.

Remember "Trial and Error"; the teachers' Christmas Assembly; "The Mikado"; championships in basketball, typing, gymnastics; the "Arena Walkathon"; the Key Club School Sweetheart; the Queen of the Prom?

Remember the crowded halls and twelve portable classrooms; the "early" and "late" shifts; all those buses crowding Laird Avenue; over 1,500 students and 94 staff members; the anticipation and speculation about the morning or afternoon shift for General Amherst or Sandwich Secondary School.

These thoughts arouse mixed feelings in all of us.

We, who will remain at General Amherst, bid farewell to those who will transfer to Sandwich Secondary School. Those who will leave General Amherst bid us farewell in turn. But let us look forward as well as backward.

The unique situation that will exist next year, with both schools operating half days in the same building, allow us to say in the next breath "Welcome Sandwich Secondary School". We wish good luck to all those students and teachers involved in the "double school".

What adventures await us in 1970-71?

What a Yearbook that one will be!

Mr. Gibb: "We couldn't function without law"

Student: "But Sir, I have witnesses!"

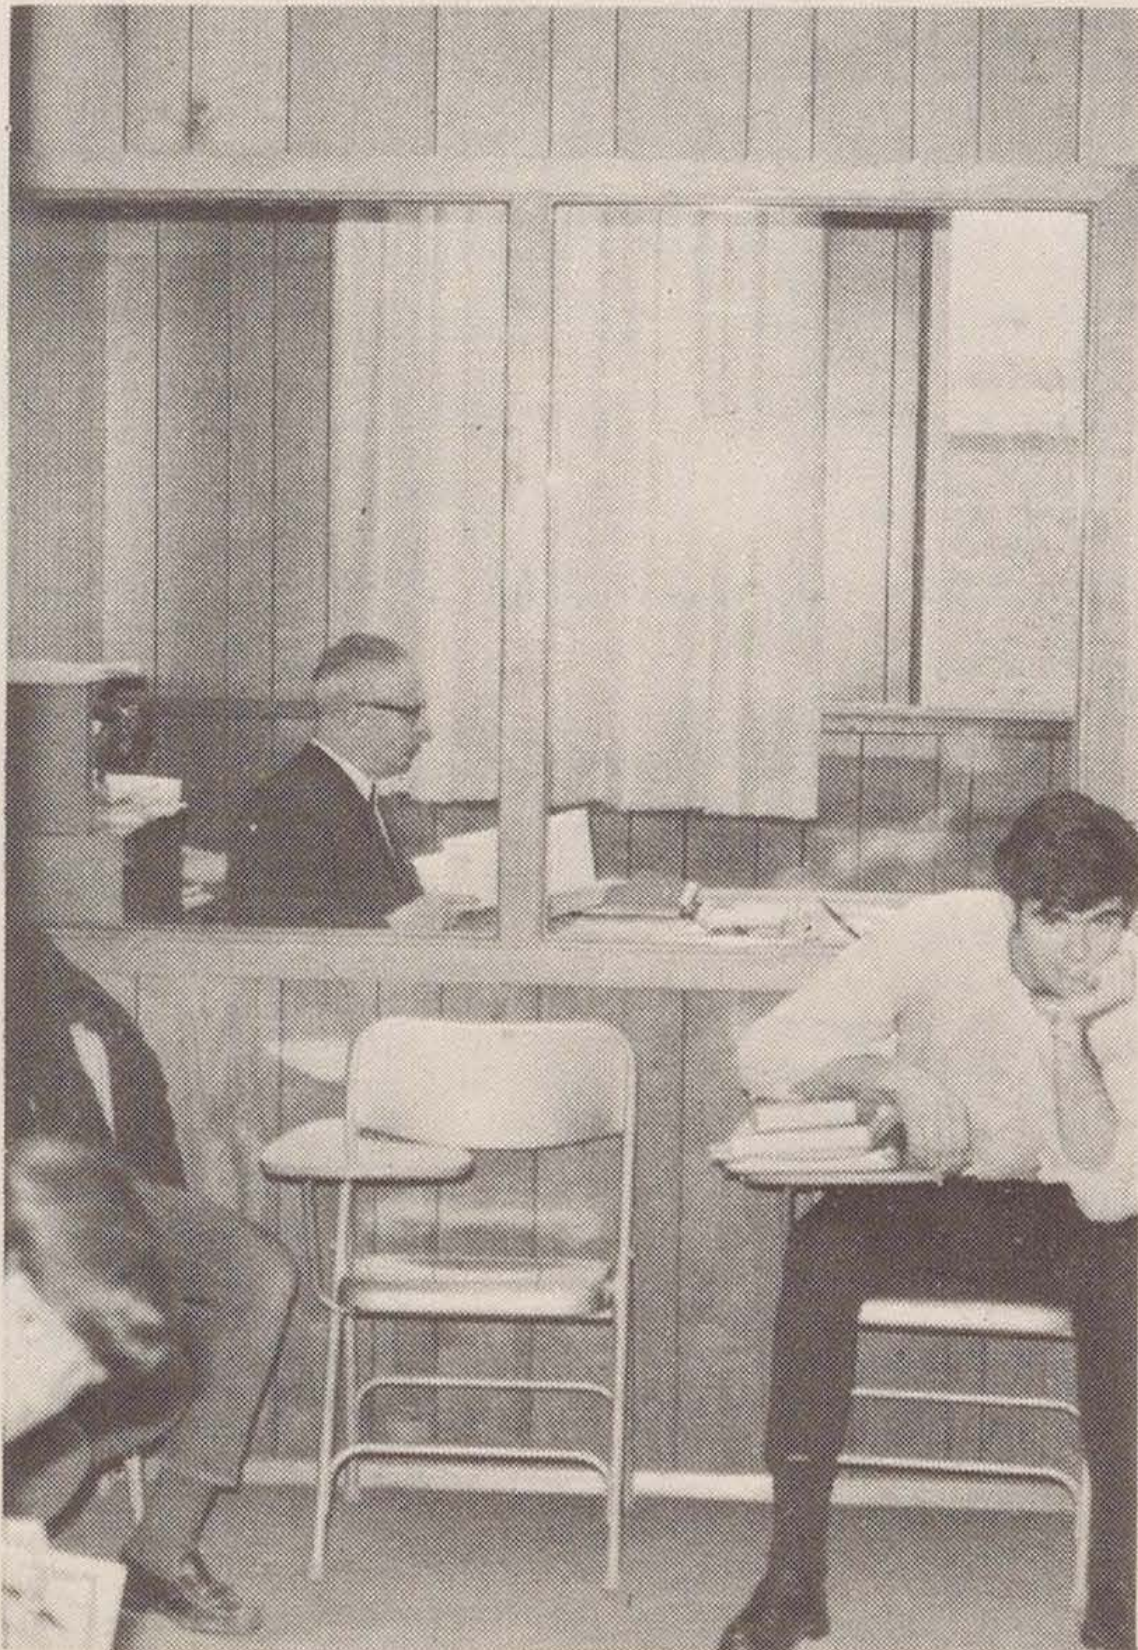

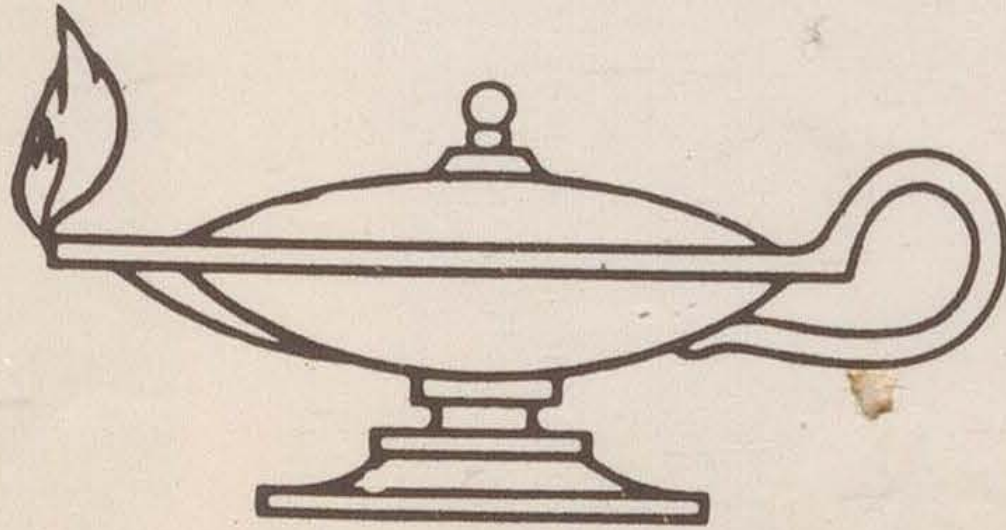

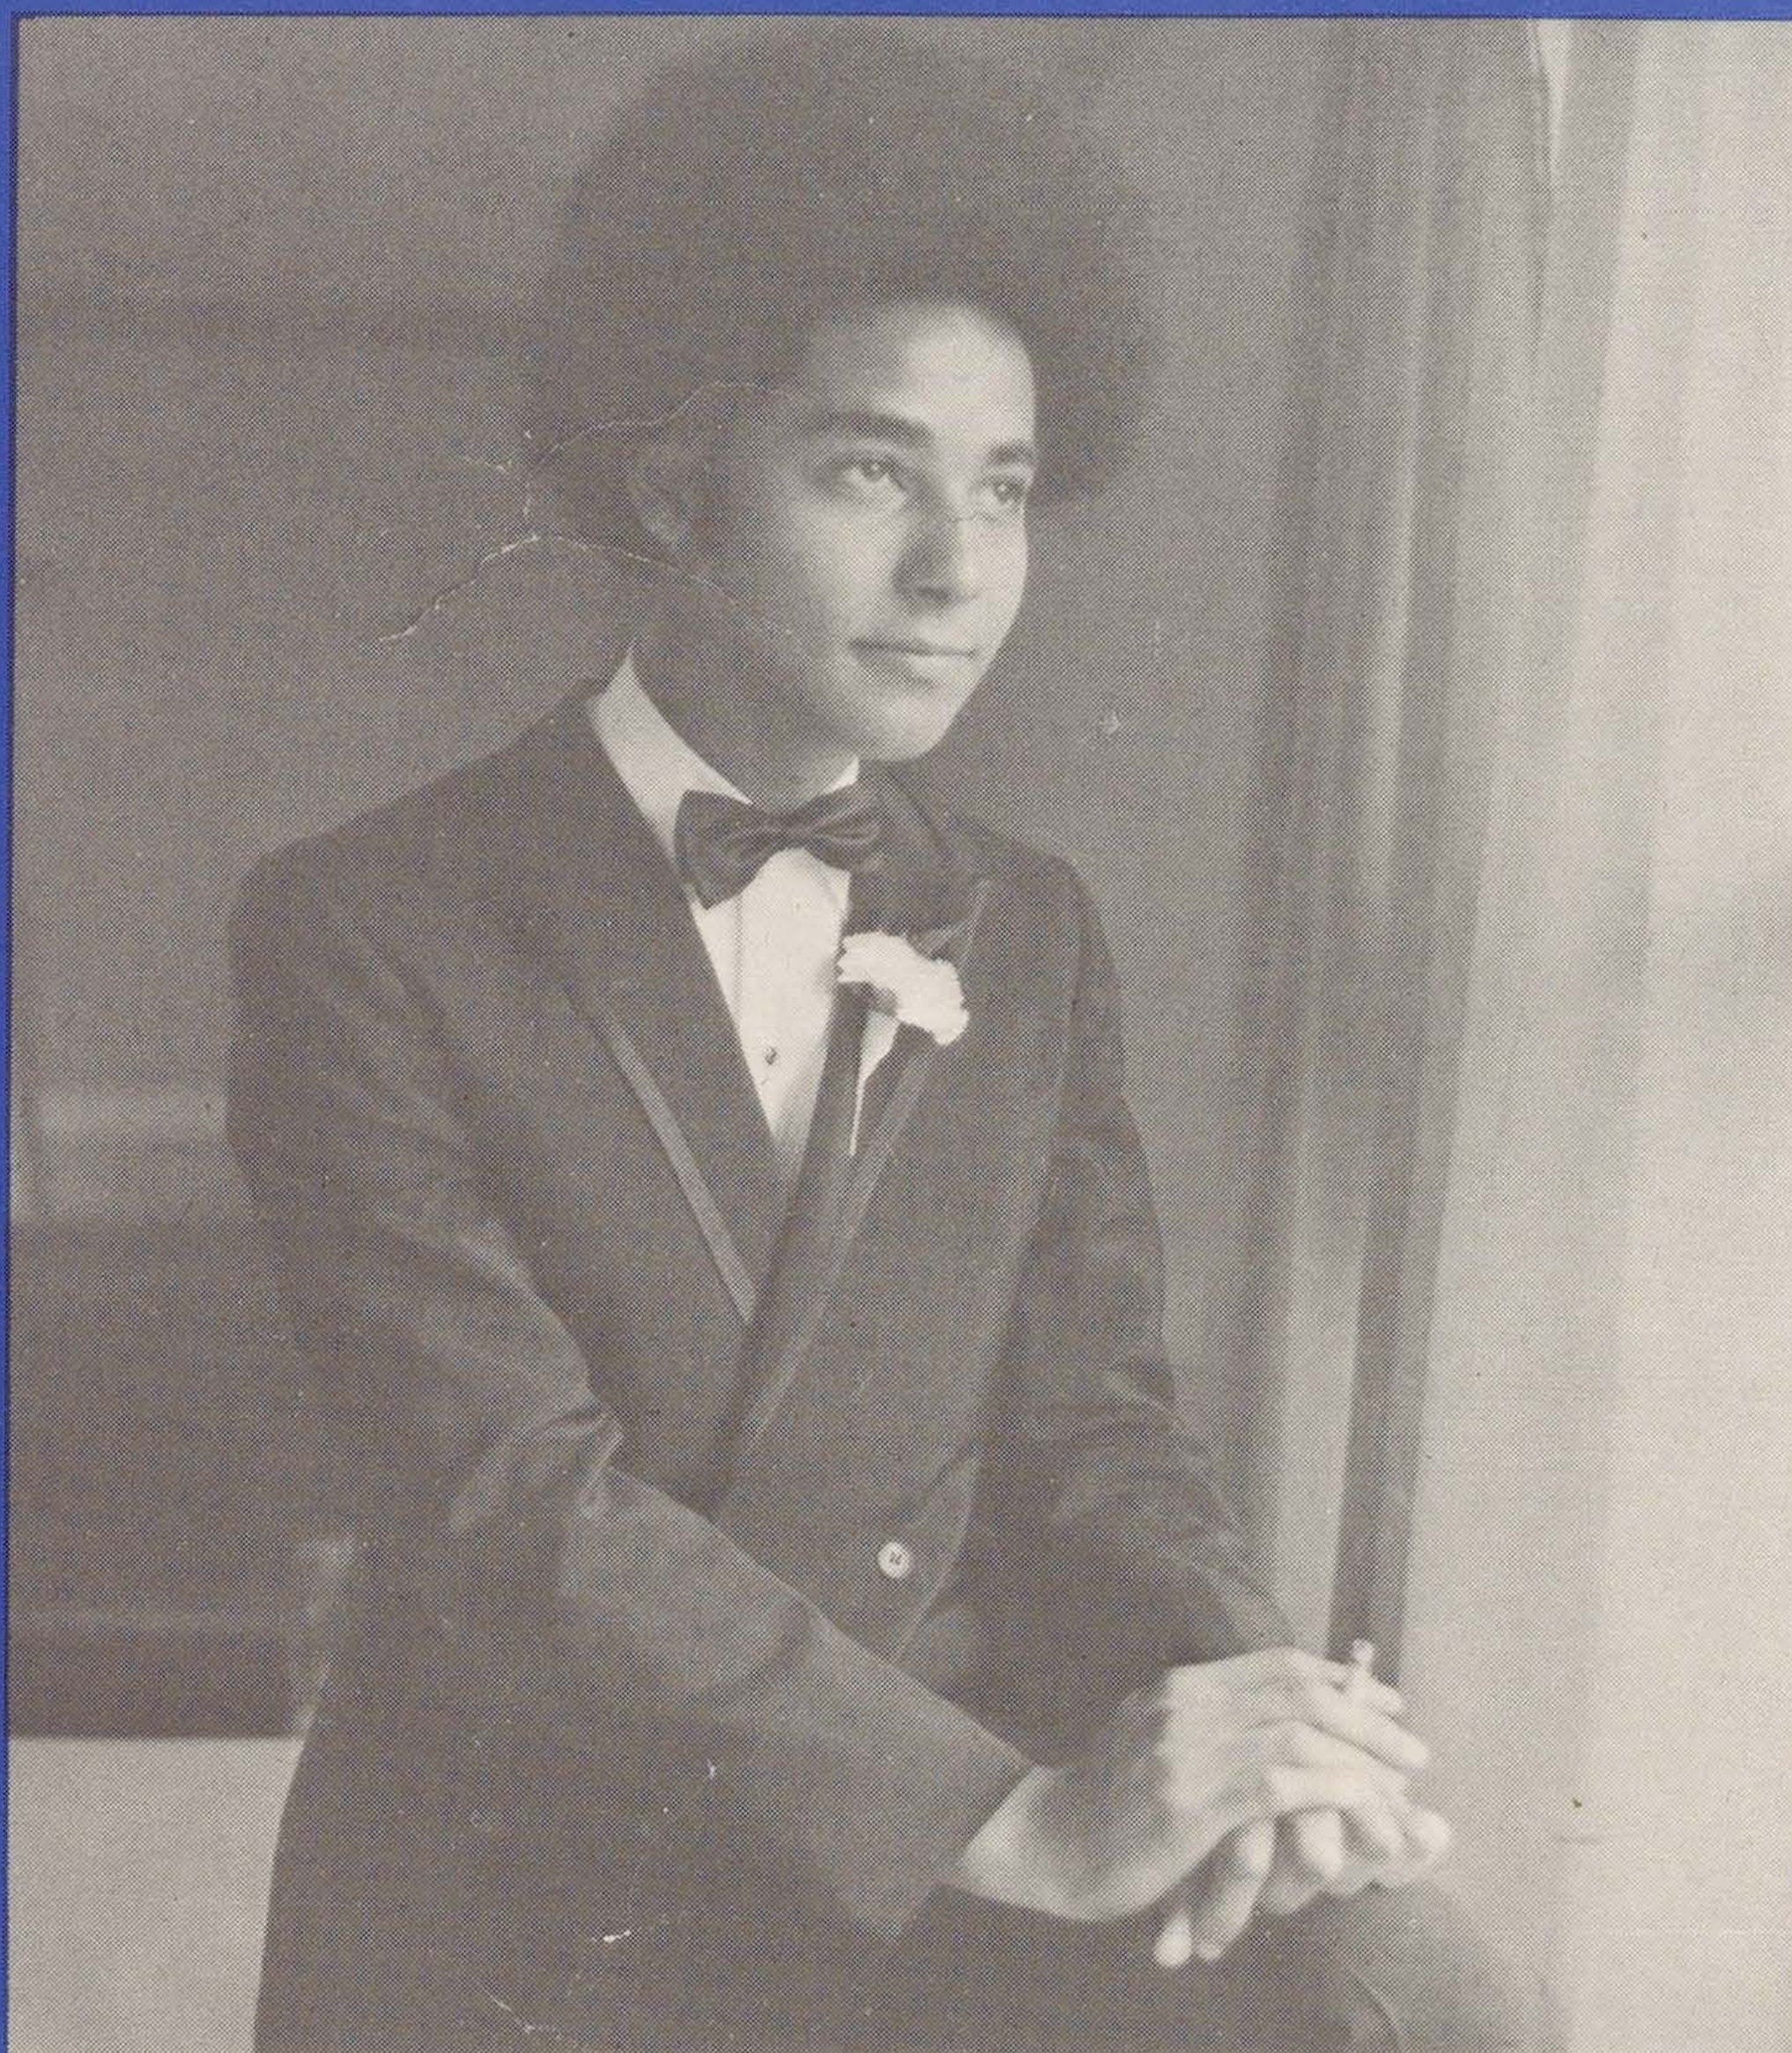

MR. P. MUDRY
Vice-Principal

"One year at this place is enough for me. I think I'll go out and have a SANDWICH!"

Hello, anybody there, . . . somebody . . . anybody!

Long after I have gone and our lives cease to intersect at this point in time, the words I write here will stand as a vital link in your memory chain. So in a sense I have been given the opportunity to write my own Eulogy, your memory of Norm McCurdy, what he stood for and tried to do.

As we go our different ways, I would like you to associate one word with any memory you may have of me. That word is LOVE. This is what I have tried to stand for and what I have and always will seek to do.

On Life; life is an asset, the most important thing you own, spend it carefully. Decide if you want to make yours a short term investment, or invest it in something which outlives life. Live for the present or the future. I caution you to weigh the profits involved before you invest.

Thoughts..... It's tempting to live in the shade of the trees our fathers planted, but we must plant our own not only for ourselves but our sons. Each of us is a social product nurtured by the whole family of man, loved by parents and grandparents, taught by teachers and clergy, protected by policemen, soldiers and judges, encouraged by universities, inspired by artists and poets. None of us sprang forth untended, unheeded, a random by-product of some indifferent mating process. Each of us contains the cumulated investment of thousands of years and is the product of a multiple of hopes. We have no right to surrender this long term inheritance without consultation of the future.... Be ashamed to die until you have won your personal victory for humanity.... Your soap perfumes the air I breath, your automobile fumes contaminate it. Your morning smile even to me as a stranger lifts my spirits: your muttered cursing in the subway vexes me: No man is an island, we must treat each other as brothers or we all become our own enemy..... If love continues to be out of season just like the opposite of summer winter grows colder.....

Love & peace in 70 and Forever,
Norm McCurdy.

Dear Fellow Students:

It has always been the custom for our school yearbook to be delivered in the fall of the following year. Because of numerous requests it was decided that June delivery could be tried this year.

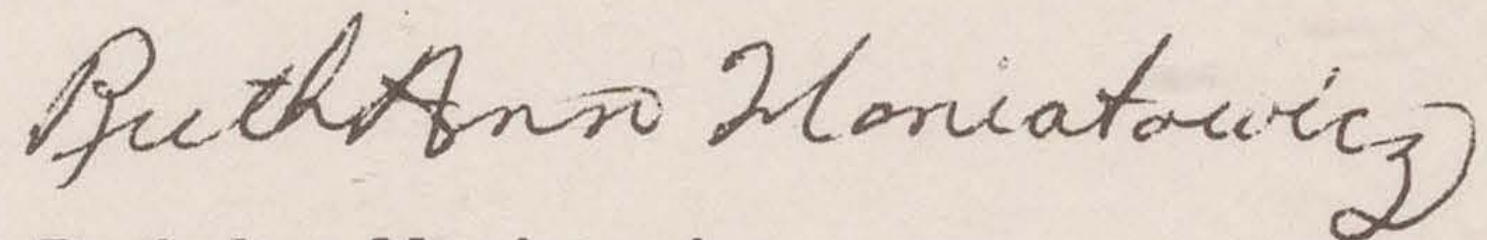

Many problems have come up that were not foreseen. The Prom, and Track Meet are not in this book because they were held after March 13 which was our final deadline. We regret that there are more than two activities which we have left out.

I want to thank my staff for the many hours of work they have put in. Many times my patience wore thin but they put up with me. You will never know how hard it is to put 3,000 pictures in the right place with the right articles written under them, but they did it.

The end of this year will bring many splits in old established friendships. I have tried through the use of candids to put as many faces in this book as possible. I hope that I have succeeded in including many of your friends.

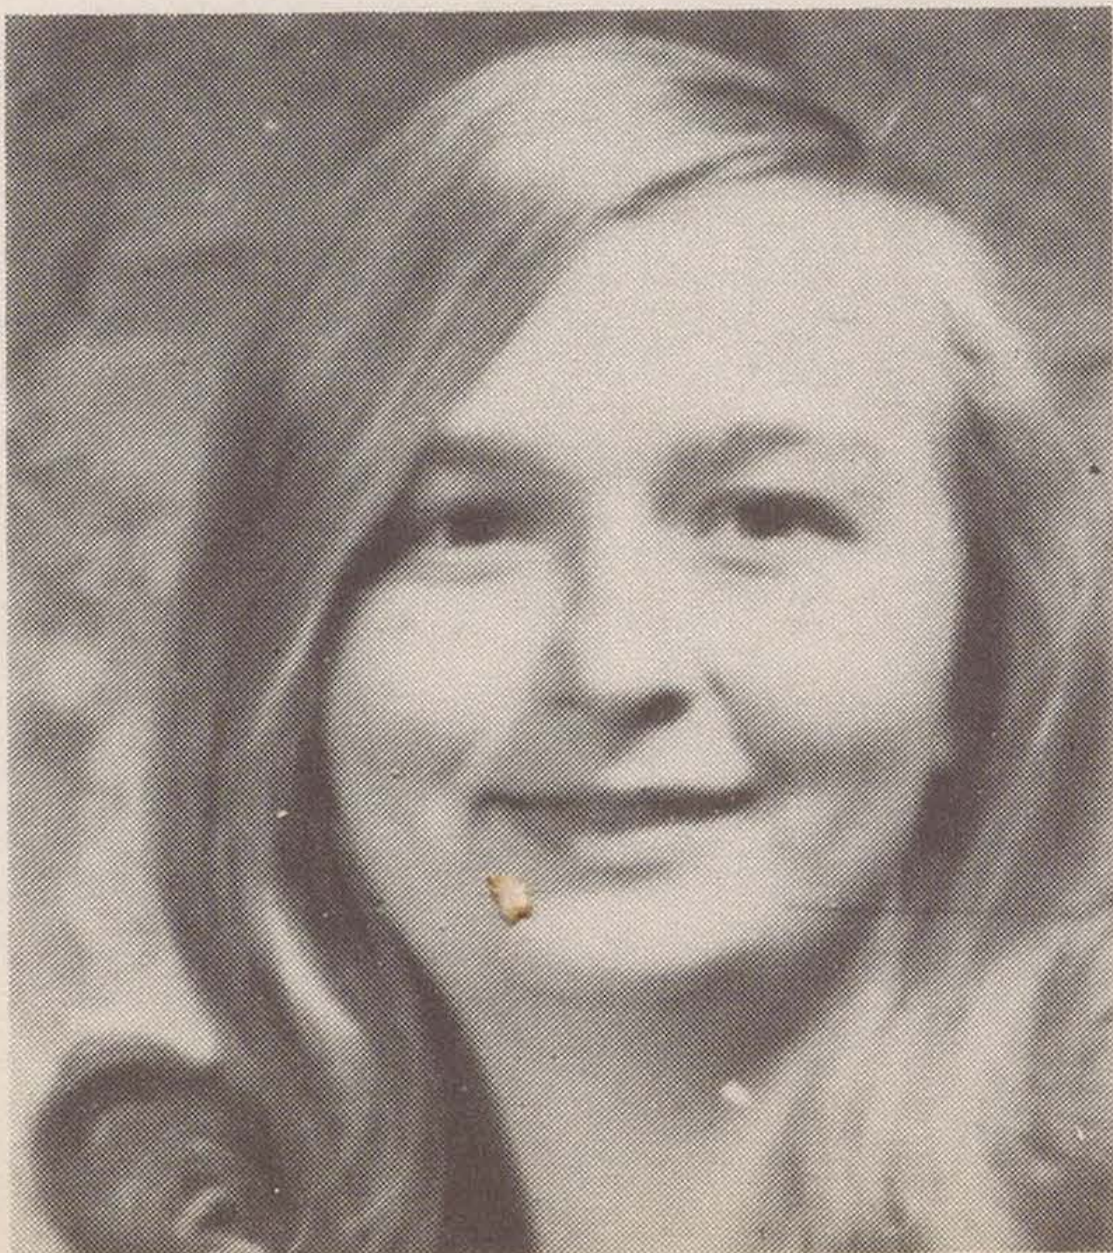

If I have succeeded I feel that our efforts are well rewarded, and do not regret that we have spent much of our spare time compiling this yearbook.

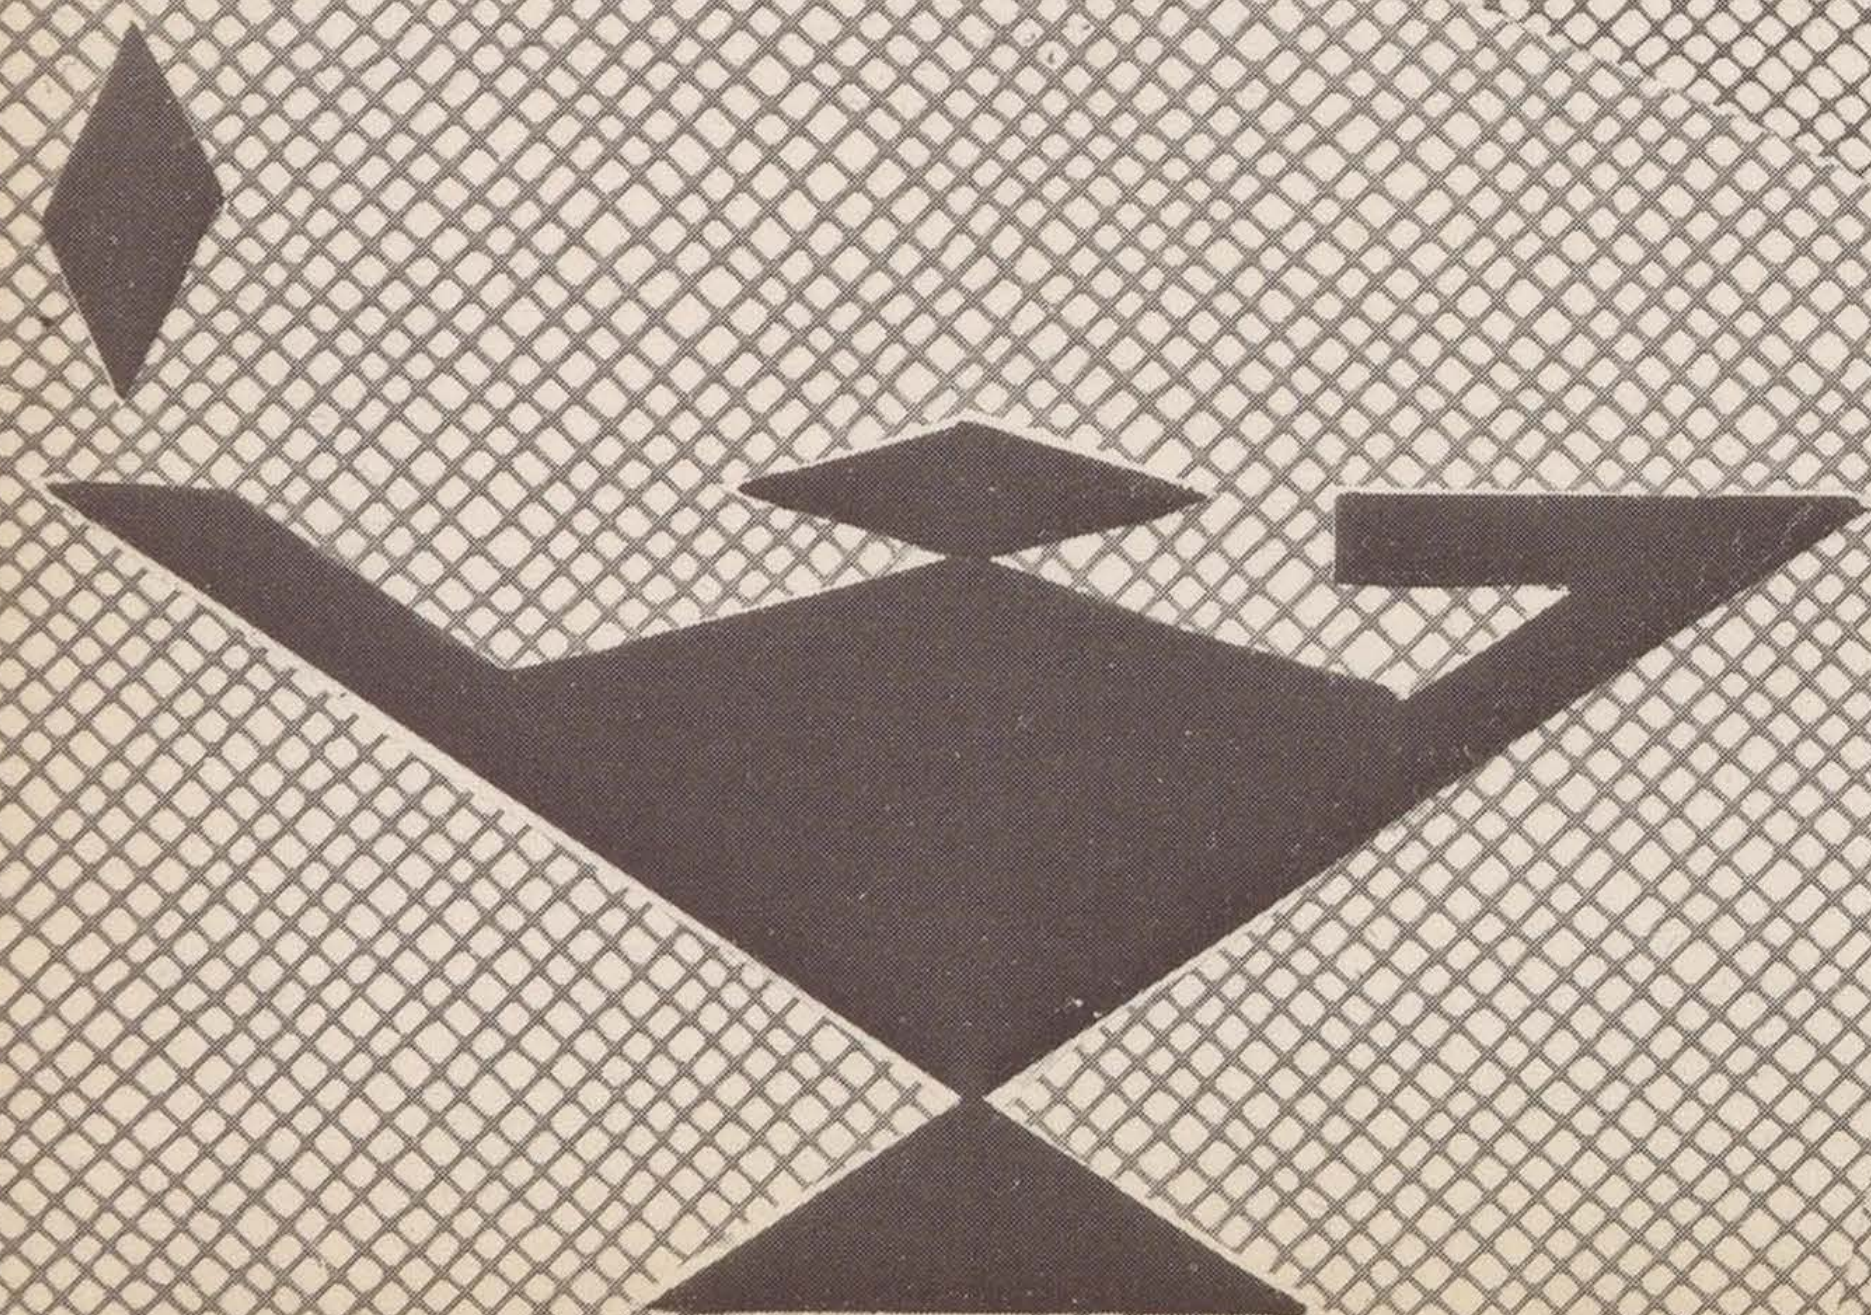

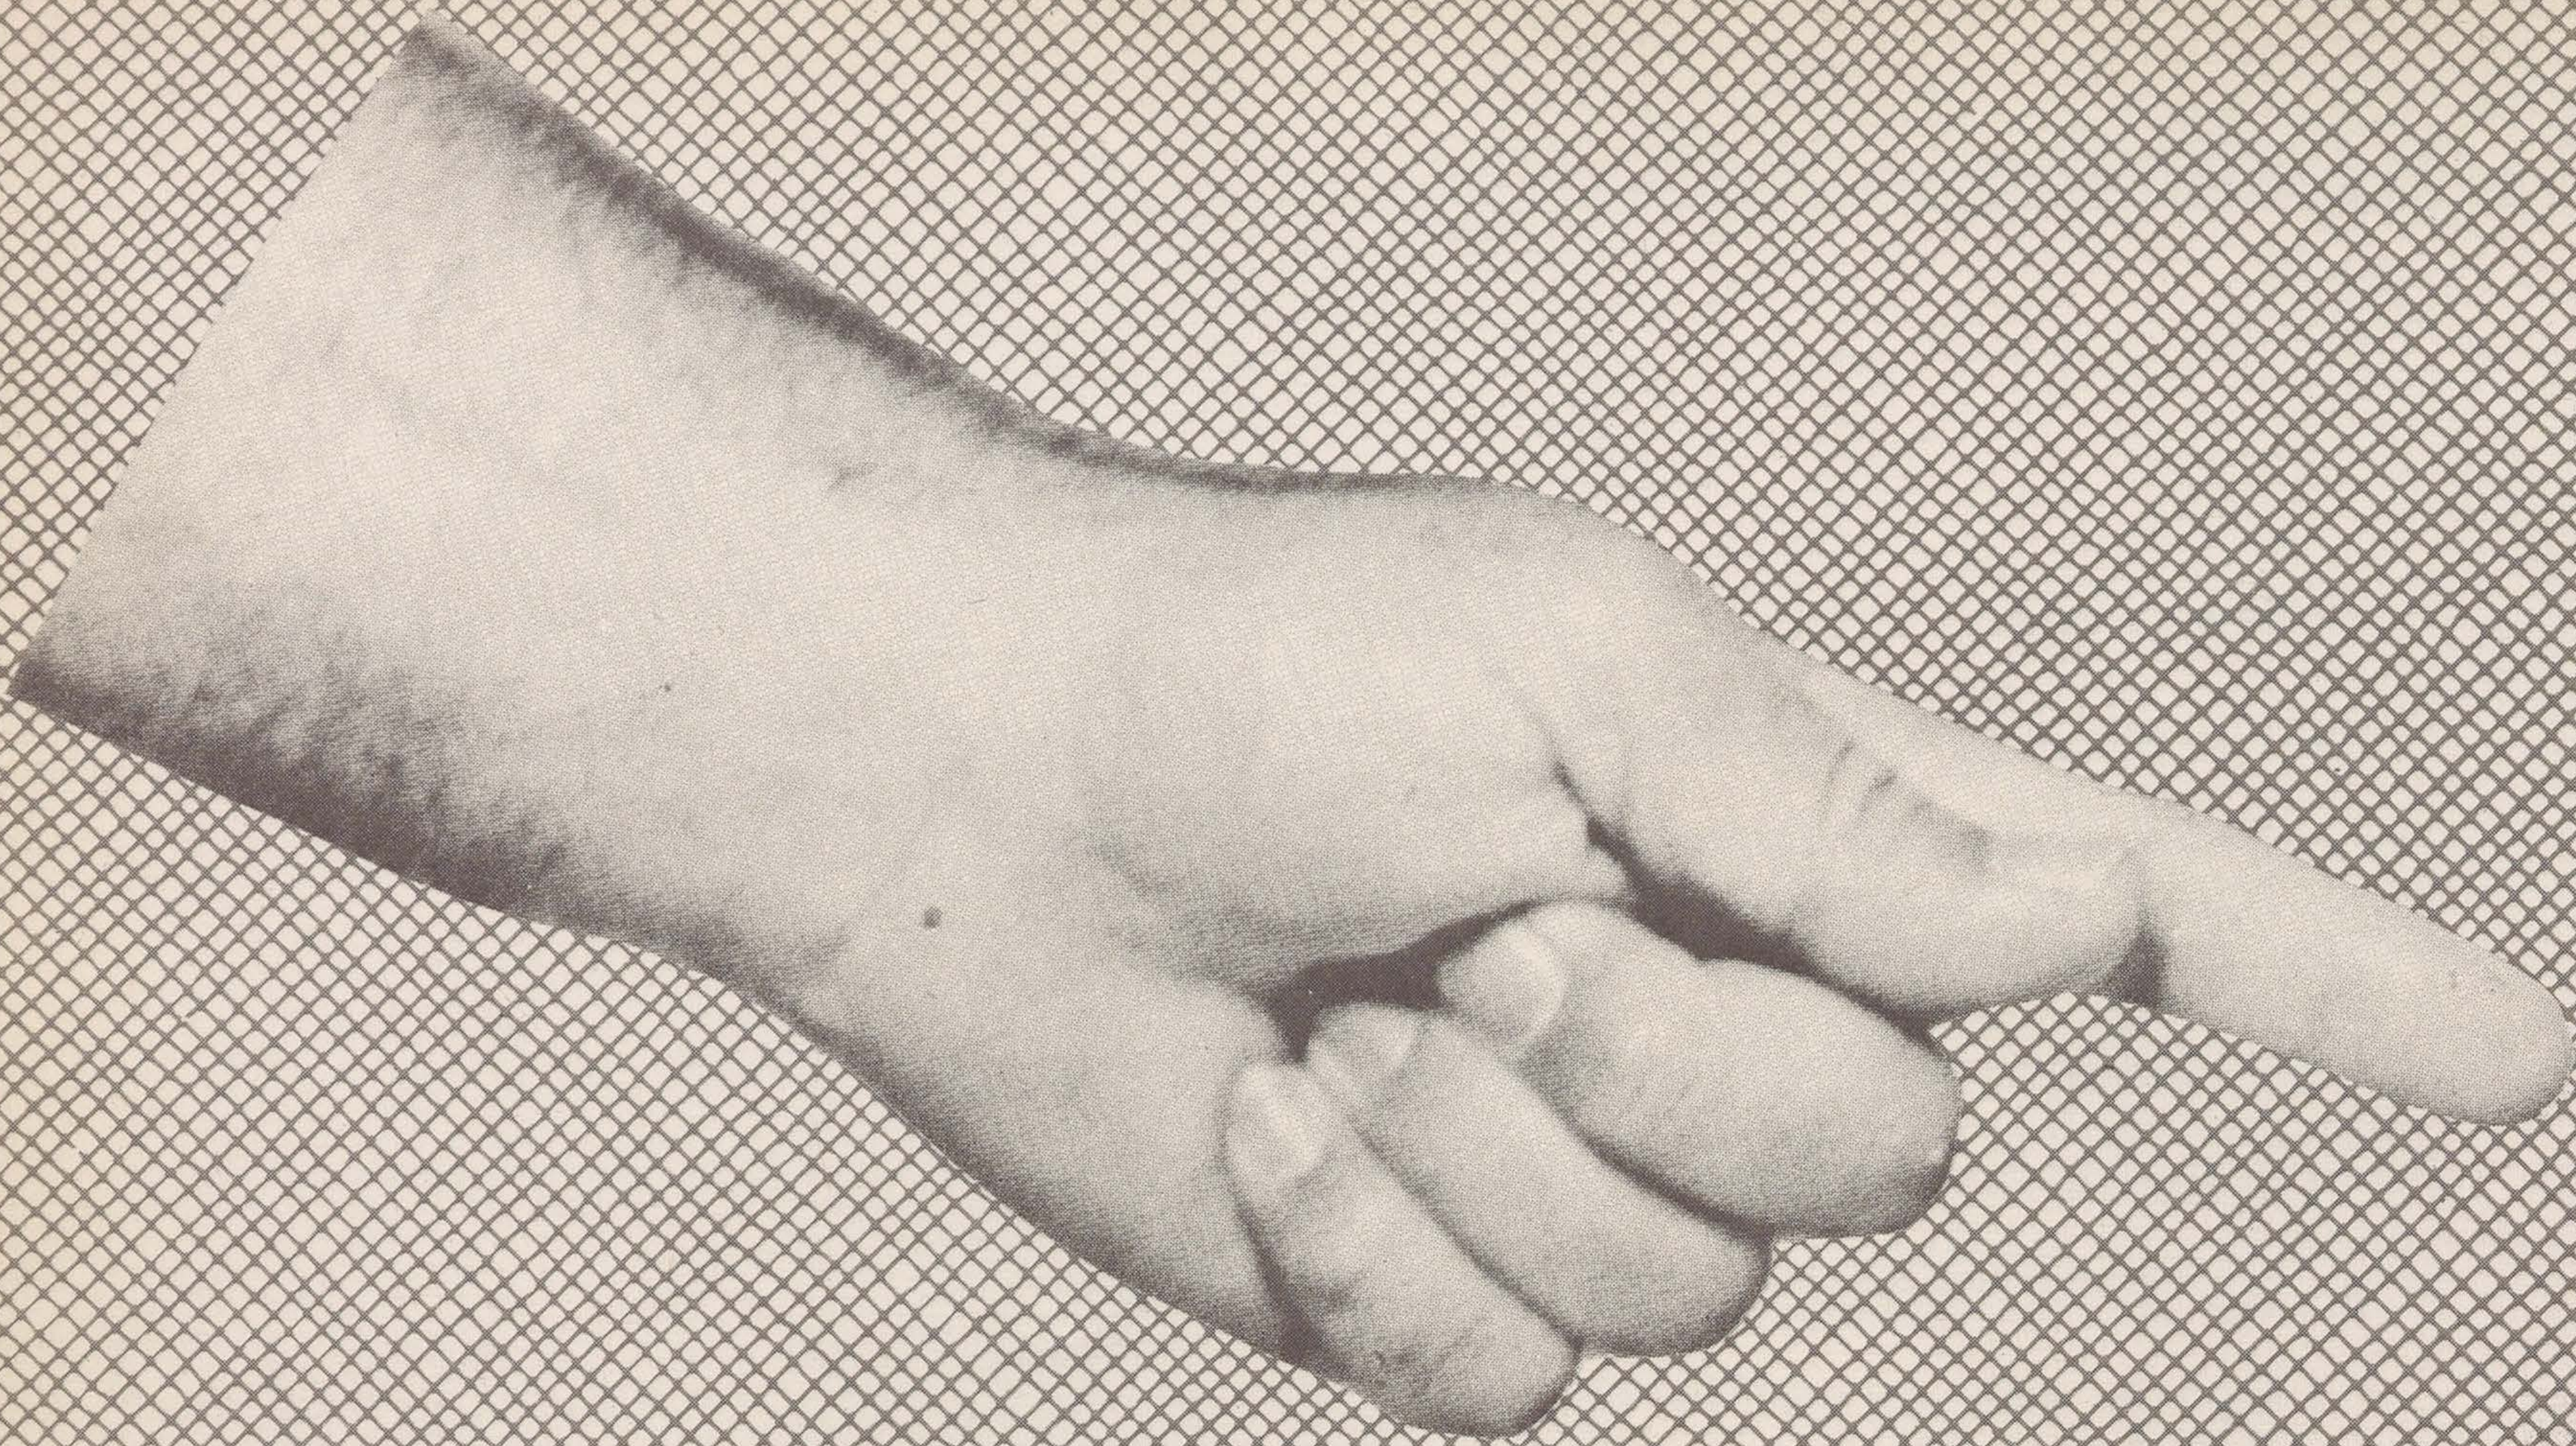

Yours truly,

Ruth Ann Moniatowicz,

CAMPUS LIFE

Campus Life this year has challenged YOUTH with such films as "Flipside", a film with a realistic approach to the problems you face. It probes into the world of the "Searching Generation" and vividly portrays the needs of each of us. The Search is on and even you are actively involved trying to find what can make your life complete and, how real happiness can be achieved.

THE CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

The Christmas assembly had a good kick off with Mr. Godden, Miss Frederick, and Mr. Pringle singing a few folk songs. The songs were greatly enjoyed by the audience. A few talented male teachers put on a skit, sung to the tune of "The Twelve Days of Christmas". Mr. T. Wilson entertained us with a song played on his accordion. Some of the talented female teachers danced to the song "Aquarius", which was well performed. The assembly closed off with Mr. Godden, Miss Frederick, and Mr. Pringle singing a few more songs; and the entire teaching staff came on stage and sang "We Wish You A Merry Christmas". The performance turned out to be a great success.

A Key Club is a service club, whose purpose is to aid the school and community. This year, the Amherst Key Club was actively engaged in service projects throughout the year. They checked coats and sold refreshments at all school dances. They initiated and co-sponsored the walk-a-thon which raised $1,000 for the Tri-Community Arena. In February The Key Club held its annual school sweetheart election and was pleased to award Cindy Nye the school sweetheart plaques. Awards were also presented for general proficiency in 4-year courses at the graduation exercises. Other projects soon to be undertaken by the Key Club are a Car Rally (to be held April 5) and the climax of the school year, the annual Bob-Lo Dance in June.

The executive this year was composed of Dan Roehler, president; Ted Murray, vice-president; Steve Mucha, secretary; Eric Litster, treasurer; and Don Roehler, Sgt.-at-Arms.

the amount of suffering she had gone through during her lifetime from this disease.

Miss Sibue was one of the millions that died in 1969 from this disease. Many more will die unless a cure is found soon.

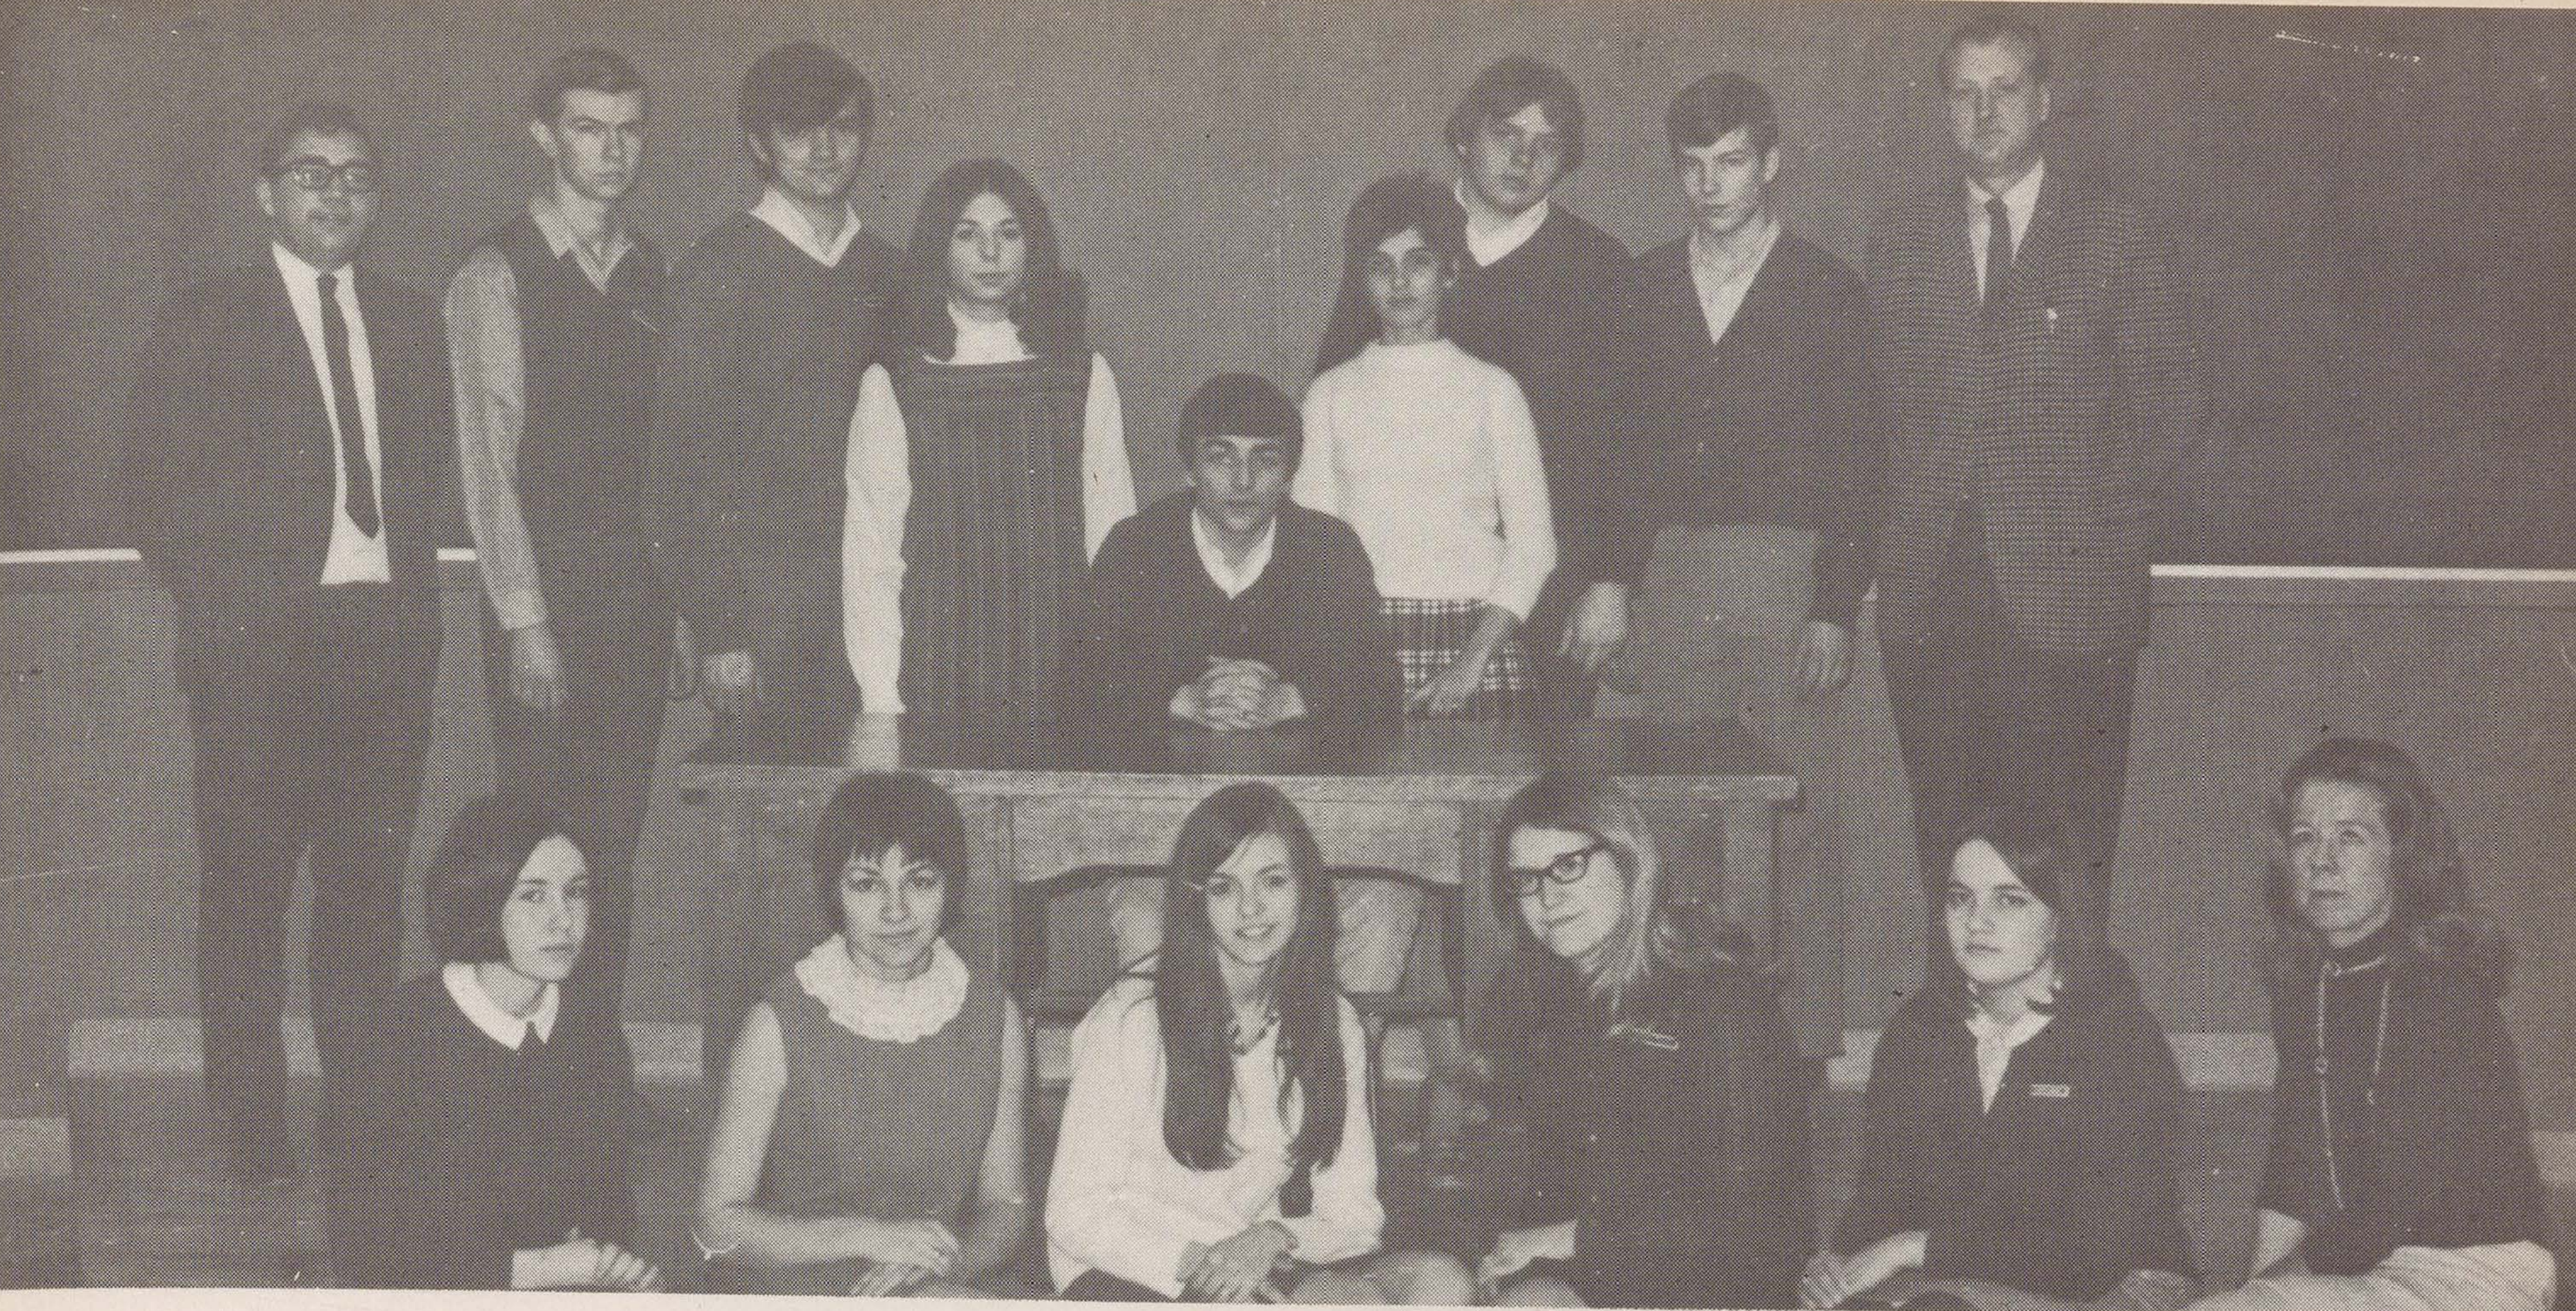

What can we do about it? We can care--that is an important thing in itself. That is one of the jobs of our group. Our job is to educate the public about the disease and to raise funds to support cancer research.

Try to learn about the disease. The earlier you find the symptoms and have them treated, the better your chances are for a cure.

Knowledge dispels fear.

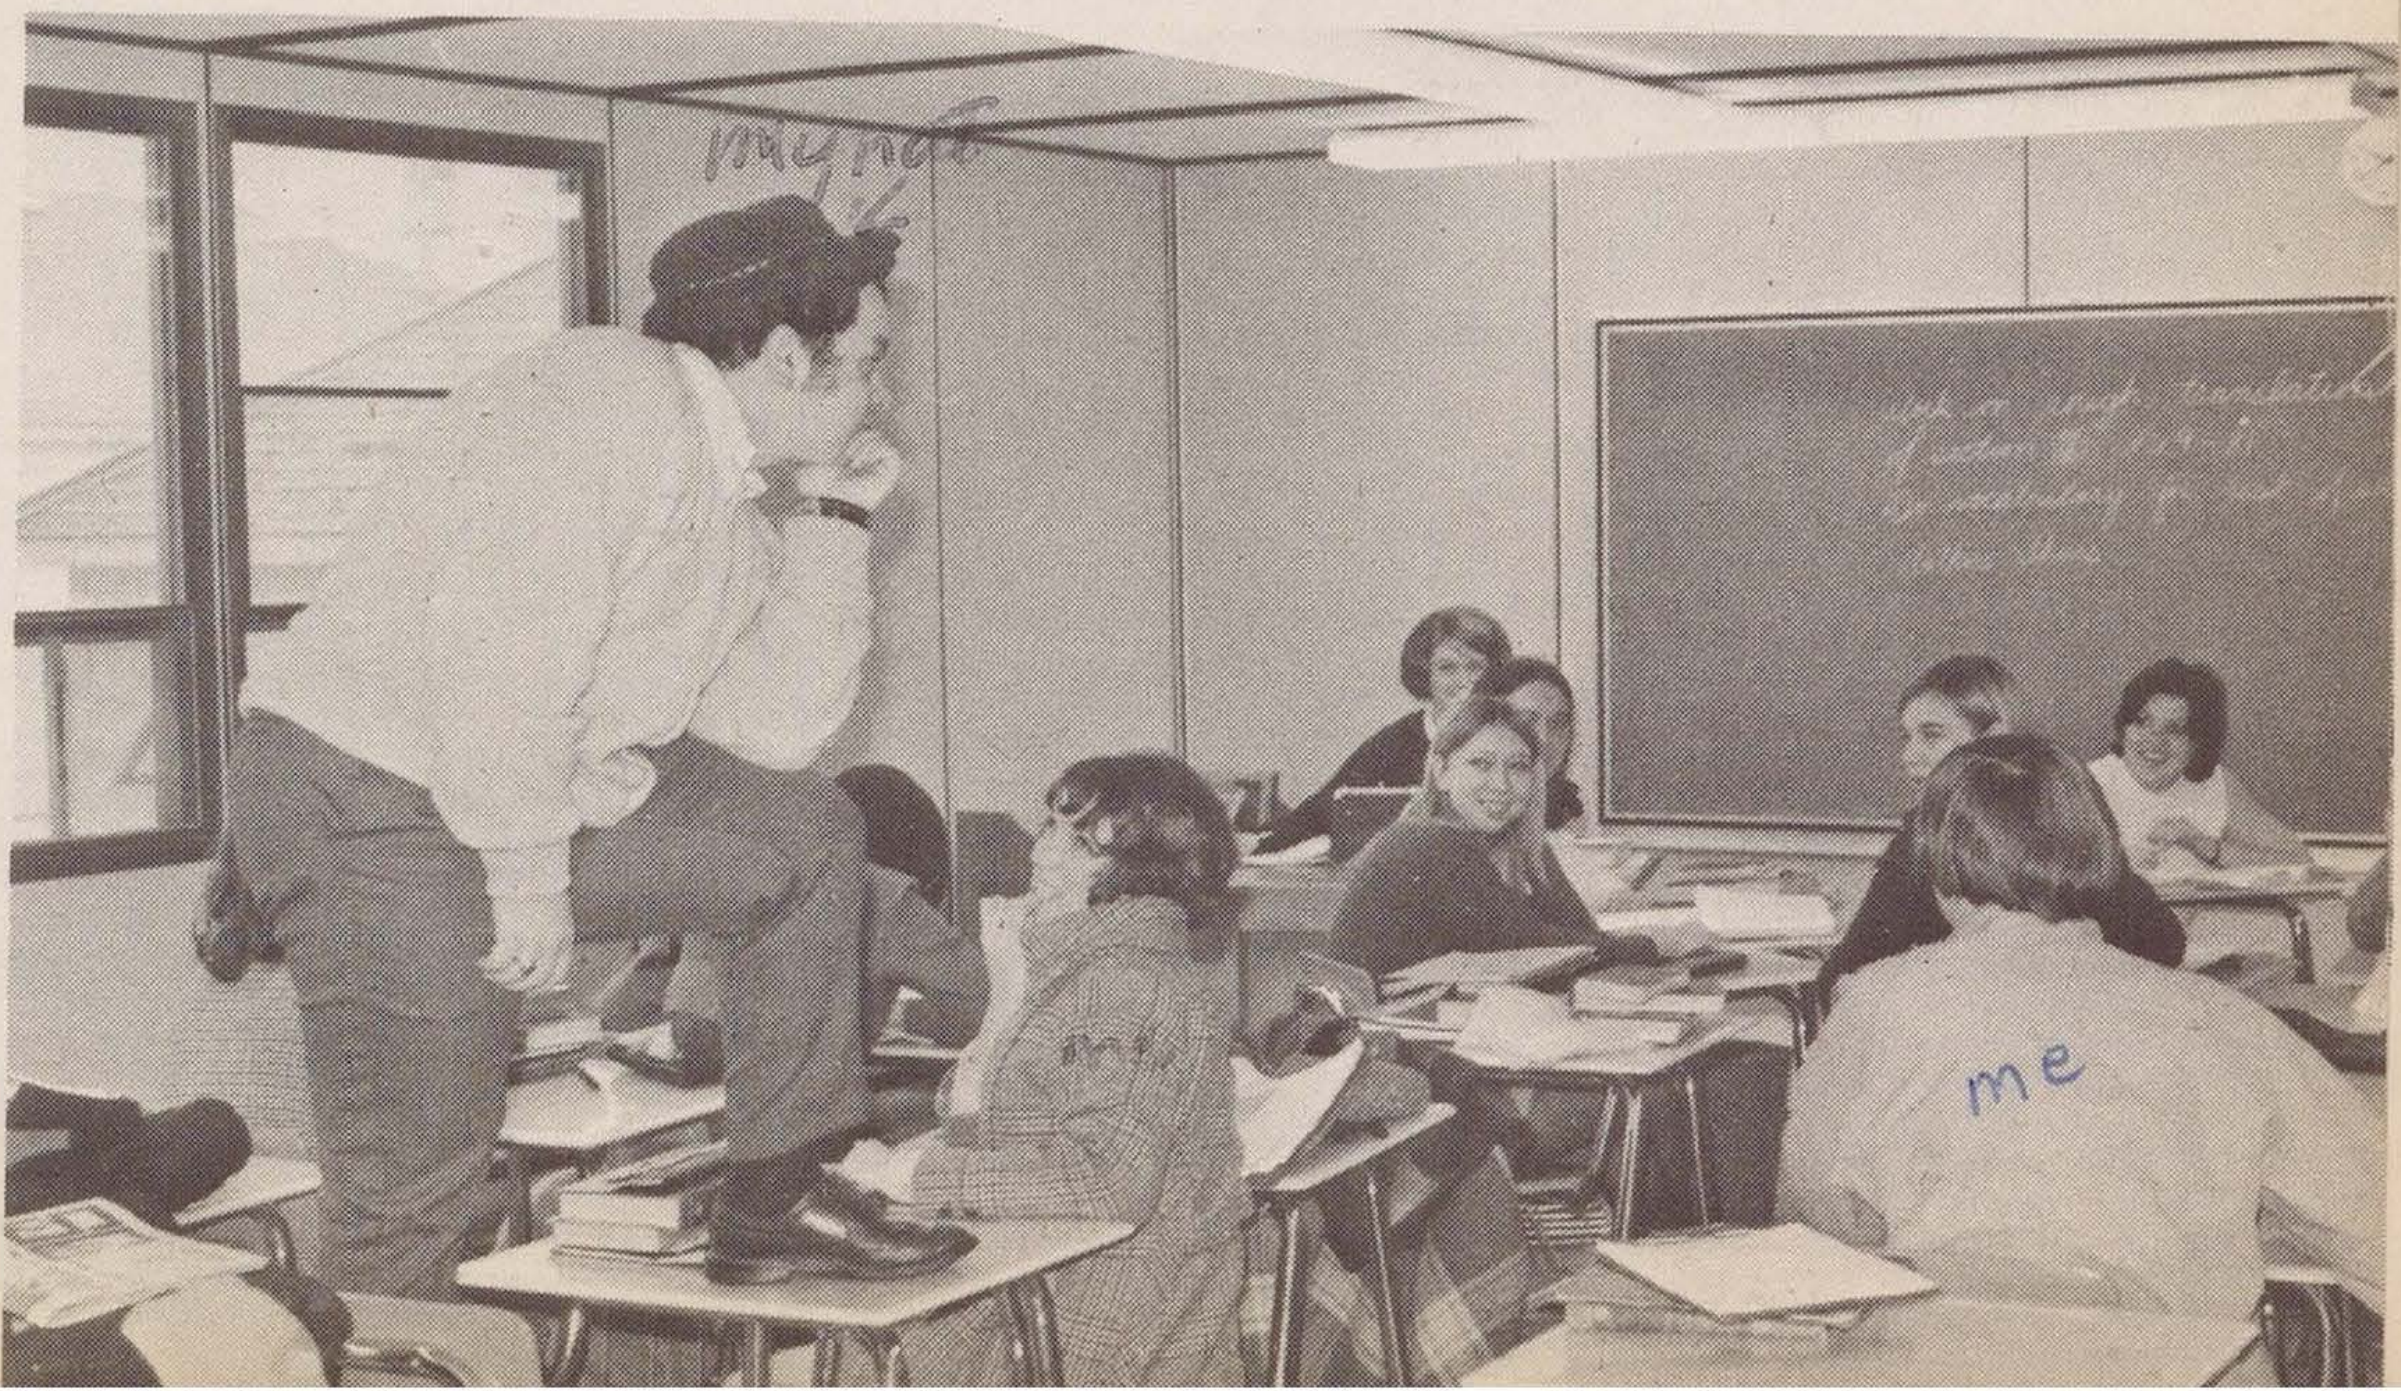

As you can see from the name of our group, we are young students working to fight cancer. Cancer Can Be Beaten and it will be beaten. Our name (Teen-age Cancer Society--Gloria Sibue Section) refers to a former staff member, Miss Gloria Sibue who passed away last year from this disease.

We chose Gloria Sibue as our chapter because we do not want to forget the faith and courage she had in trying to conquer cancer. We feel that Gloria was truly a portrait of courage. She never complained about

STUDENT COUNCIL EXECUTIVES

The Student Council has been very successful this year, they have worked very hard to satisfy the students. They have made school a little more bearable for us students by having music played during the lunch hours, the girls being able to wear slacks to classes and also new rules for the dances.

They contributed a large sum of money for the Amherstburg Arena by conducting a Walkathon.

Norm McCurdy, the president of the Student Council has been a diplomatic mediator for both the students and the administration. He has assisted very well in helping the school run harmoniously.

TRIAL AND ERROR

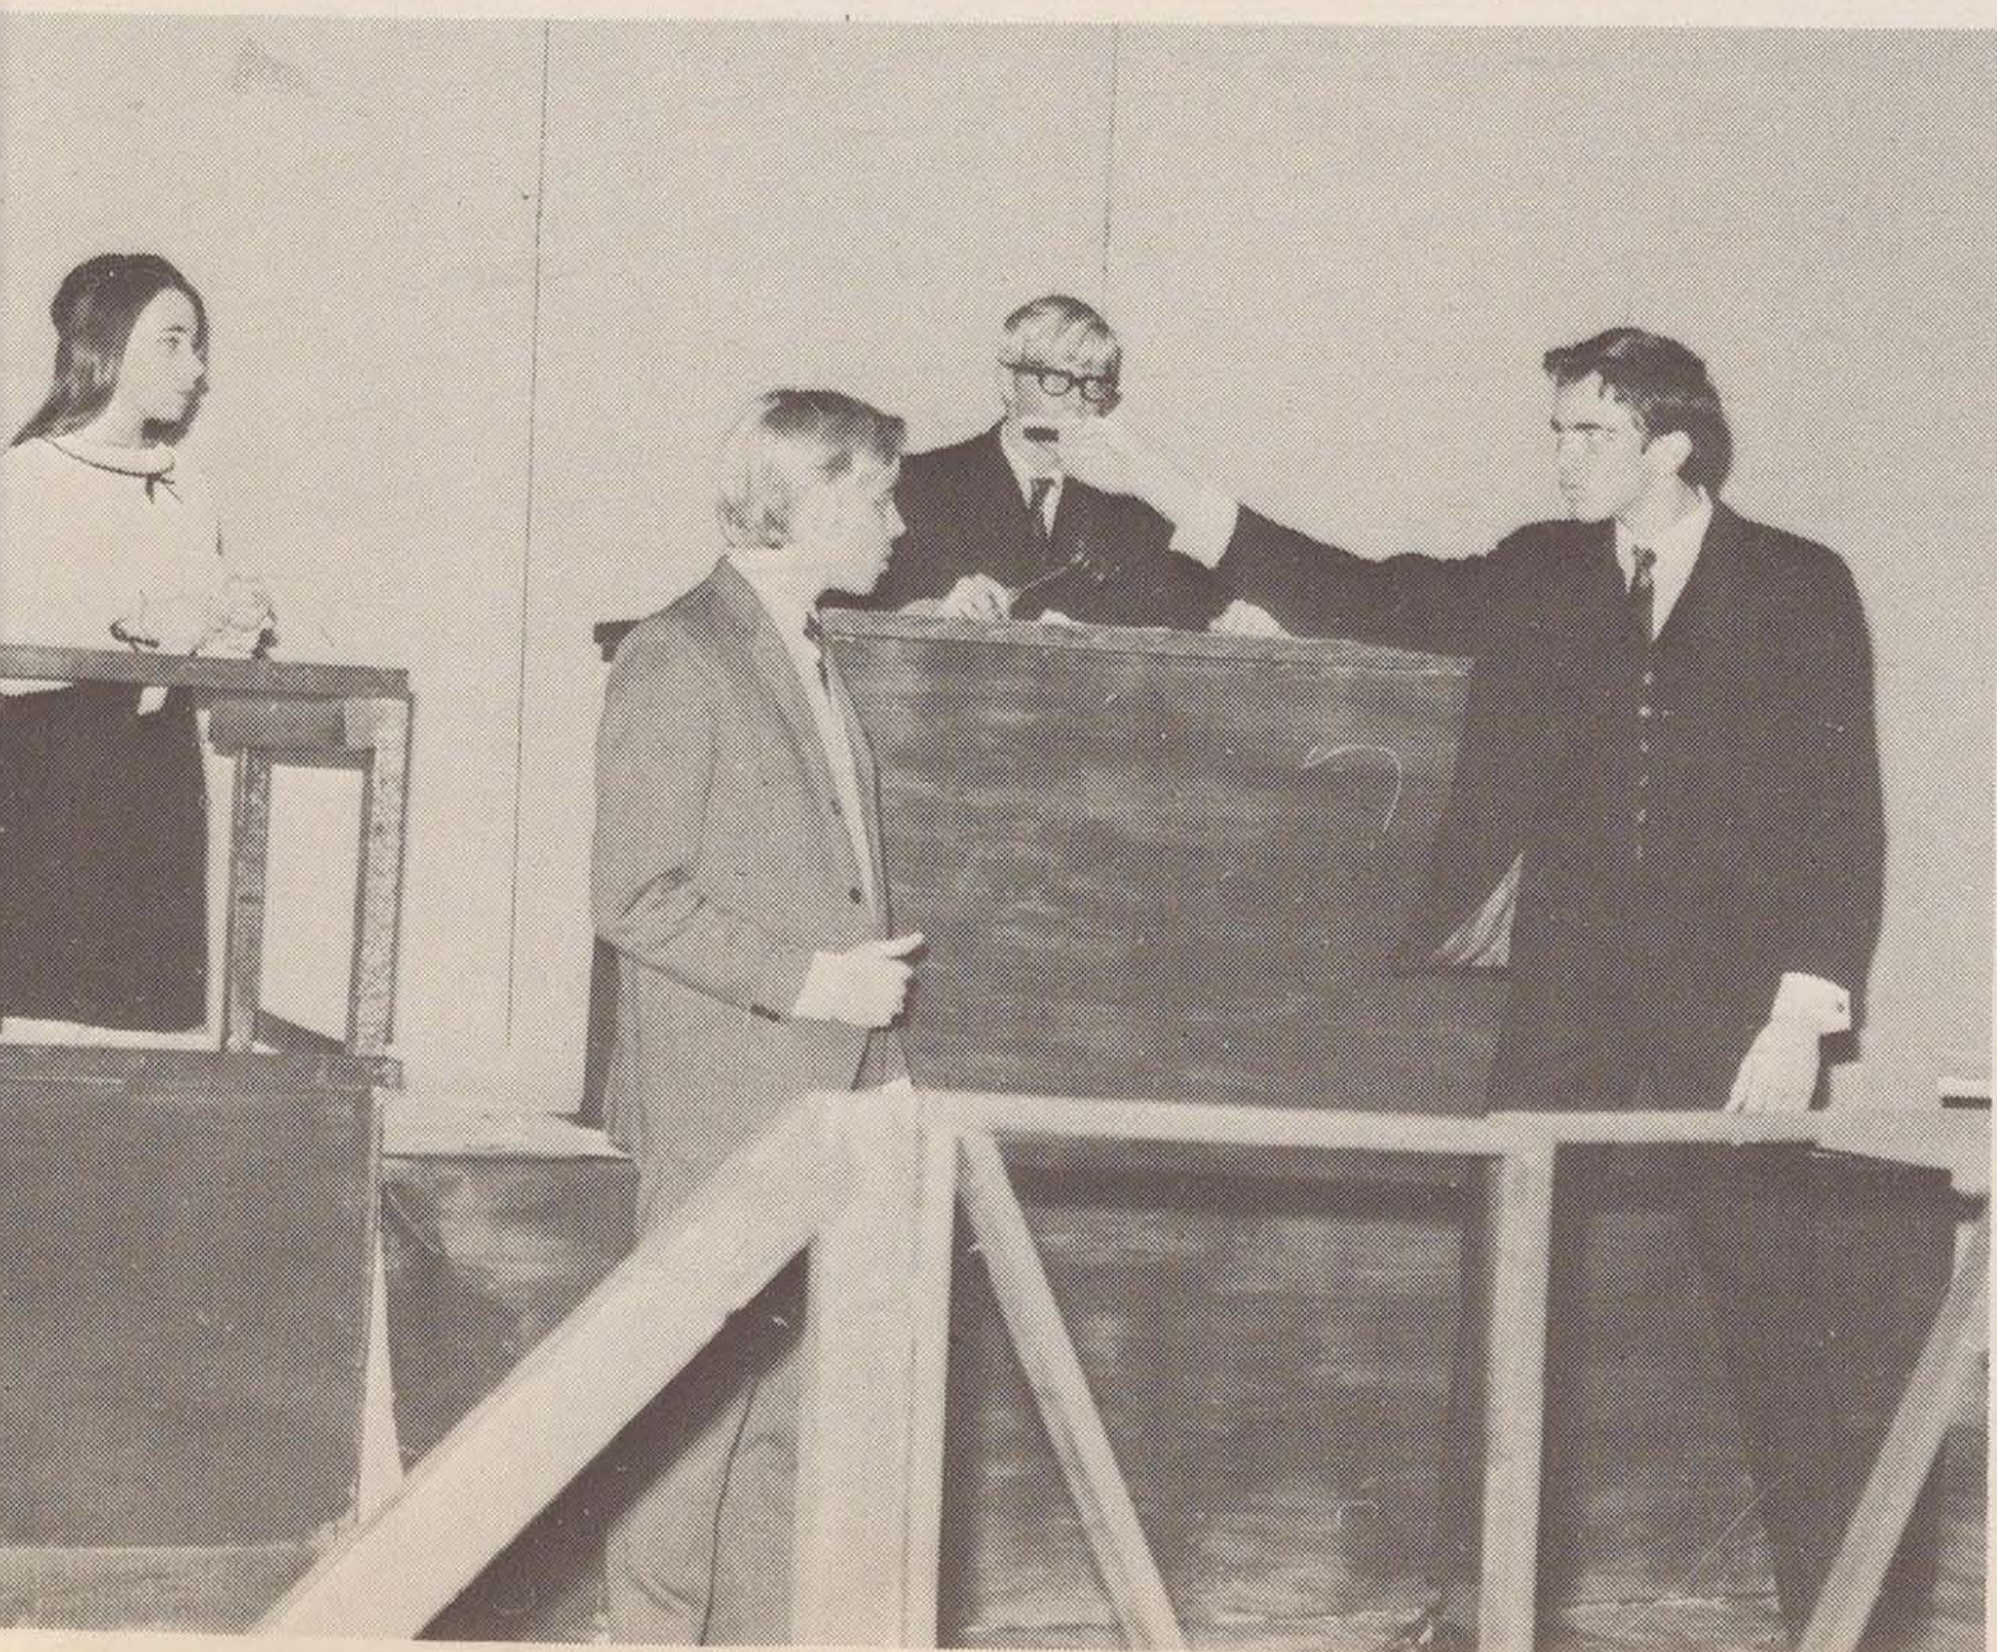

The grade 12 play "Trial and Error" started off with a real BANG this year. The actors gave a great performance which everyone enjoyed. This play was about a murder, in which a woman was convicted for having killed her husband. She's brought to court and the trial takes place and the jury rises and leaves the courtroom to make a very important decision. They had a few quarrels while deciding but finally their decision was final! She was found not guilty. Well that's a little bit of the play grade 12's put on and with the help of all the other teachers they did great. A special congratulations to all who helped with the play this year.

Although the Junior Girls lost to Belle River in a sudden death game to Belle River, they had a very good season losing only two of their games. Their final standing was second place. Special thanks to Mrs. Arbuckle who coached the team this year. Congratulations to Kathy Maloney who was high scorer with 65 points.

FRONT ROW: Mrs. M. Haganiers, (Coach) Jane Grondin, Linda Gignac, Mary Grondin, Sue Maloney, (Captain) Nancy Szekeley, Gwen Carnaham, Janice Deslippe (Manager).

The Senior Girls went undefeated in regular season play, only to be defeated in a sudden death game to Kingsville. Team members should be commended for their valiant attempts. Their coach, Mrs. M. Haganiers did a fine job at coaching this team. Congratulations to Sue Maloney who was high scorer with 35 points.

WEATHER CLUB

They have started to observe the weather and keep records for Amherstburg.

Based on their own observations the weather club is now able to make forecast with reasonable accuracy.

YEARBOOK

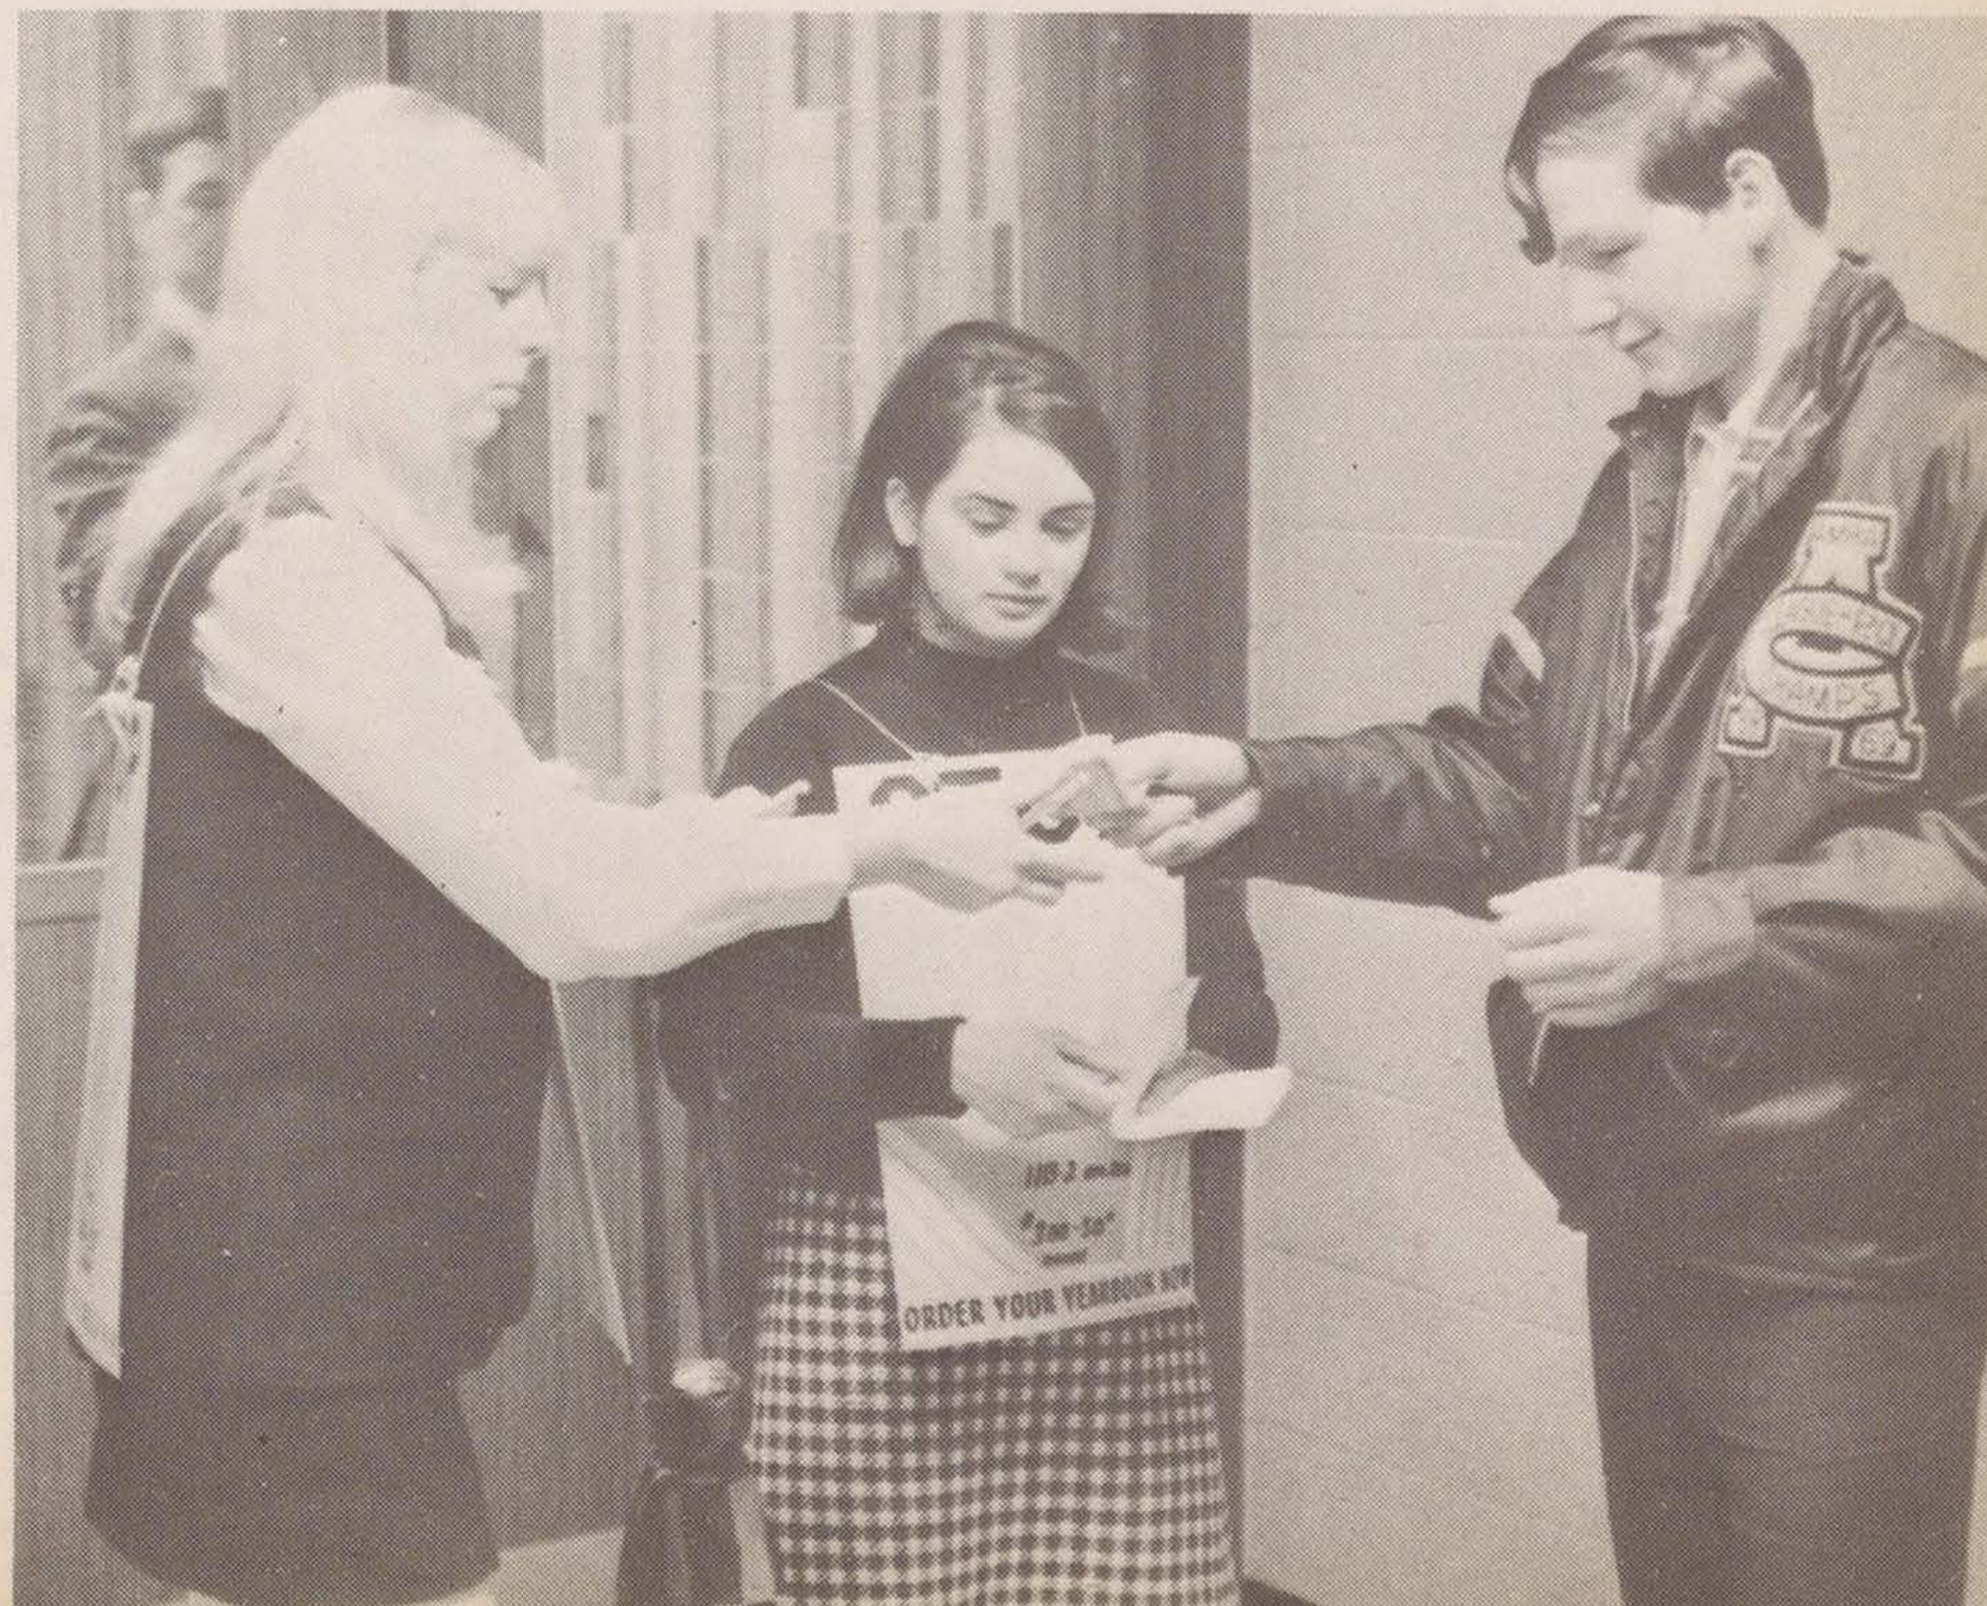

STAFF

The Yearbook Staff spent several hours after school working to put this yearbook together for the student body. Most students have little or no knowledge of the long hours of hard work taken to produce just one page. Due to the earlier delivery, headlines have been moved up and we were forced to spend many of our evenings at school working.

The construction of the yearbook is not as simple as it looks. Photography was our main problem. After we had the pictures collected and identified we were on our way.

Look who the wind blew in!

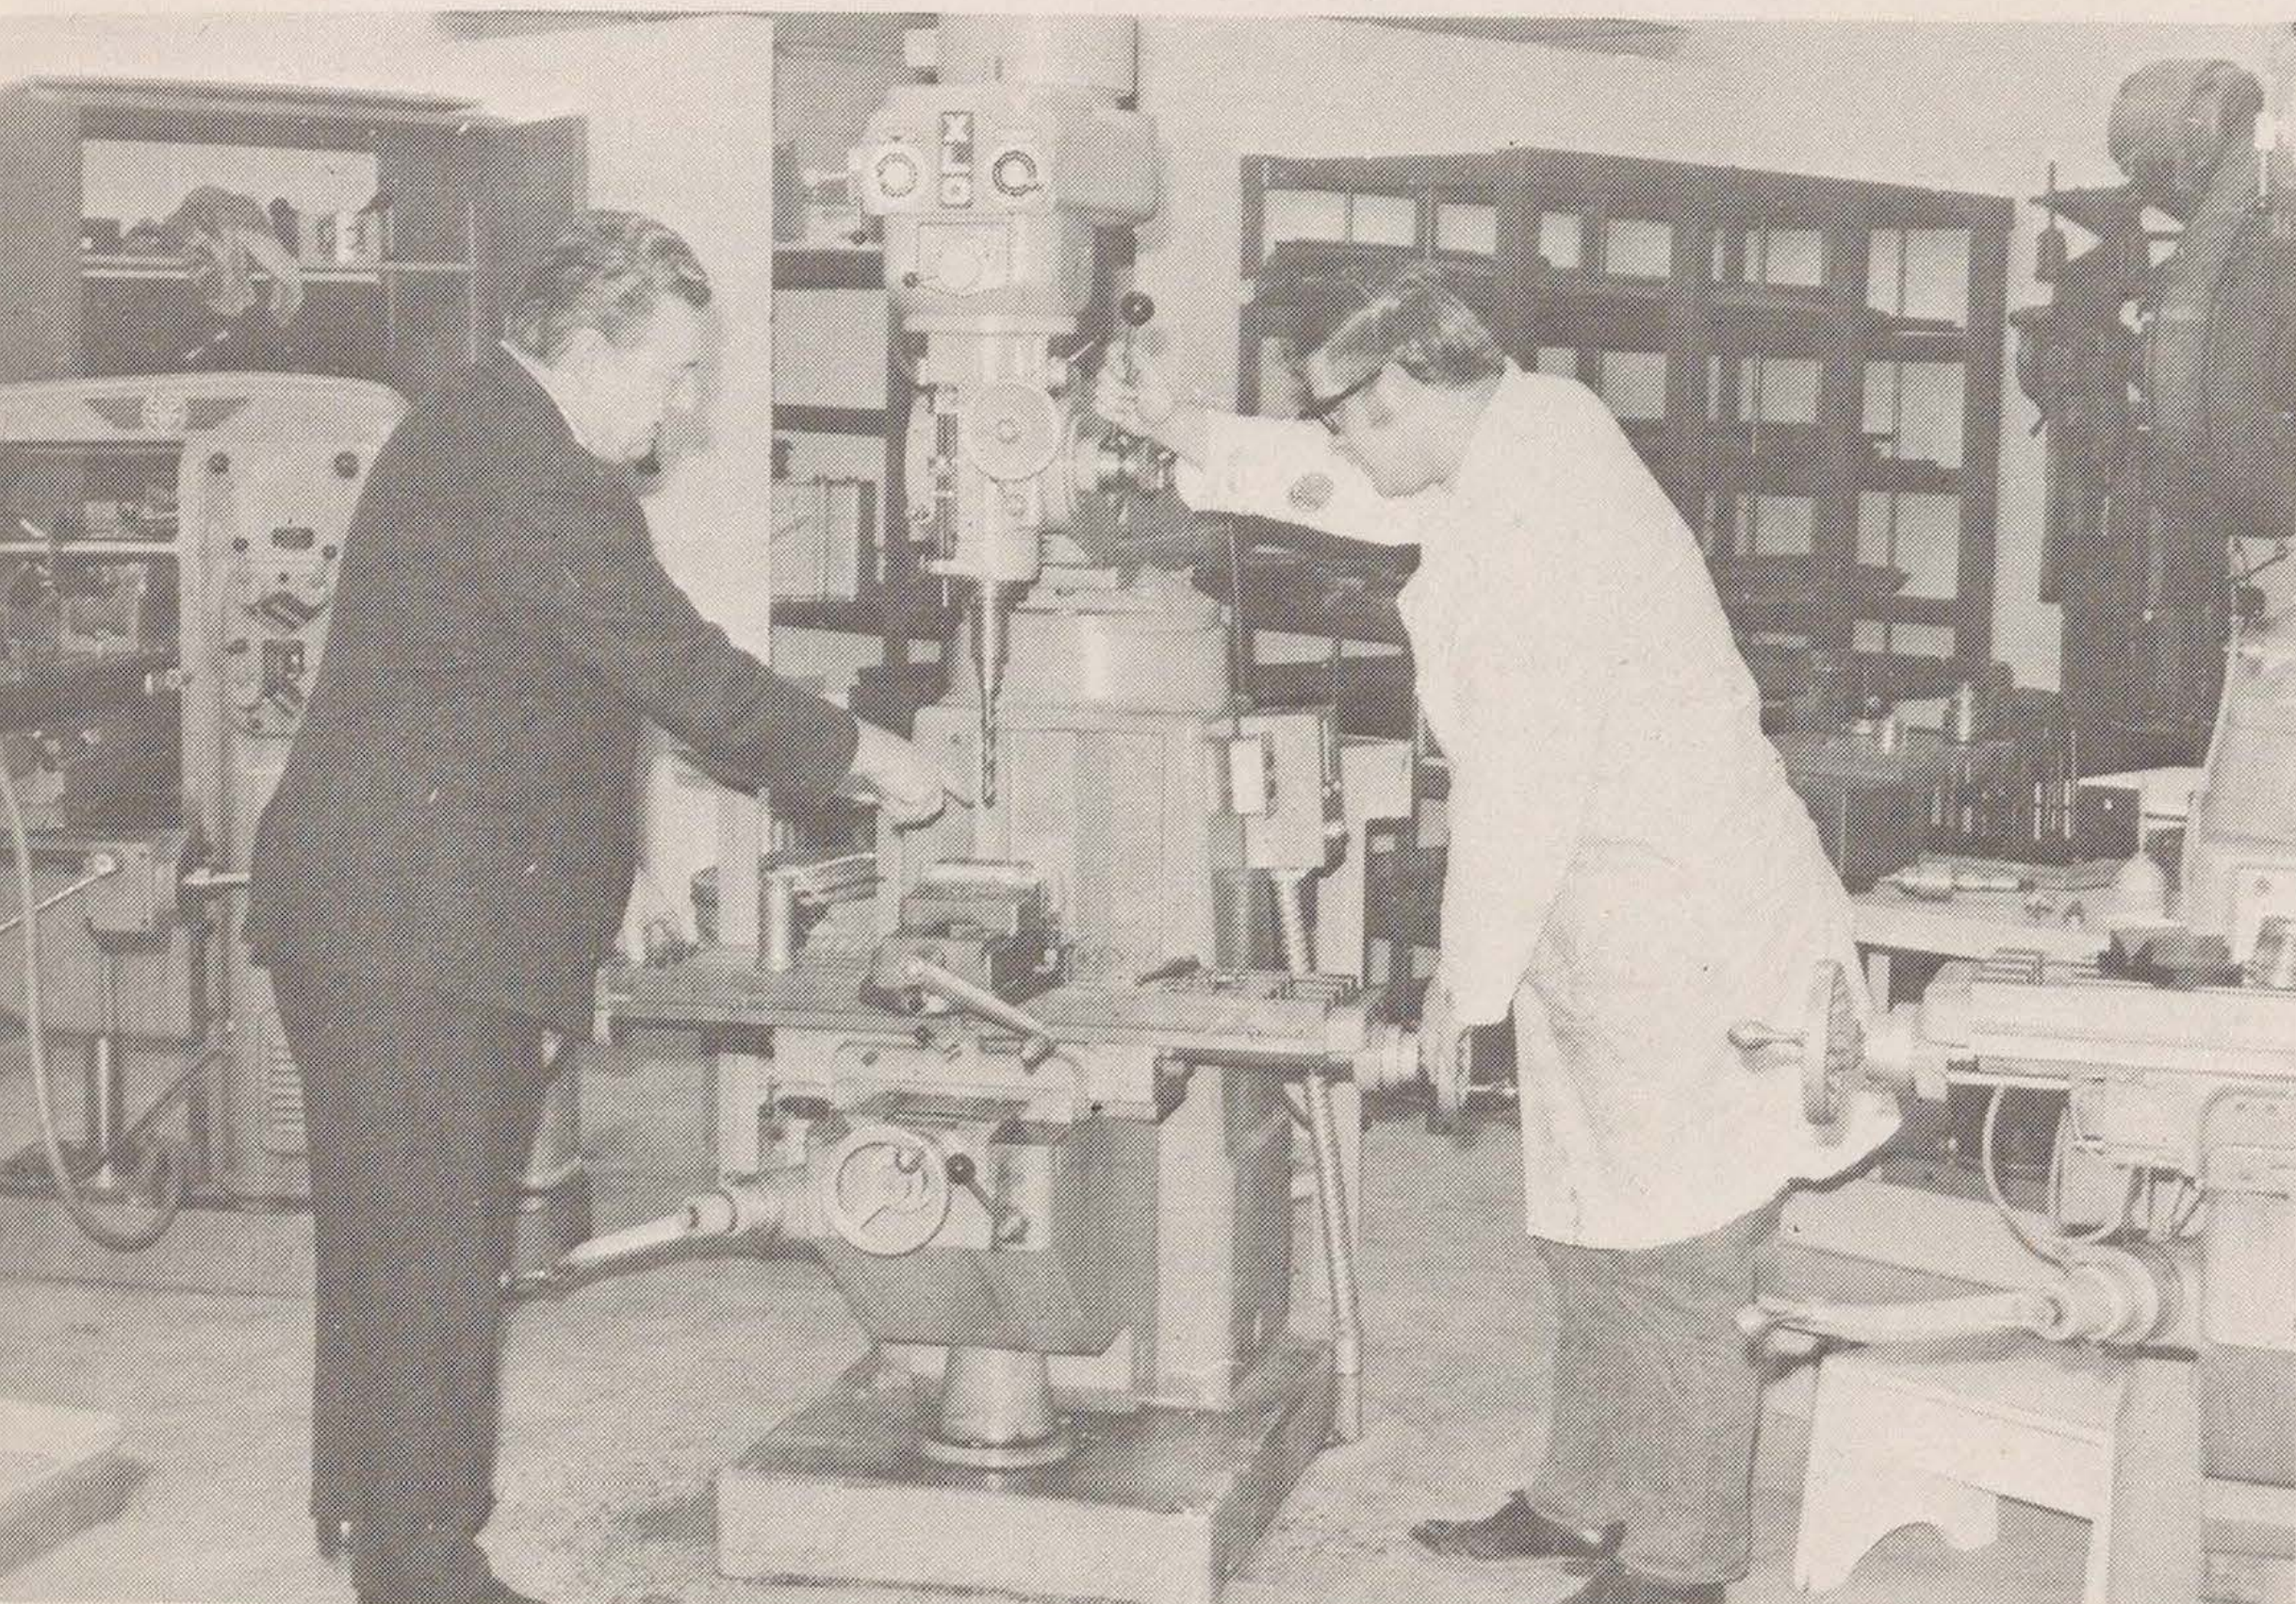

I always pay attention.

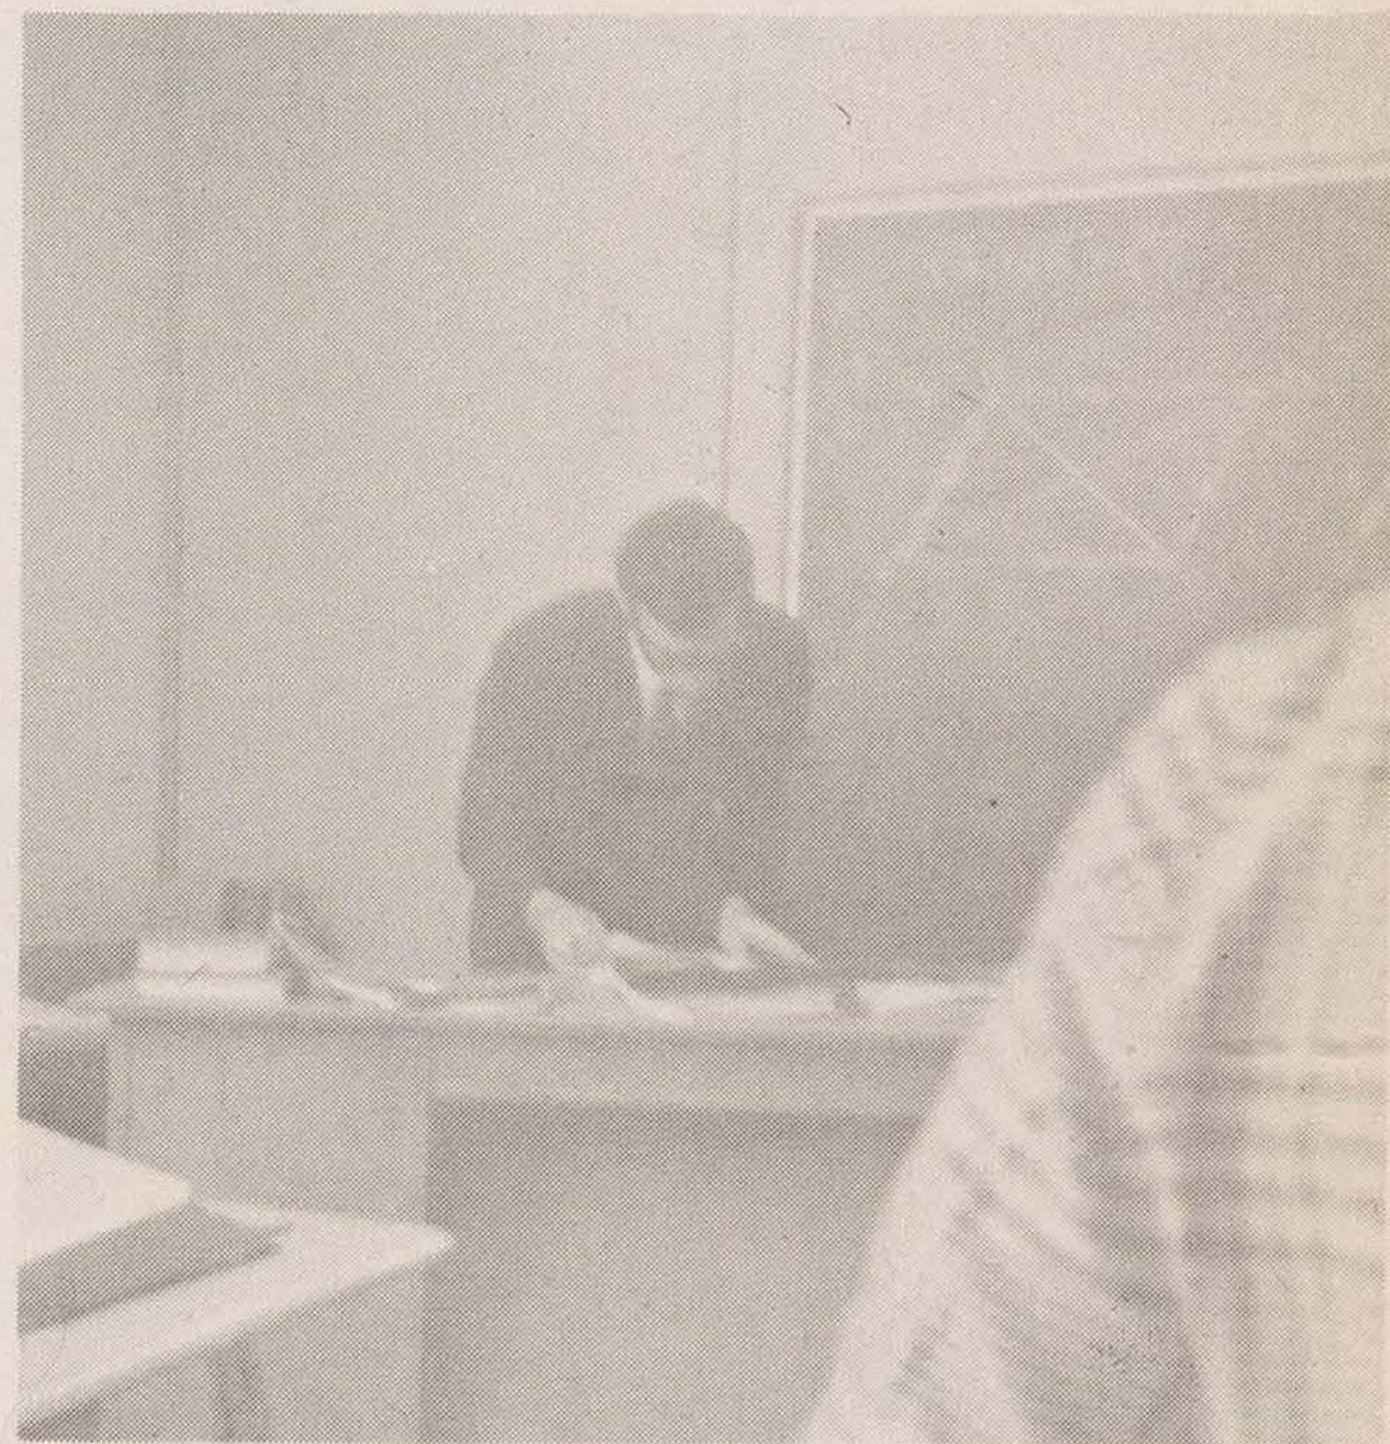

ZZZZZZZAP!

A bouquet for Mr. Sypes

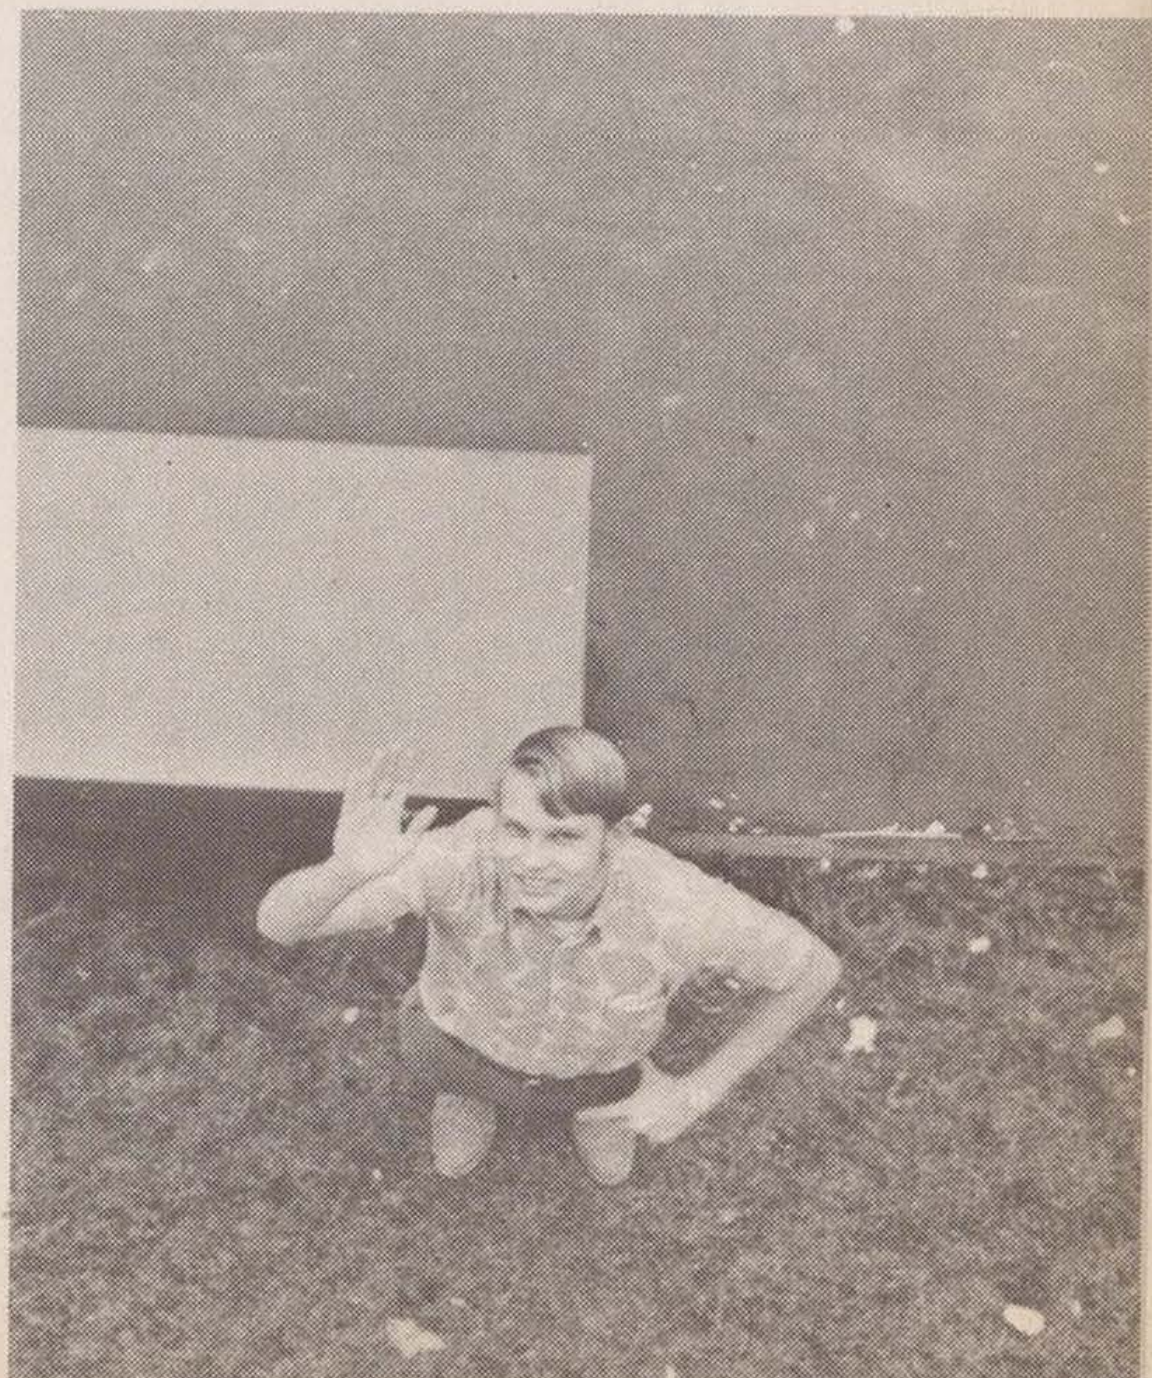

How many times have I drilled you on this?

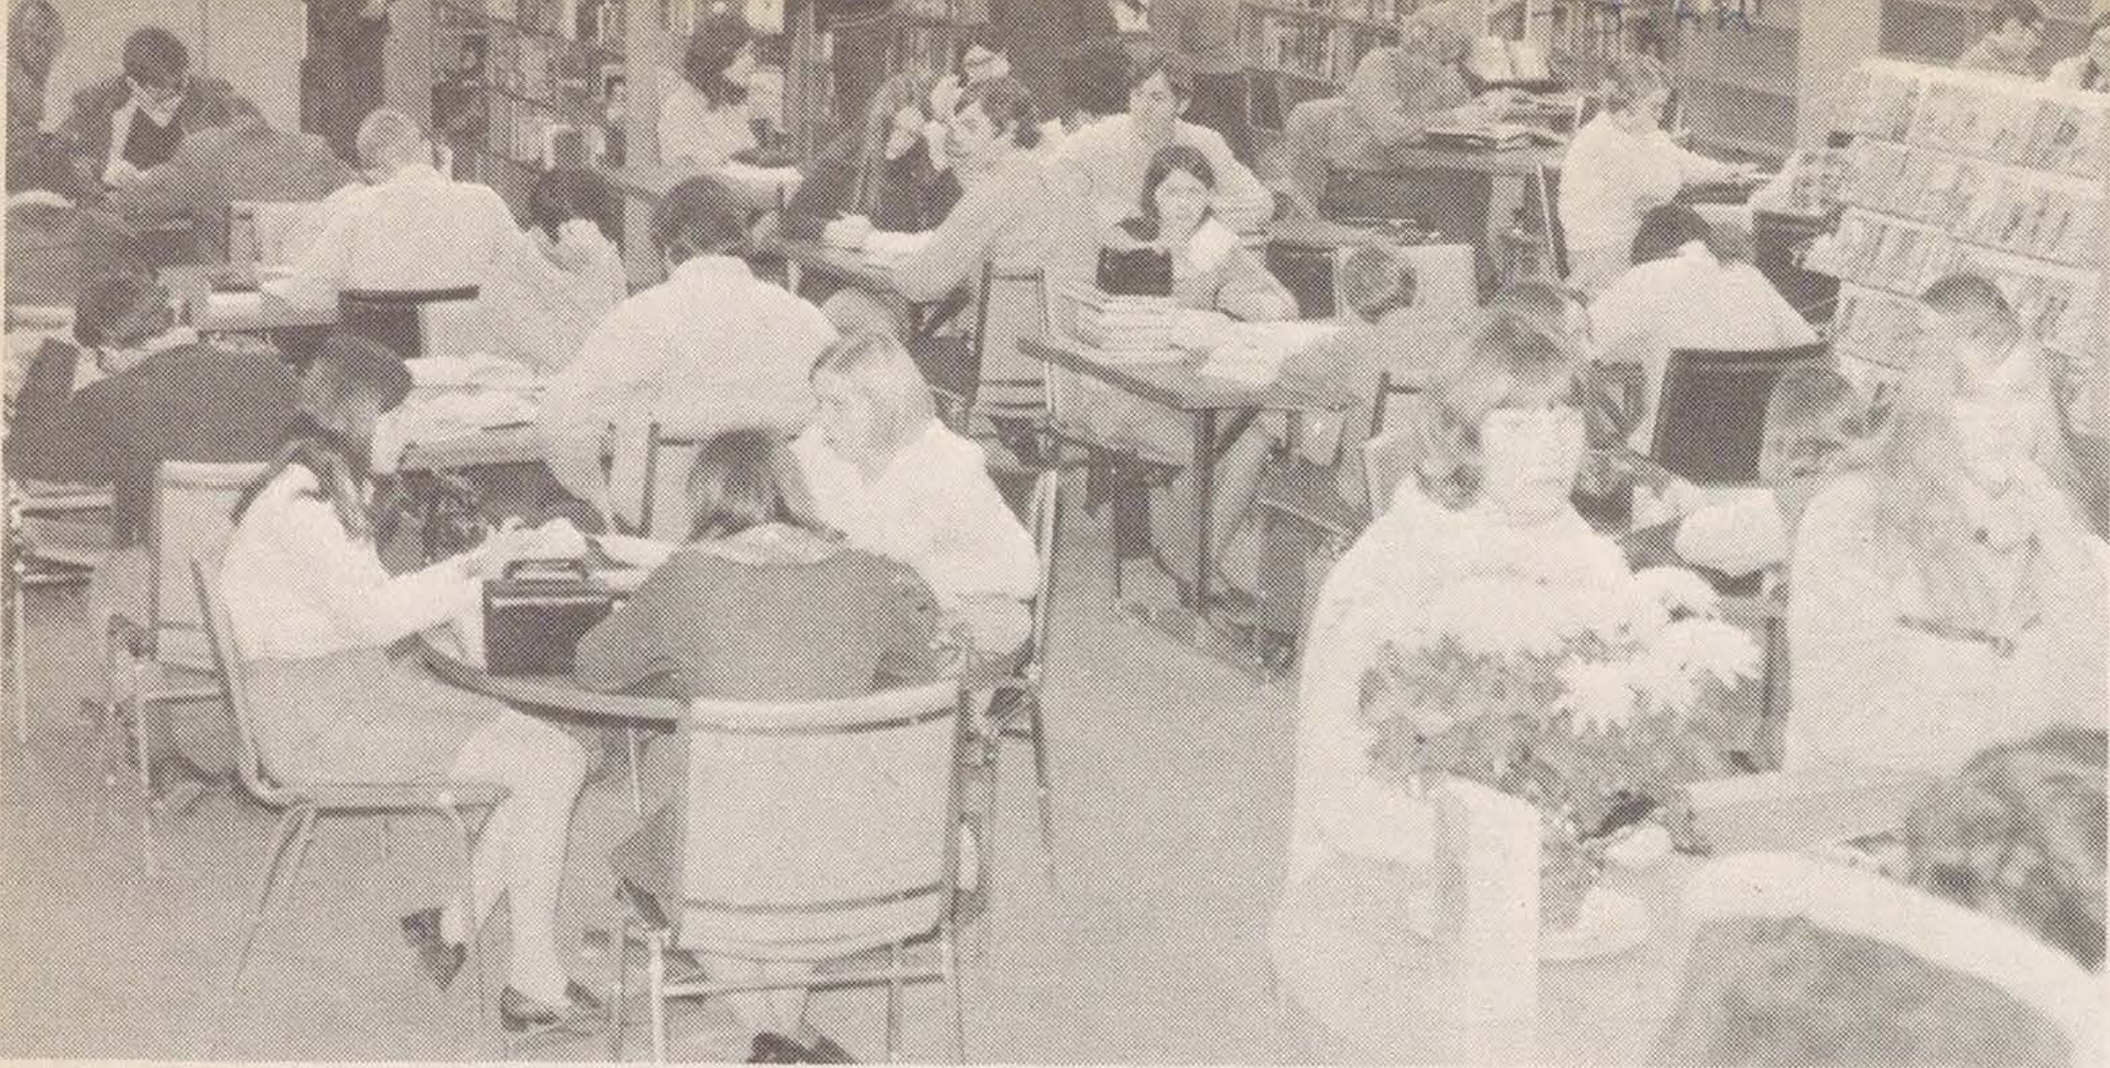

Is math always this hazy?

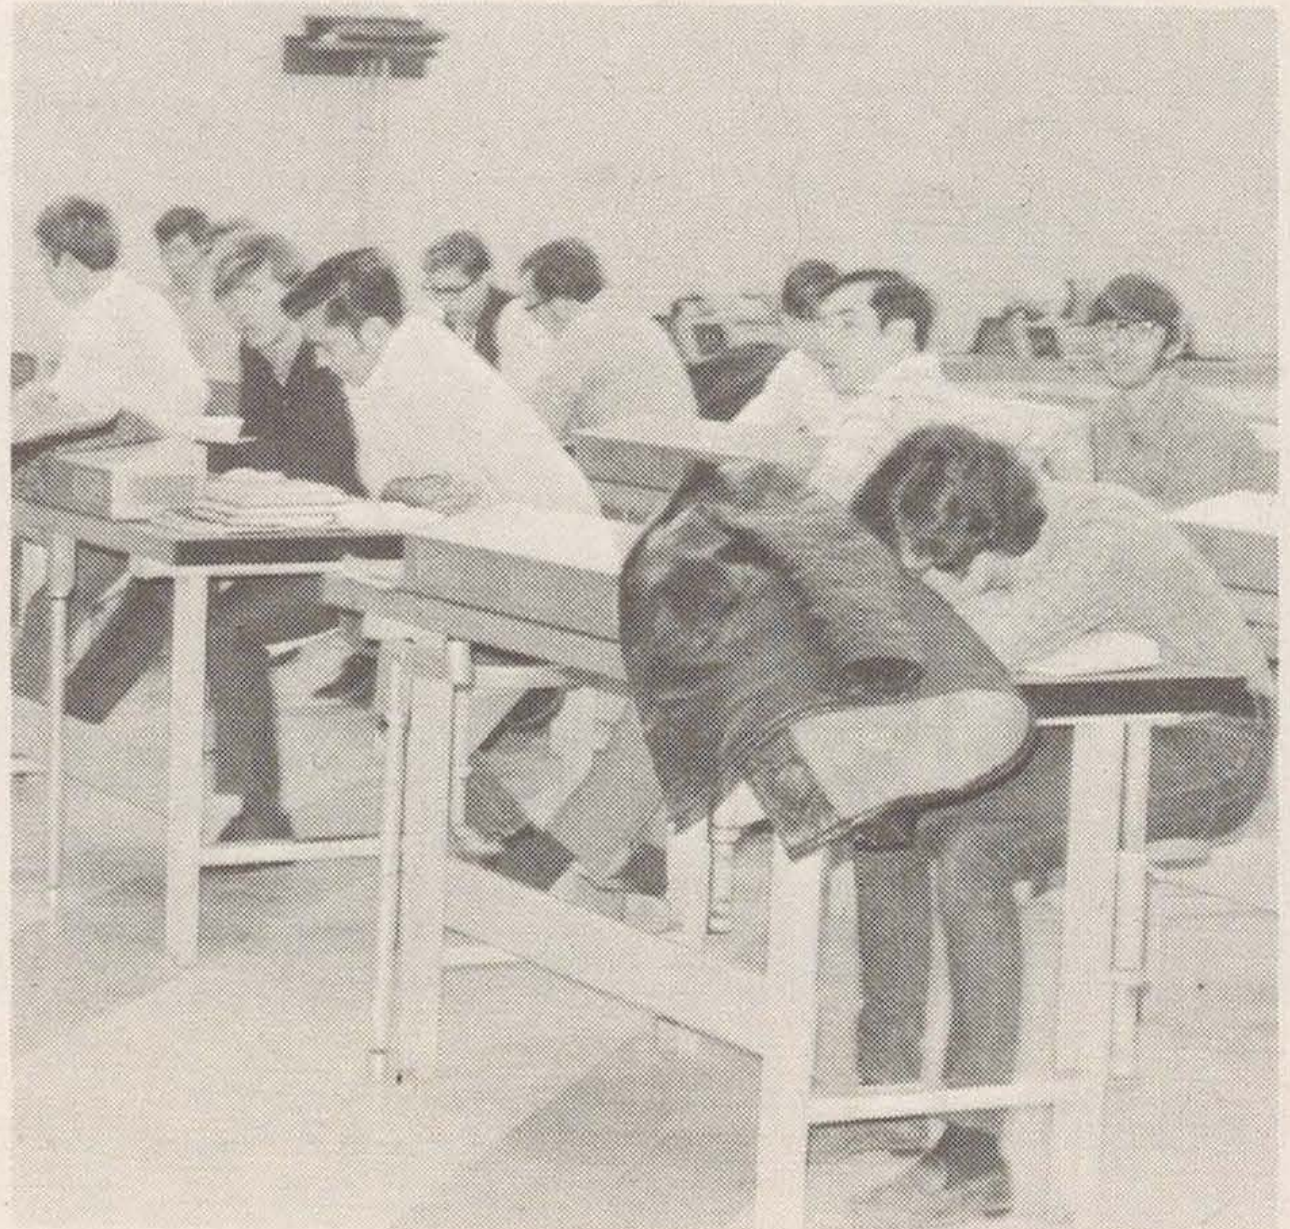

Somebody over there really smells!

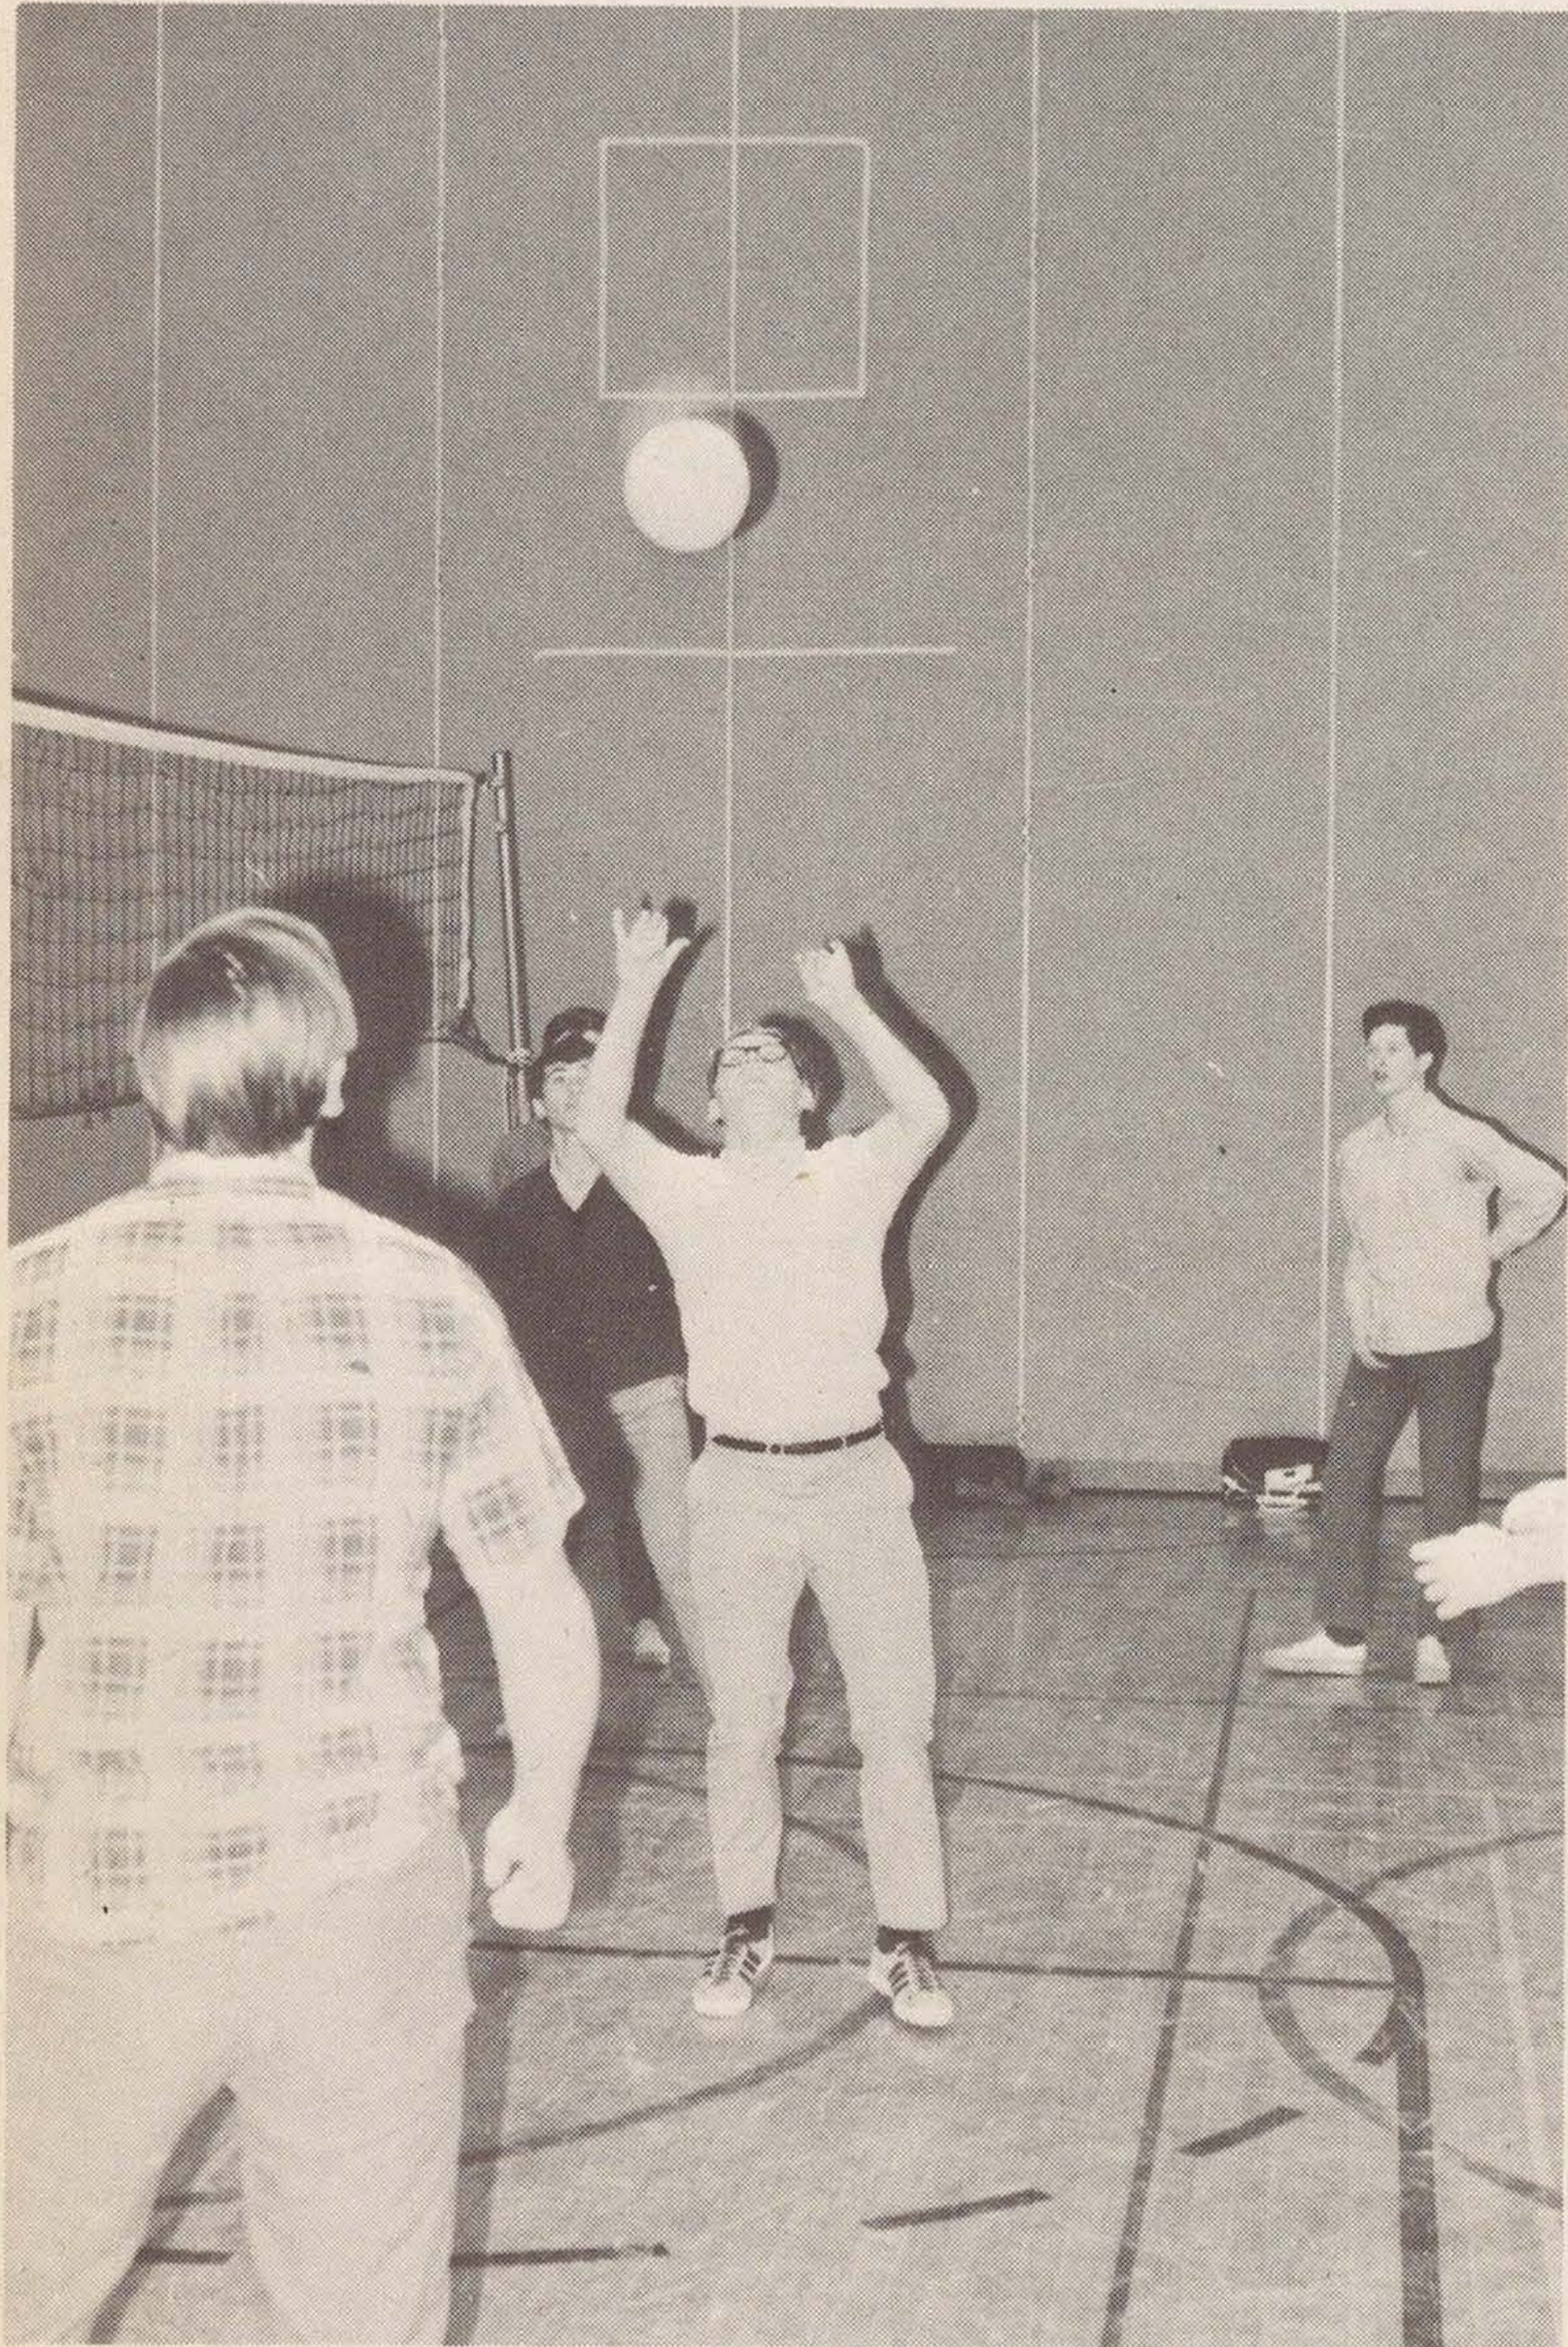

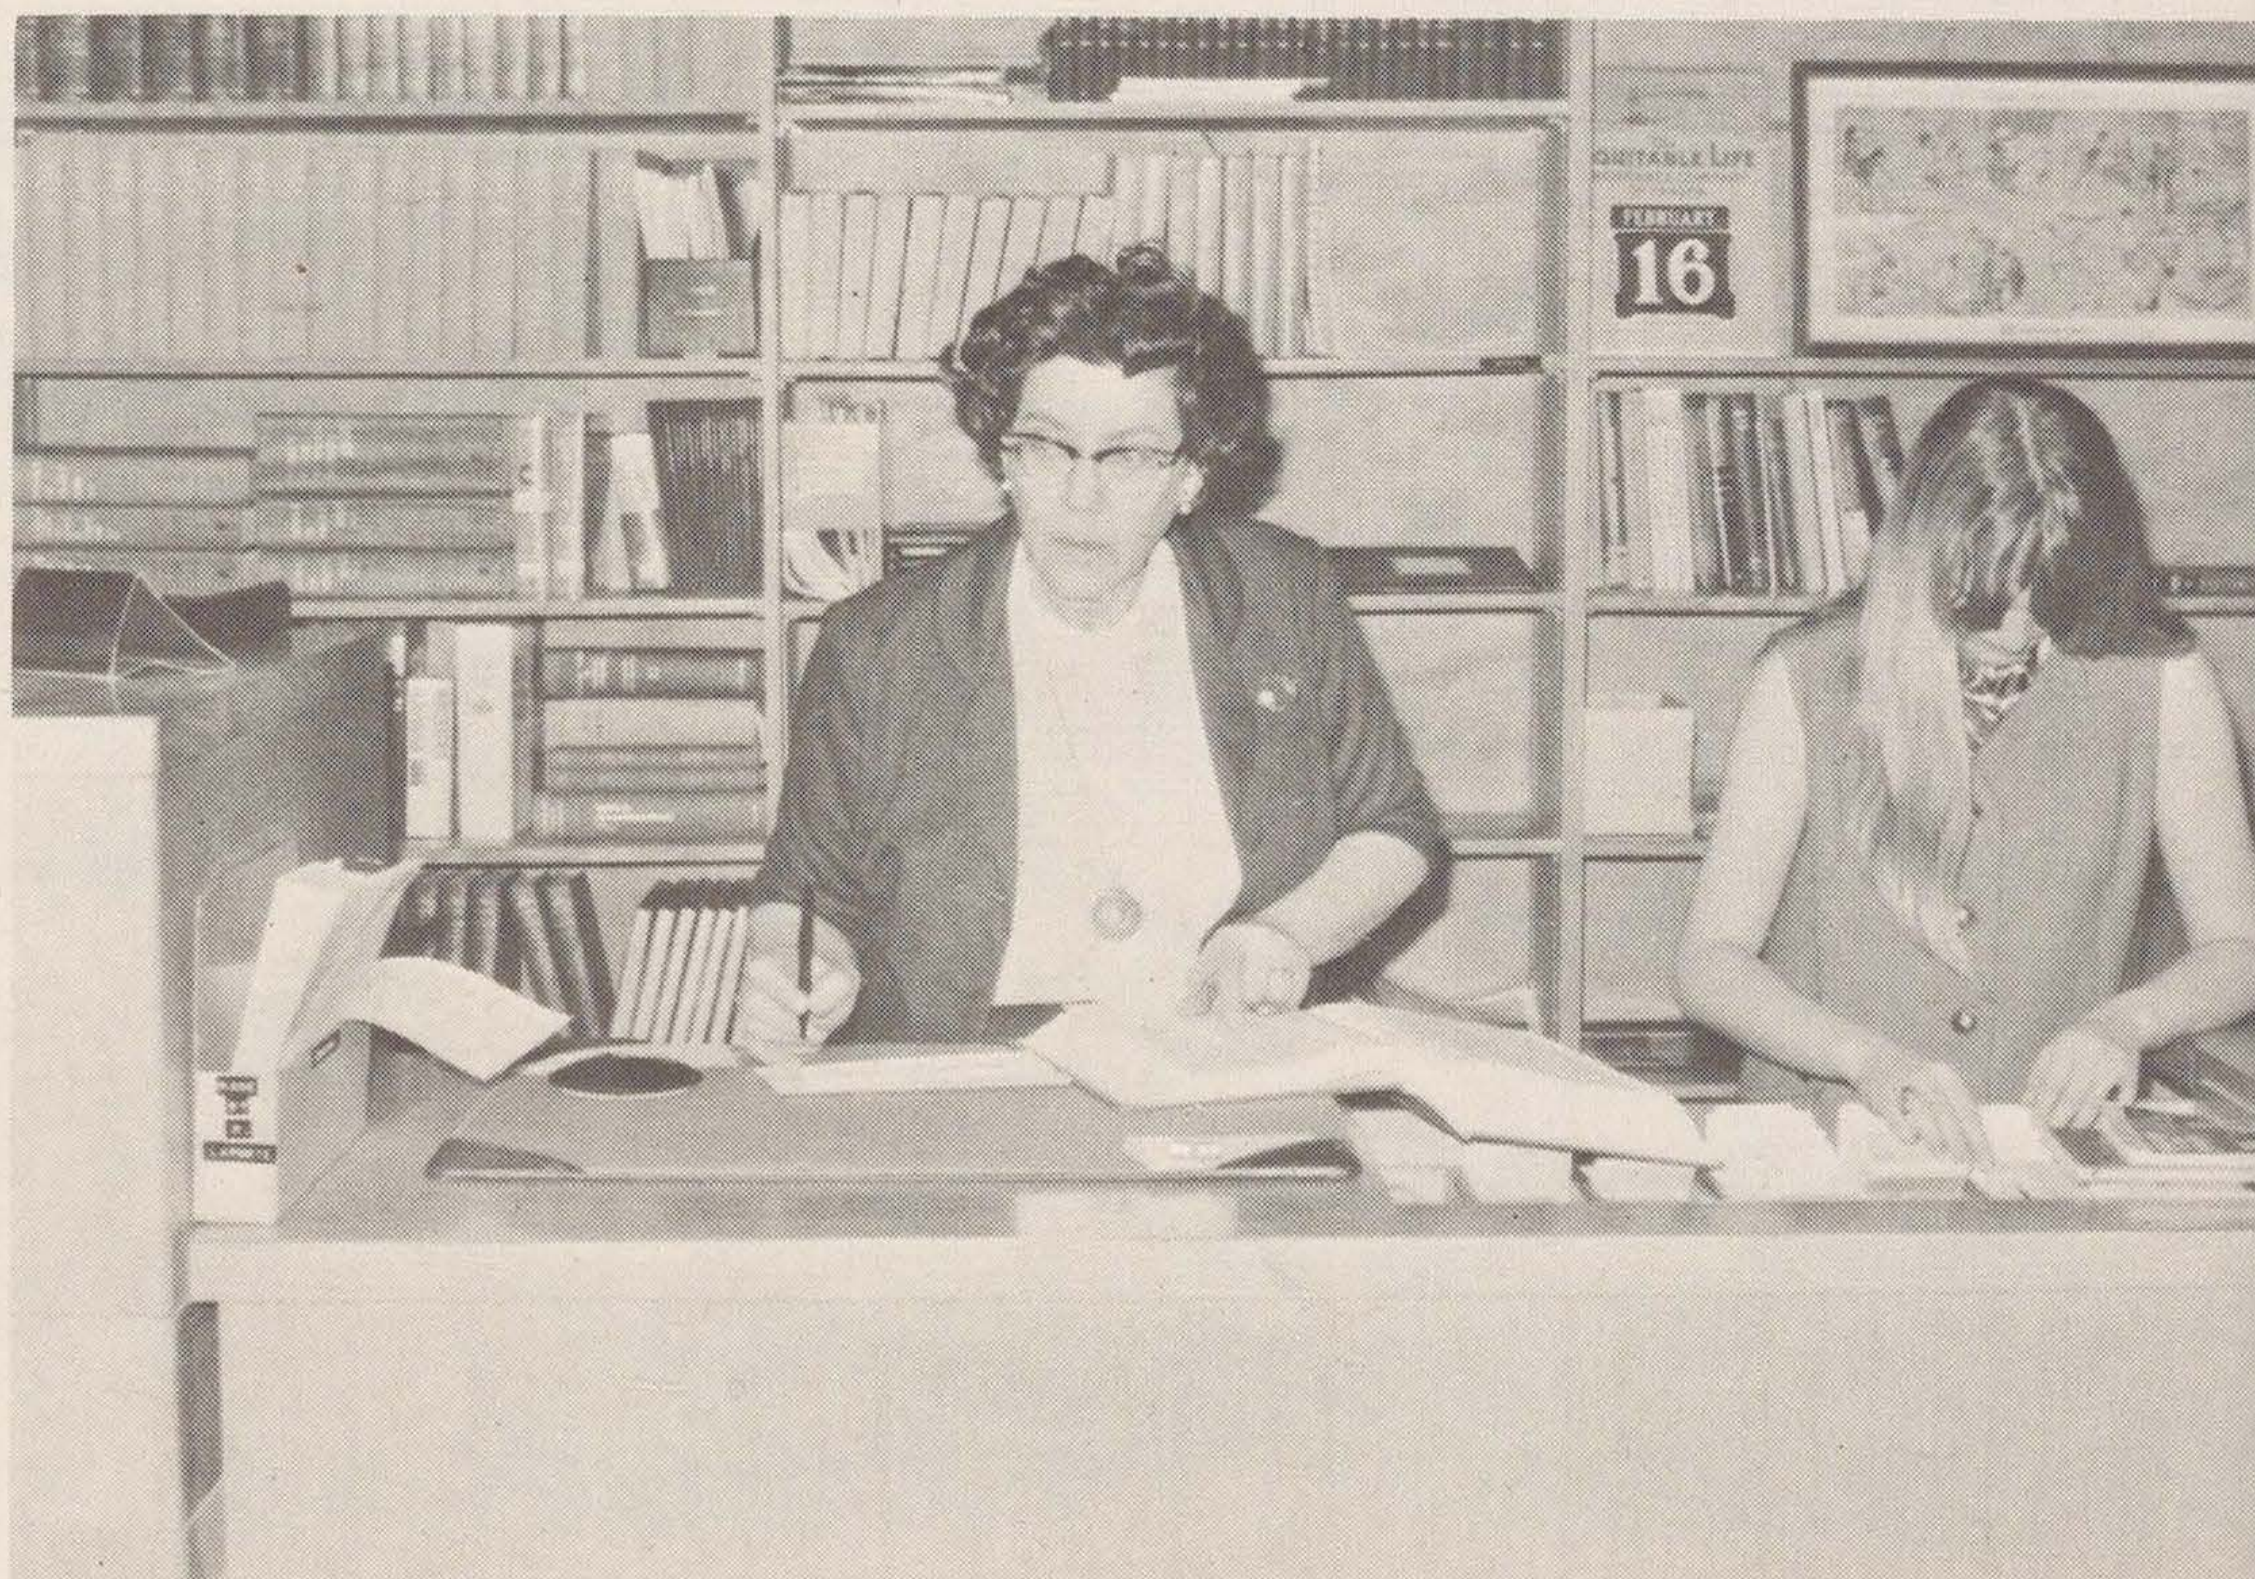

This surely must be a posed picture.

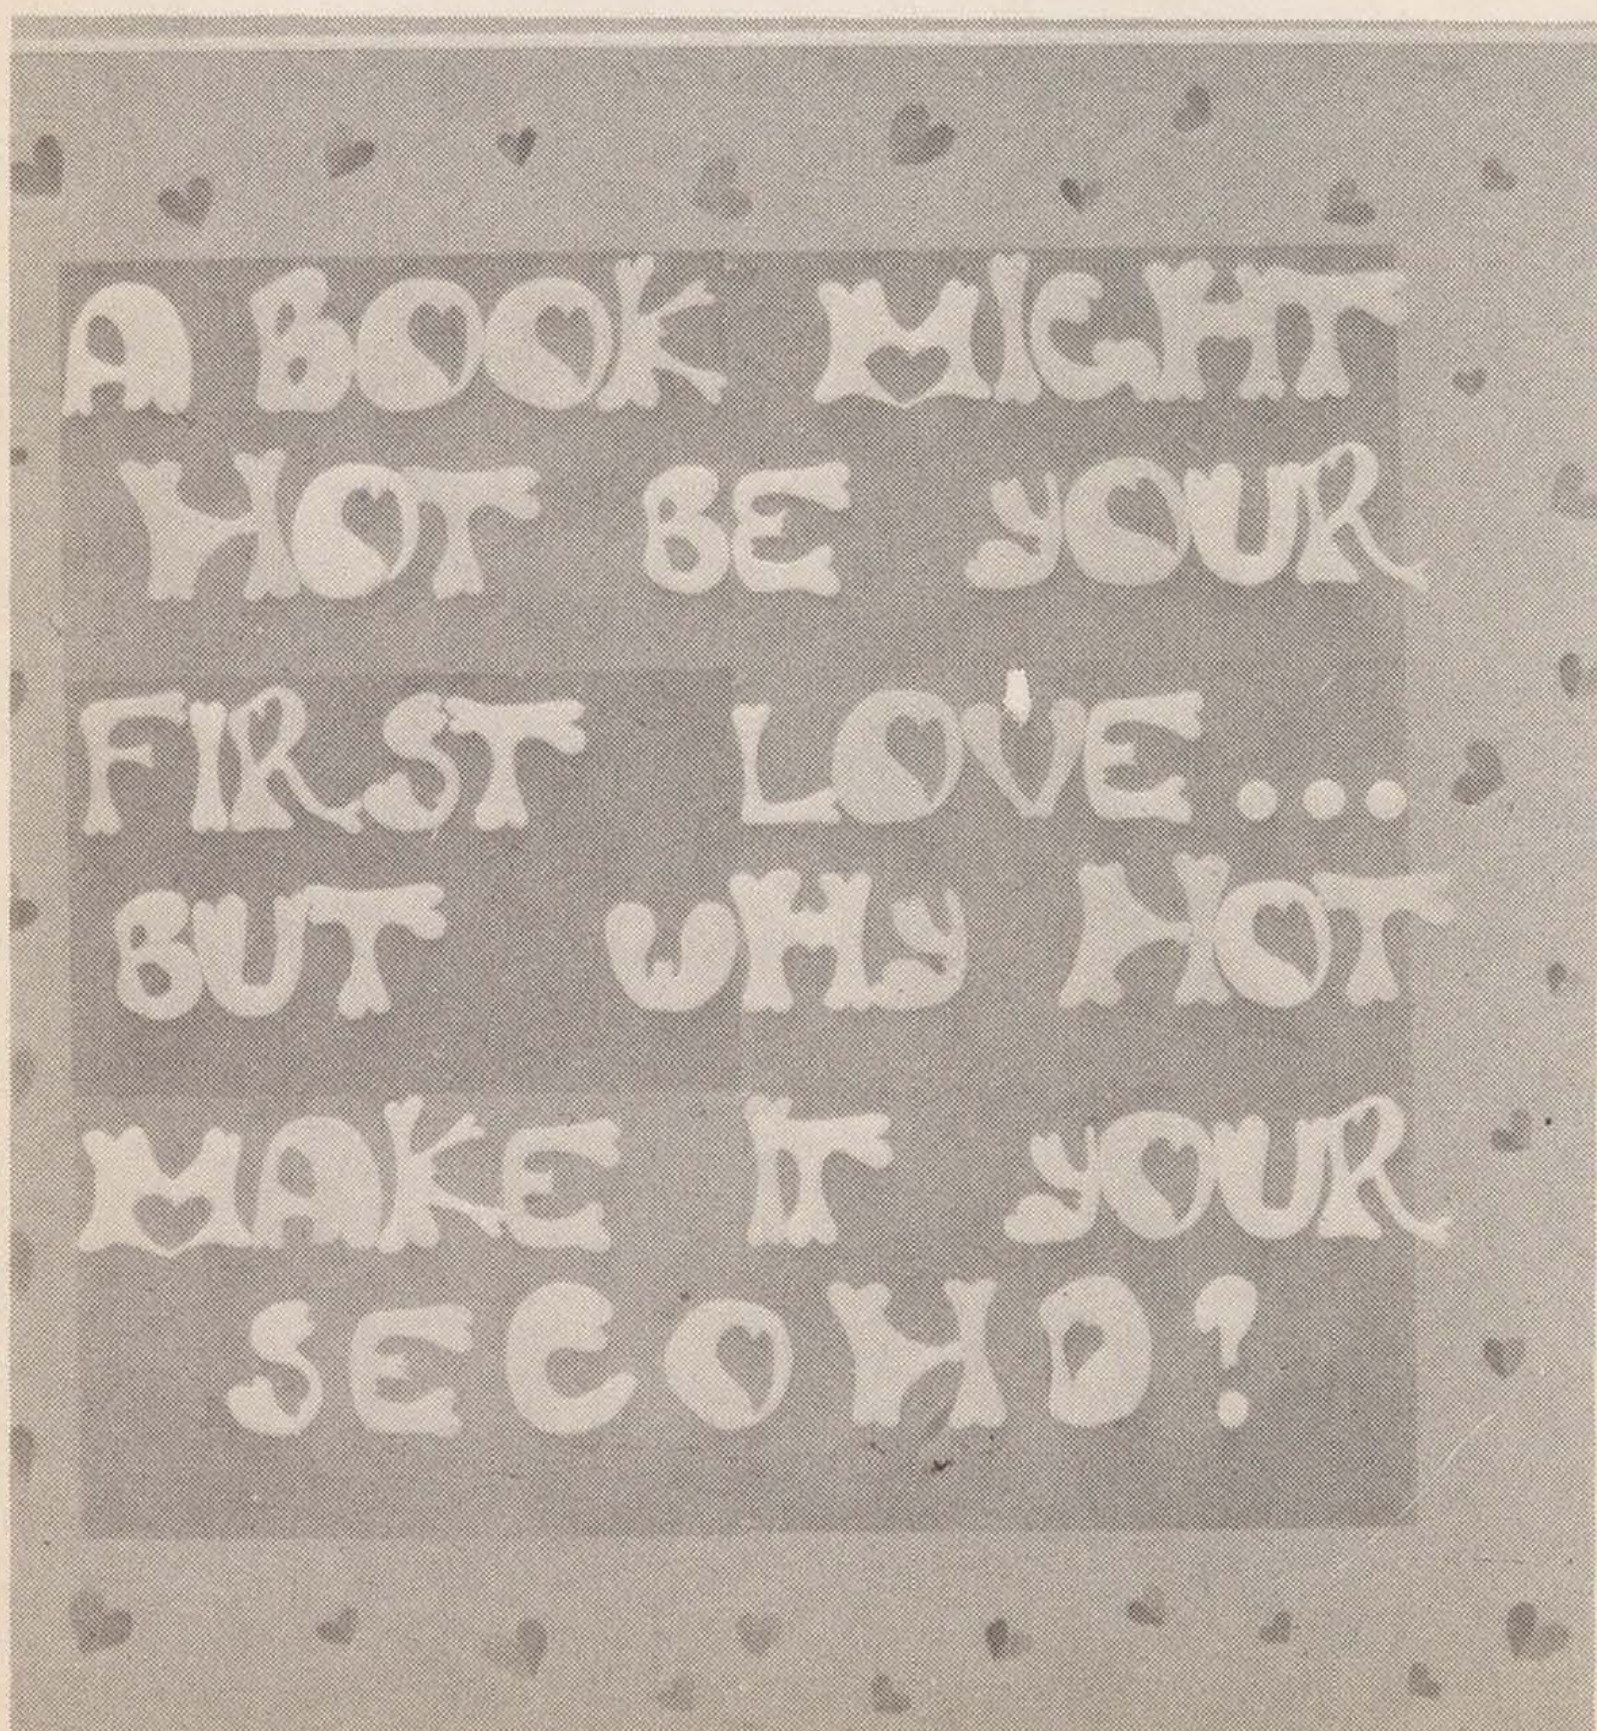

Monday!
MONDAY!
MONDAY!

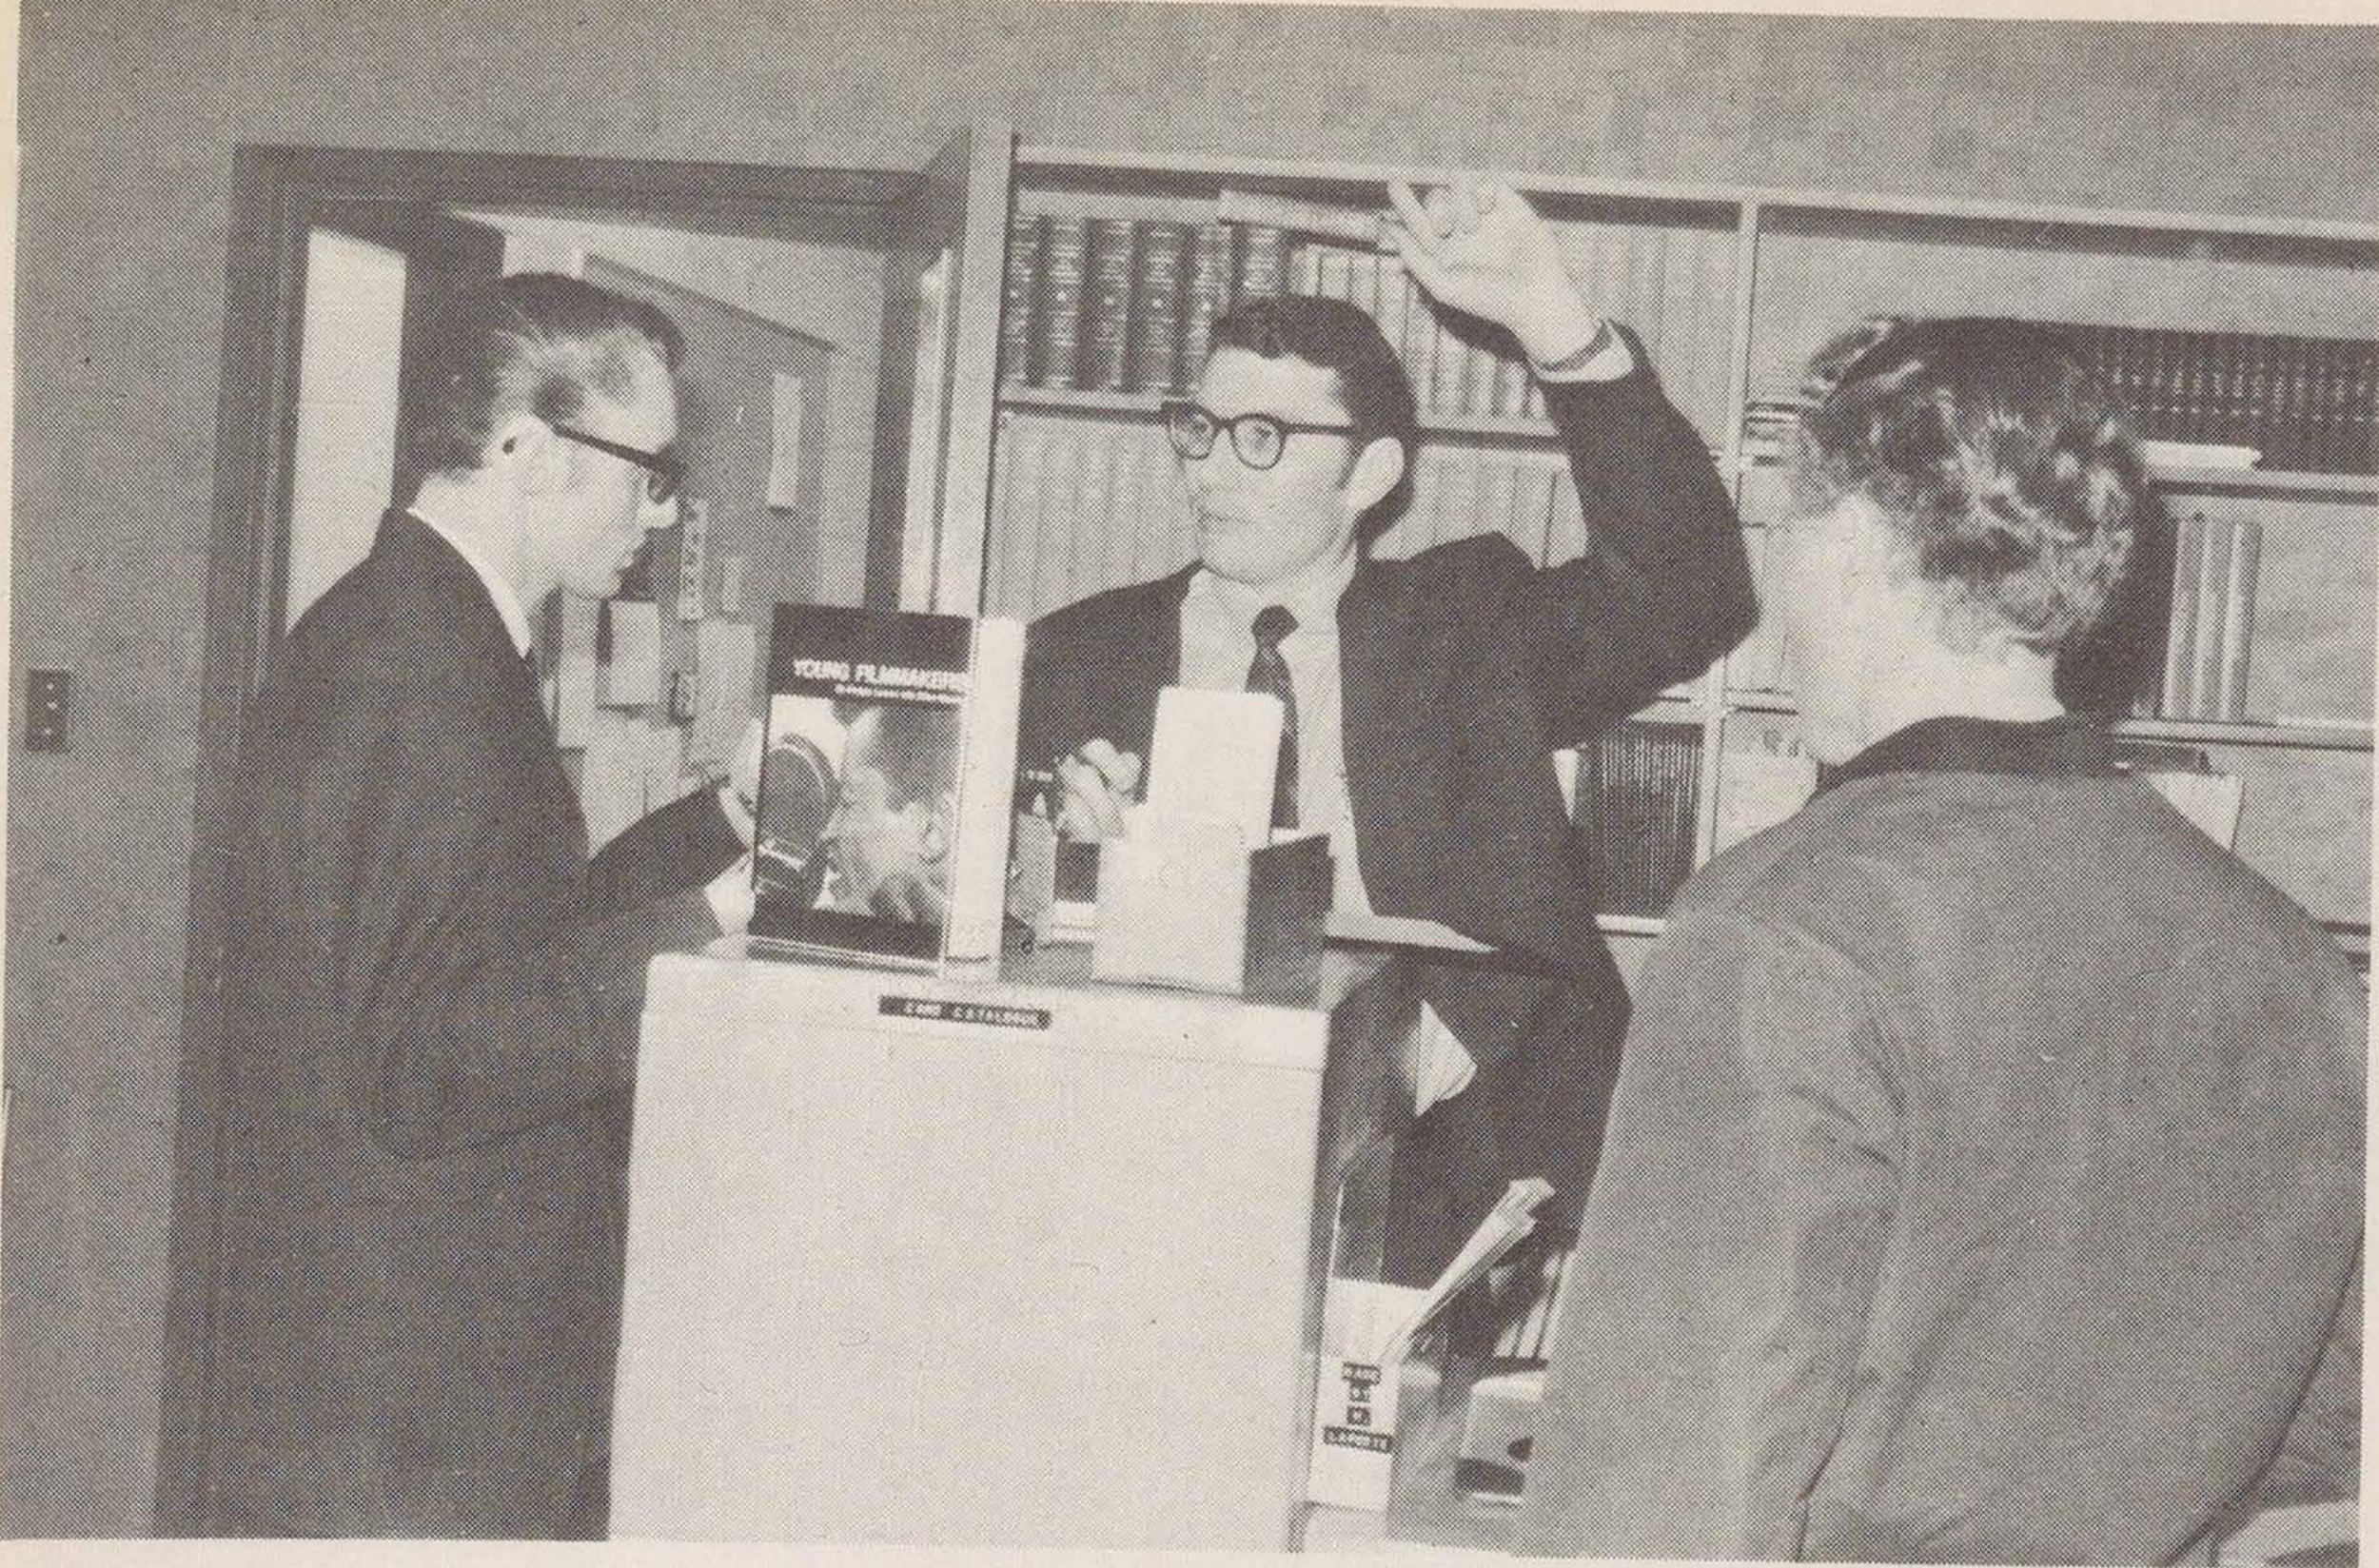

Thank you, Lord.

DARN YOU LAURI!

One of the many Bright Spots!

Don't ask me, ask Him.

We told you not to give us that test.

Some guys will do anything to get out of a test.

POETRY

SONNET OF LOVE (Adam to Eve)

My love for thee O'fairest rose of spring
Like genesis, mans' dawn of noble birth,
So full of hope, my soul to you I bring,
That we entwine our hearts and plough the earth.
And when I fall into a lowly state
And tempt you from your happy garden bed,
Tis not so much the evil of my fate
But life without your love that I so dread.
When sands of time contuse your petals fair
And Lucifer redeems his great disgrace,
When trees of Eden's garden once more bare
The famed exquisite beauty of that place.
Till then, my love for thy sweet withered frame
Shall be as strong as first I breathed your name.

Charles Clausen 13B

THE STUDENT'S PSALM

The monster is my teacher
I shall not pass,
He maketh me face the blackboard,
He destroyeth my love notes,
He putteth my gum in the trash-can,
He maketh me quiet and taketh away my switch blade.

He waketh me from my sleep,
He leadeth me to the office, for conduct's sake,
Yea' though I walk through the halls of knowledge,
I fear great evil
For I have forgotten my notebook
His face hardens before me
He maketh me write six hundred words
My notebook runneth over
Surely mischief and misfortune
Shall follow me all the days of my schooling,
And I shall dwell in the halls of this school forever.

VOICES

Voices-- scorning, malevolent, bitter, silent
Reeking of hatred and acid
Silence which reveals an inner core of resentment.
Kindness long ago stranded
In the sickly grasp of Ignorance,
Flagrantly displays it's inability to appreciate.
Growth destroyed by bigotry, prejudice
Voice-never ending, speaking while silent.

REAL LIFE

Life is what we seek to find,
Of a style and of a kind
That satisfied and keeps content,
For someday soon, shall it not be spent?

I've found this life, I've sought so long,
Which gives me peace, and in a song
I tell the world the end of strife,
For in Christ I have found REAL LIFE!

Life is what we seek to find,
And I've found this life and peace of mind,
And hope you too will soon decide
To serve my Lord the Crucified.

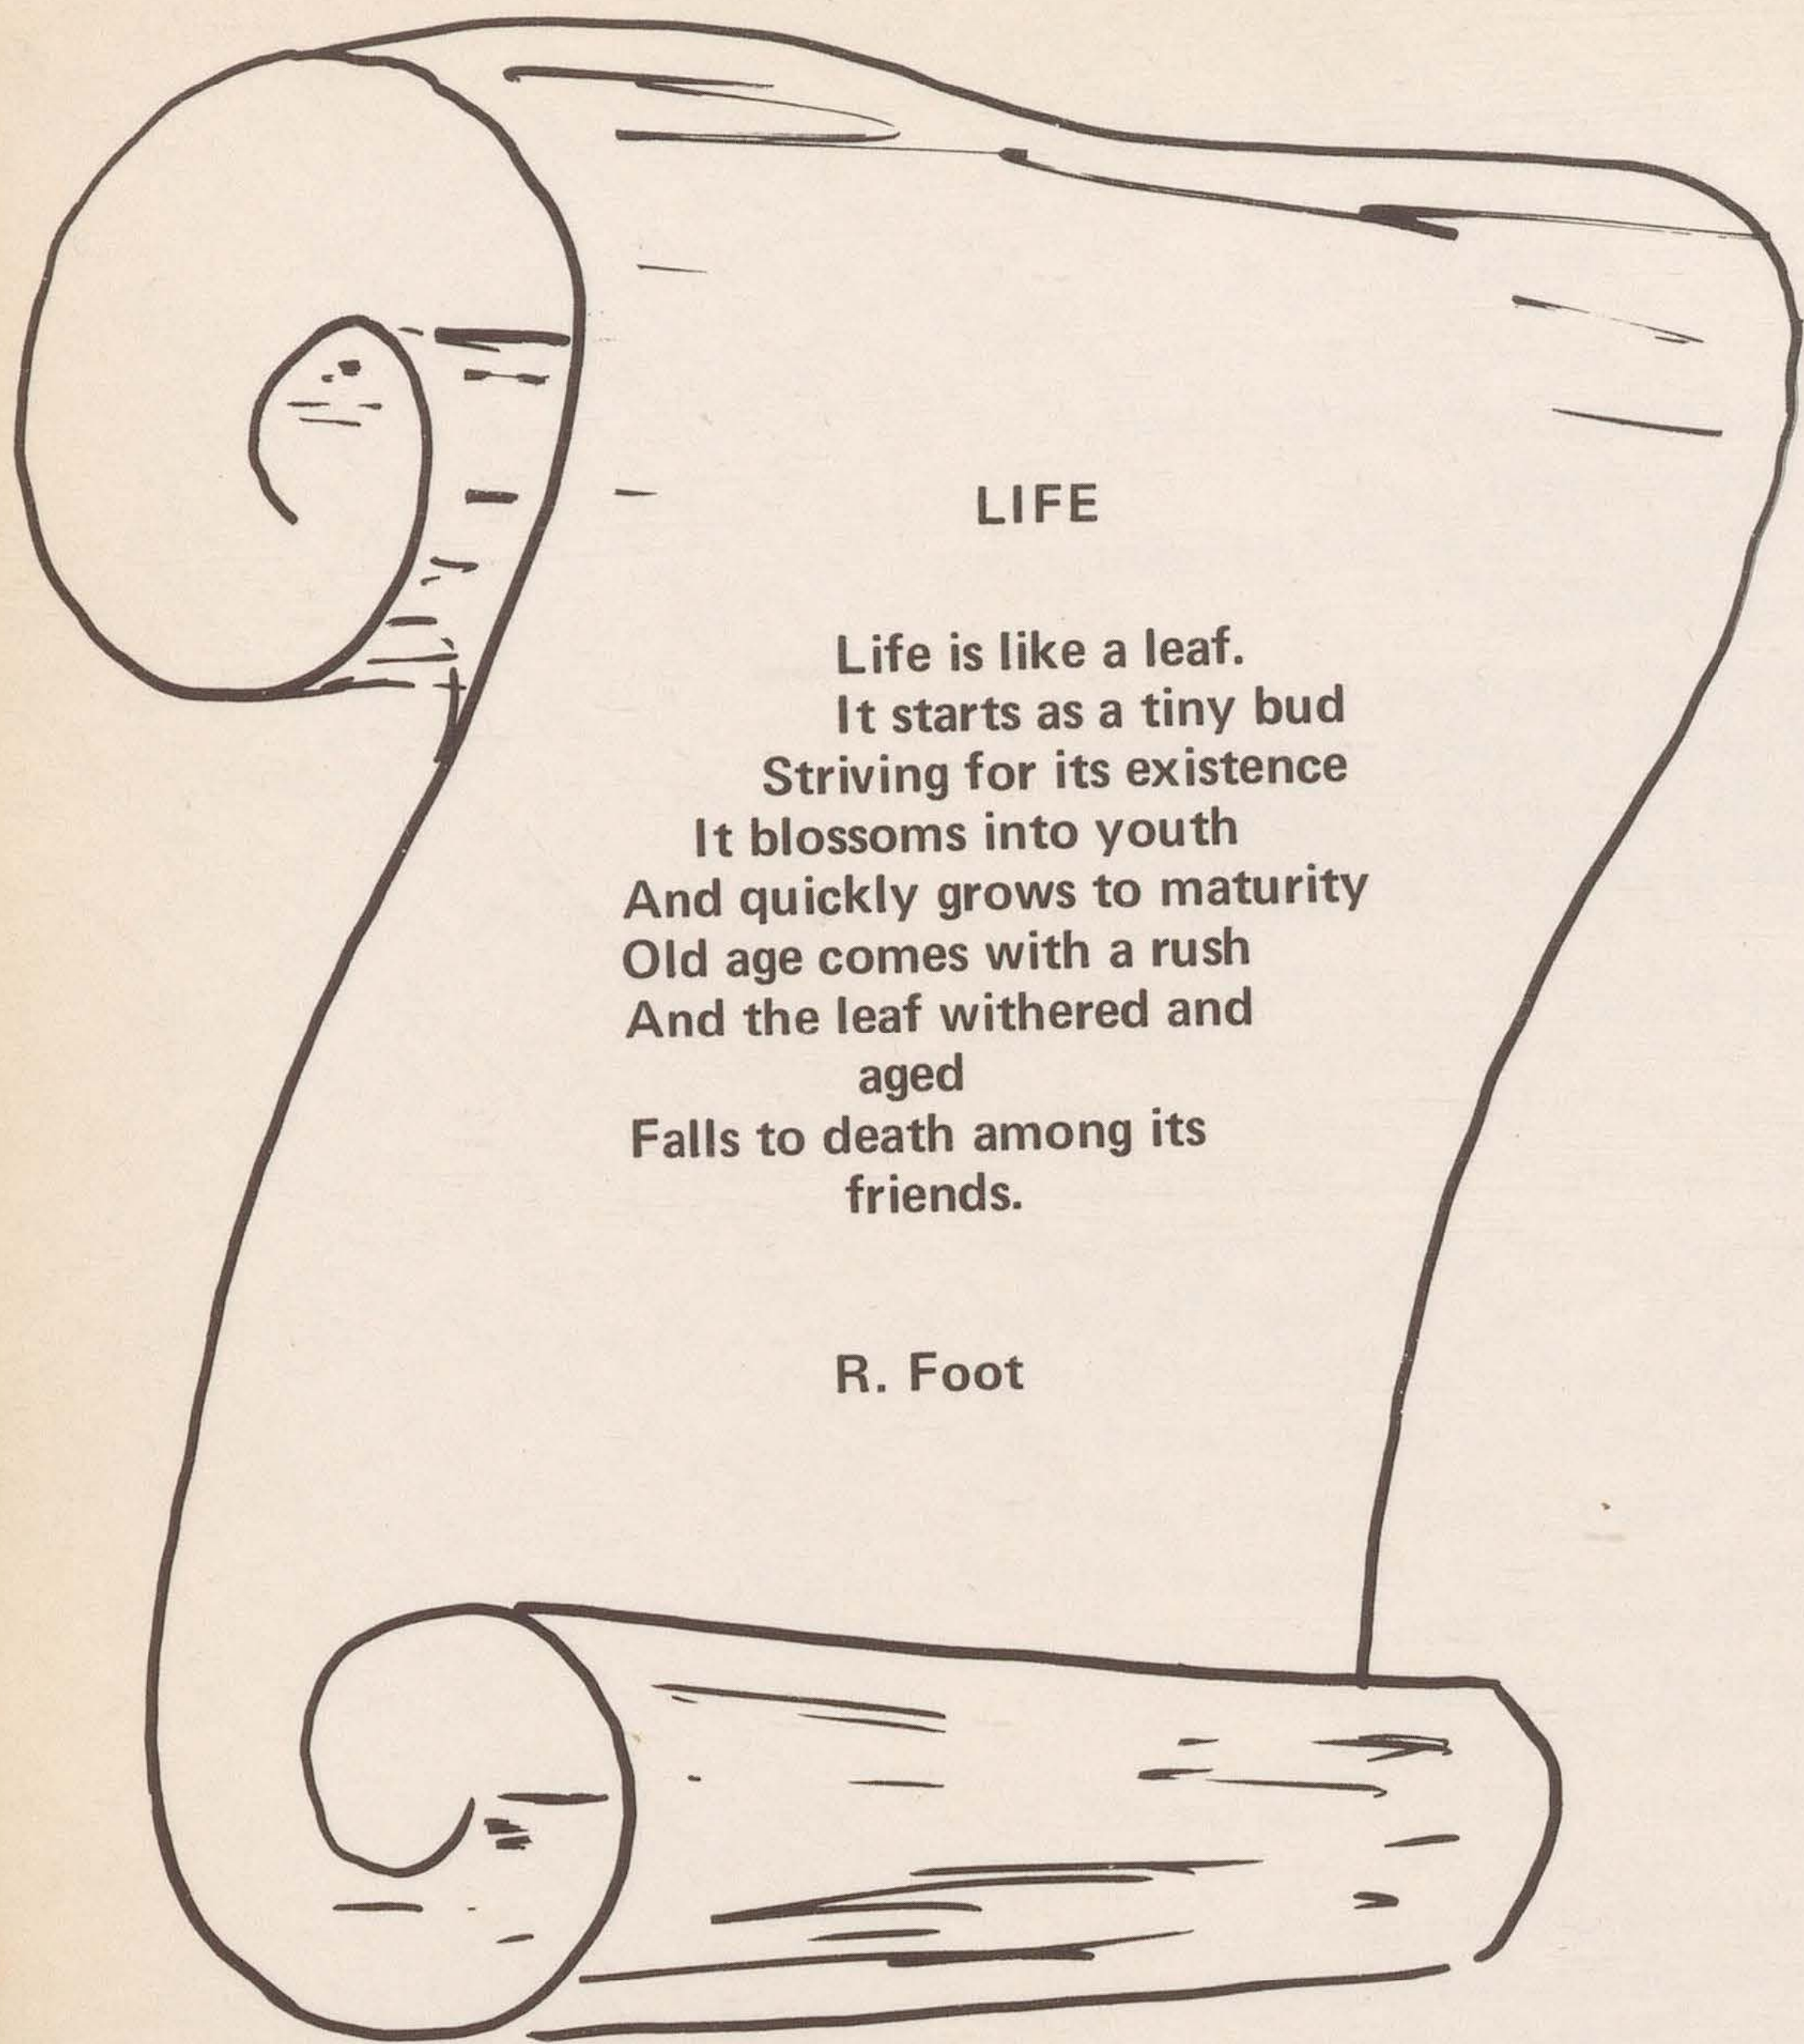

Lauri D. Campbell

THE PUSHER

The child waits with open hands.
His eyes wander through the alley.
Then he sees what he needs,
That man coming towards him.
Oh! what a wondrous sight
This thing he needs to end his plight is here.

The pusher man has found his prey.
While, in an alley a child dies today.

LIFE

Life is like a leaf.
It starts as a tiny bud
Striving for its existence
It blossoms into youth
And quickly grows to maturity
Old age comes with a rush
And the leaf withered and aged
Falls to death among its friends.

THE EXCUSE

Yesterday away from class,
I thought I'd put the blame on a Ford.
I pondered longer but alas,
I finally put the blame on Gord.

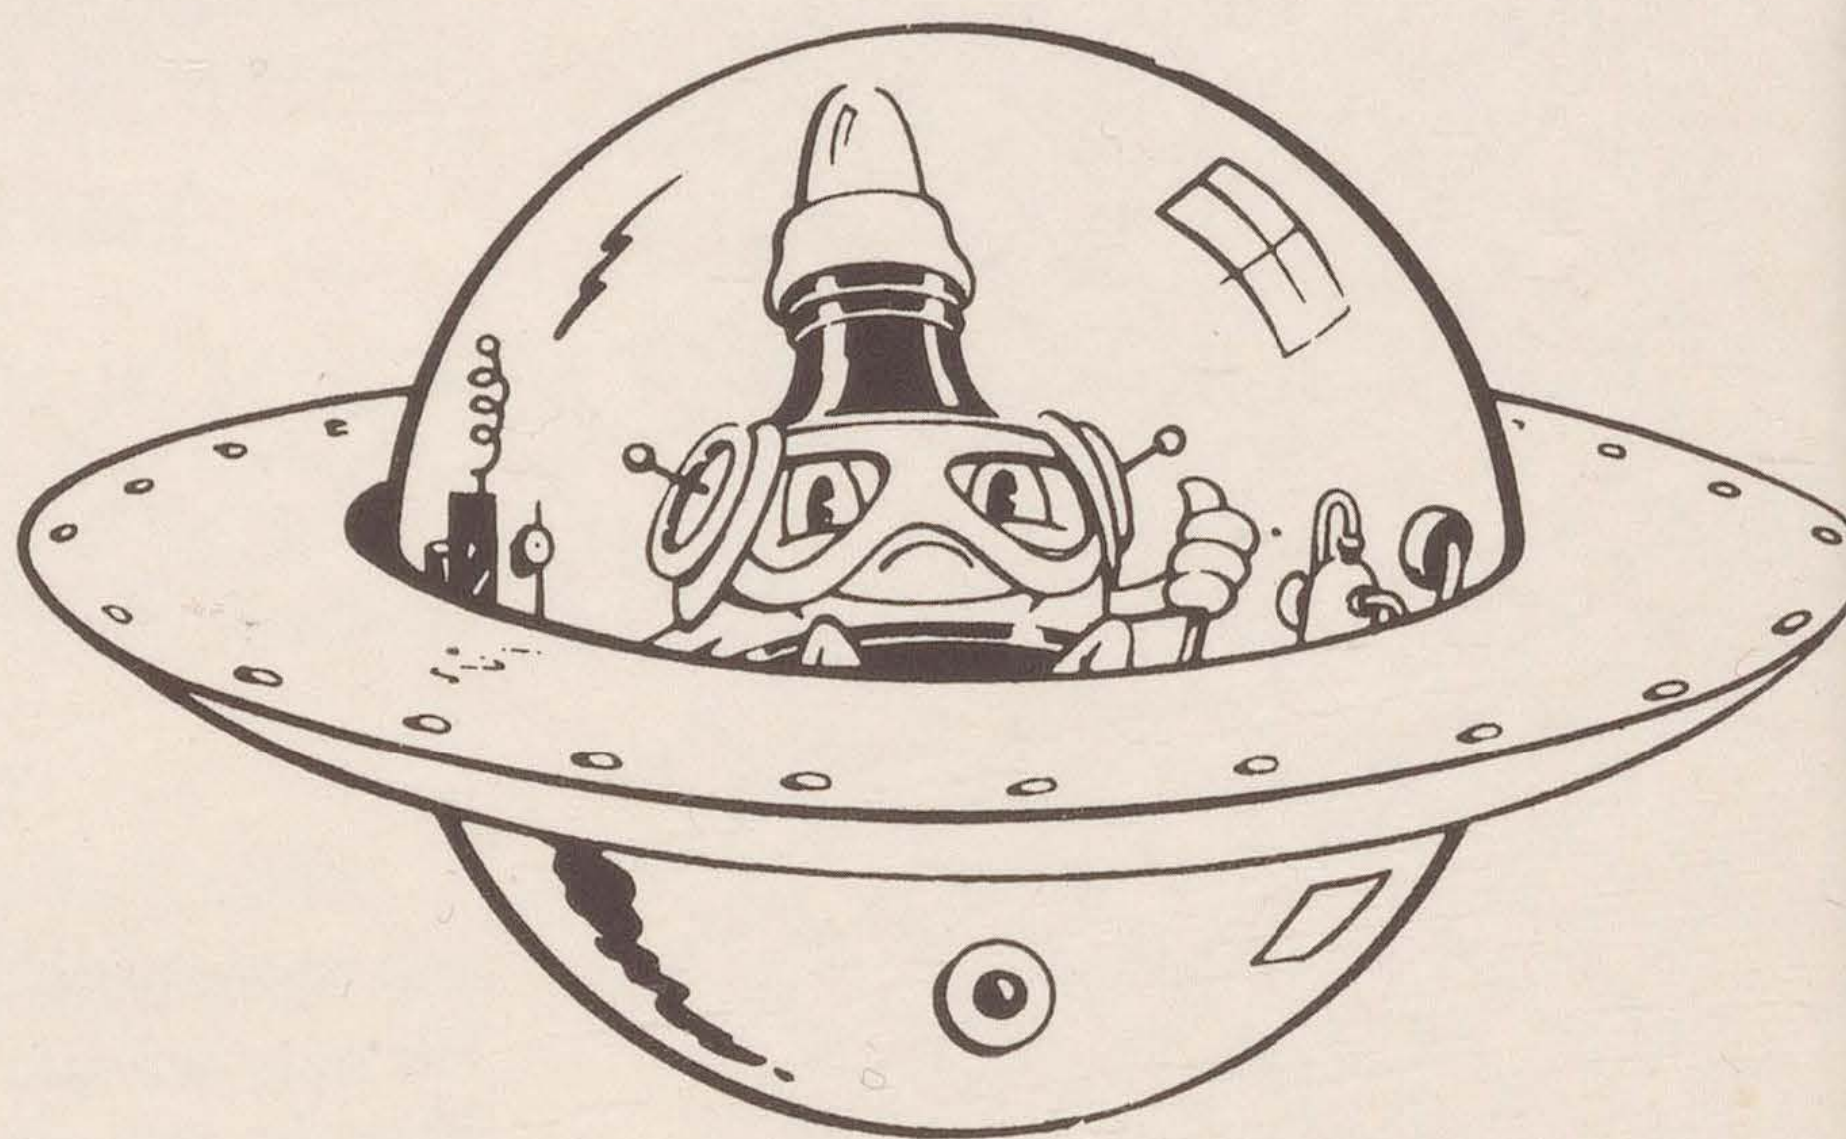

Jim Langlois

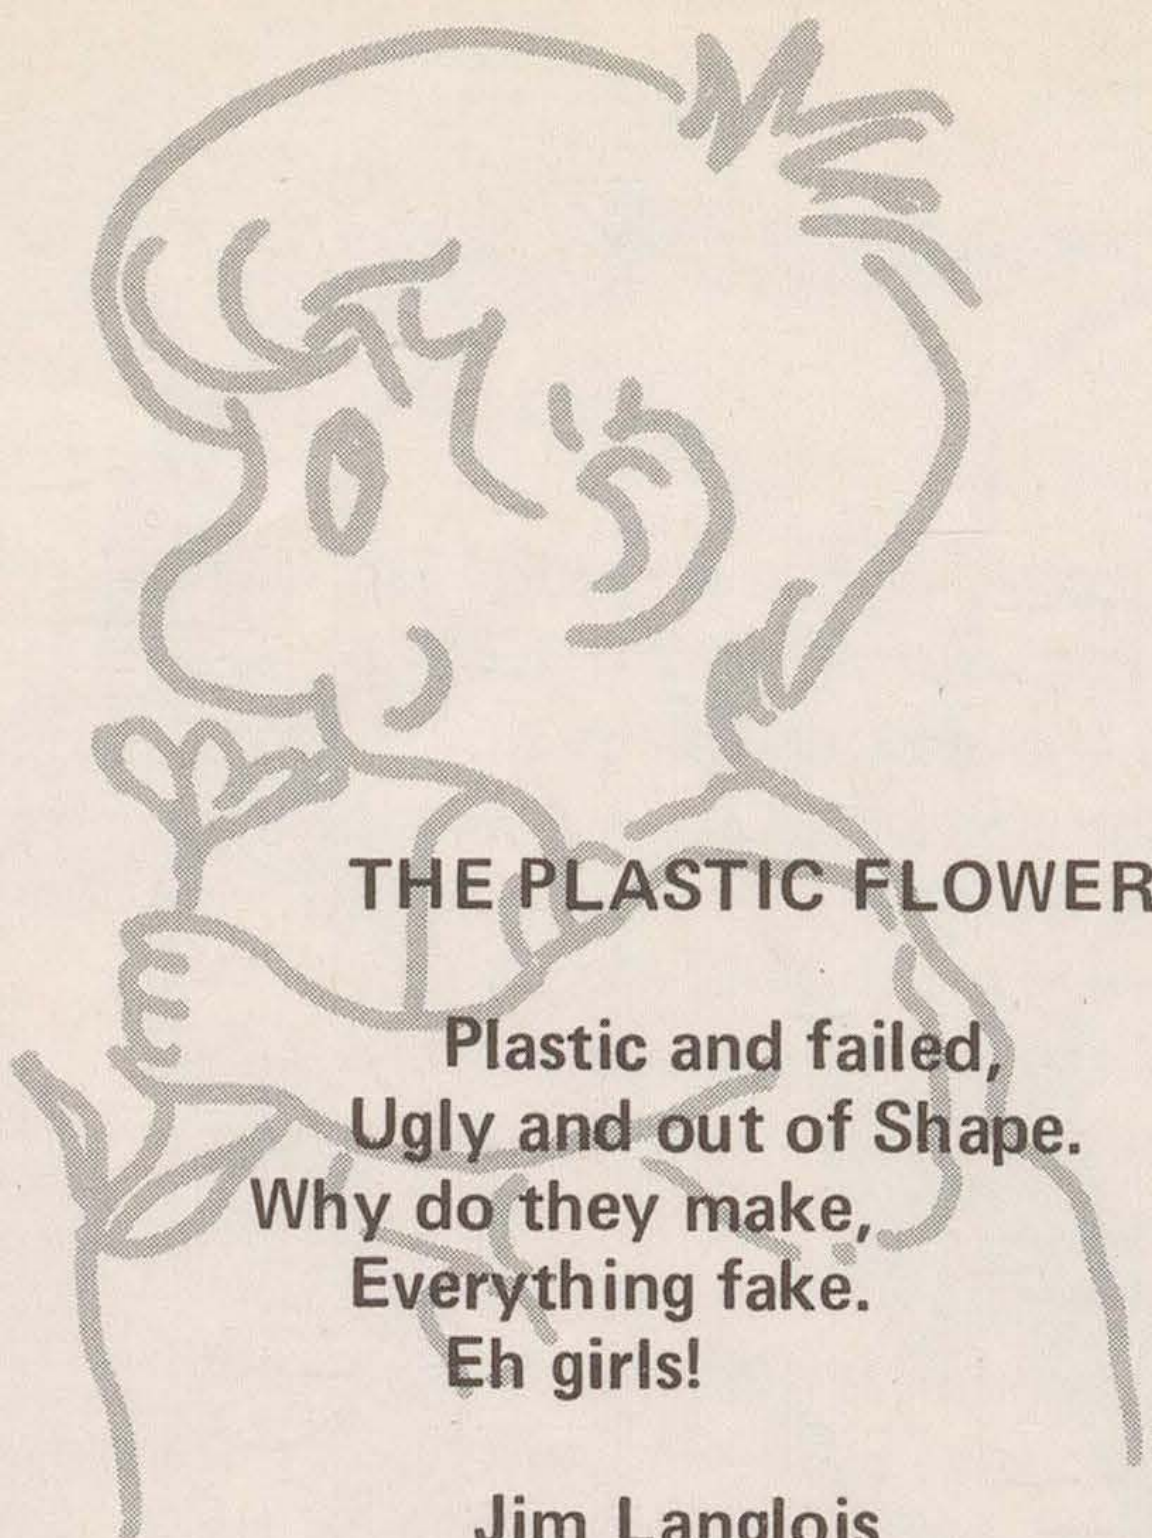

ANGER

Anger, a lull before the storm,
Rises steadily in pitch,
Until its grumbling deafens ears
And snapping ends in tears.

Rochelle Bondy

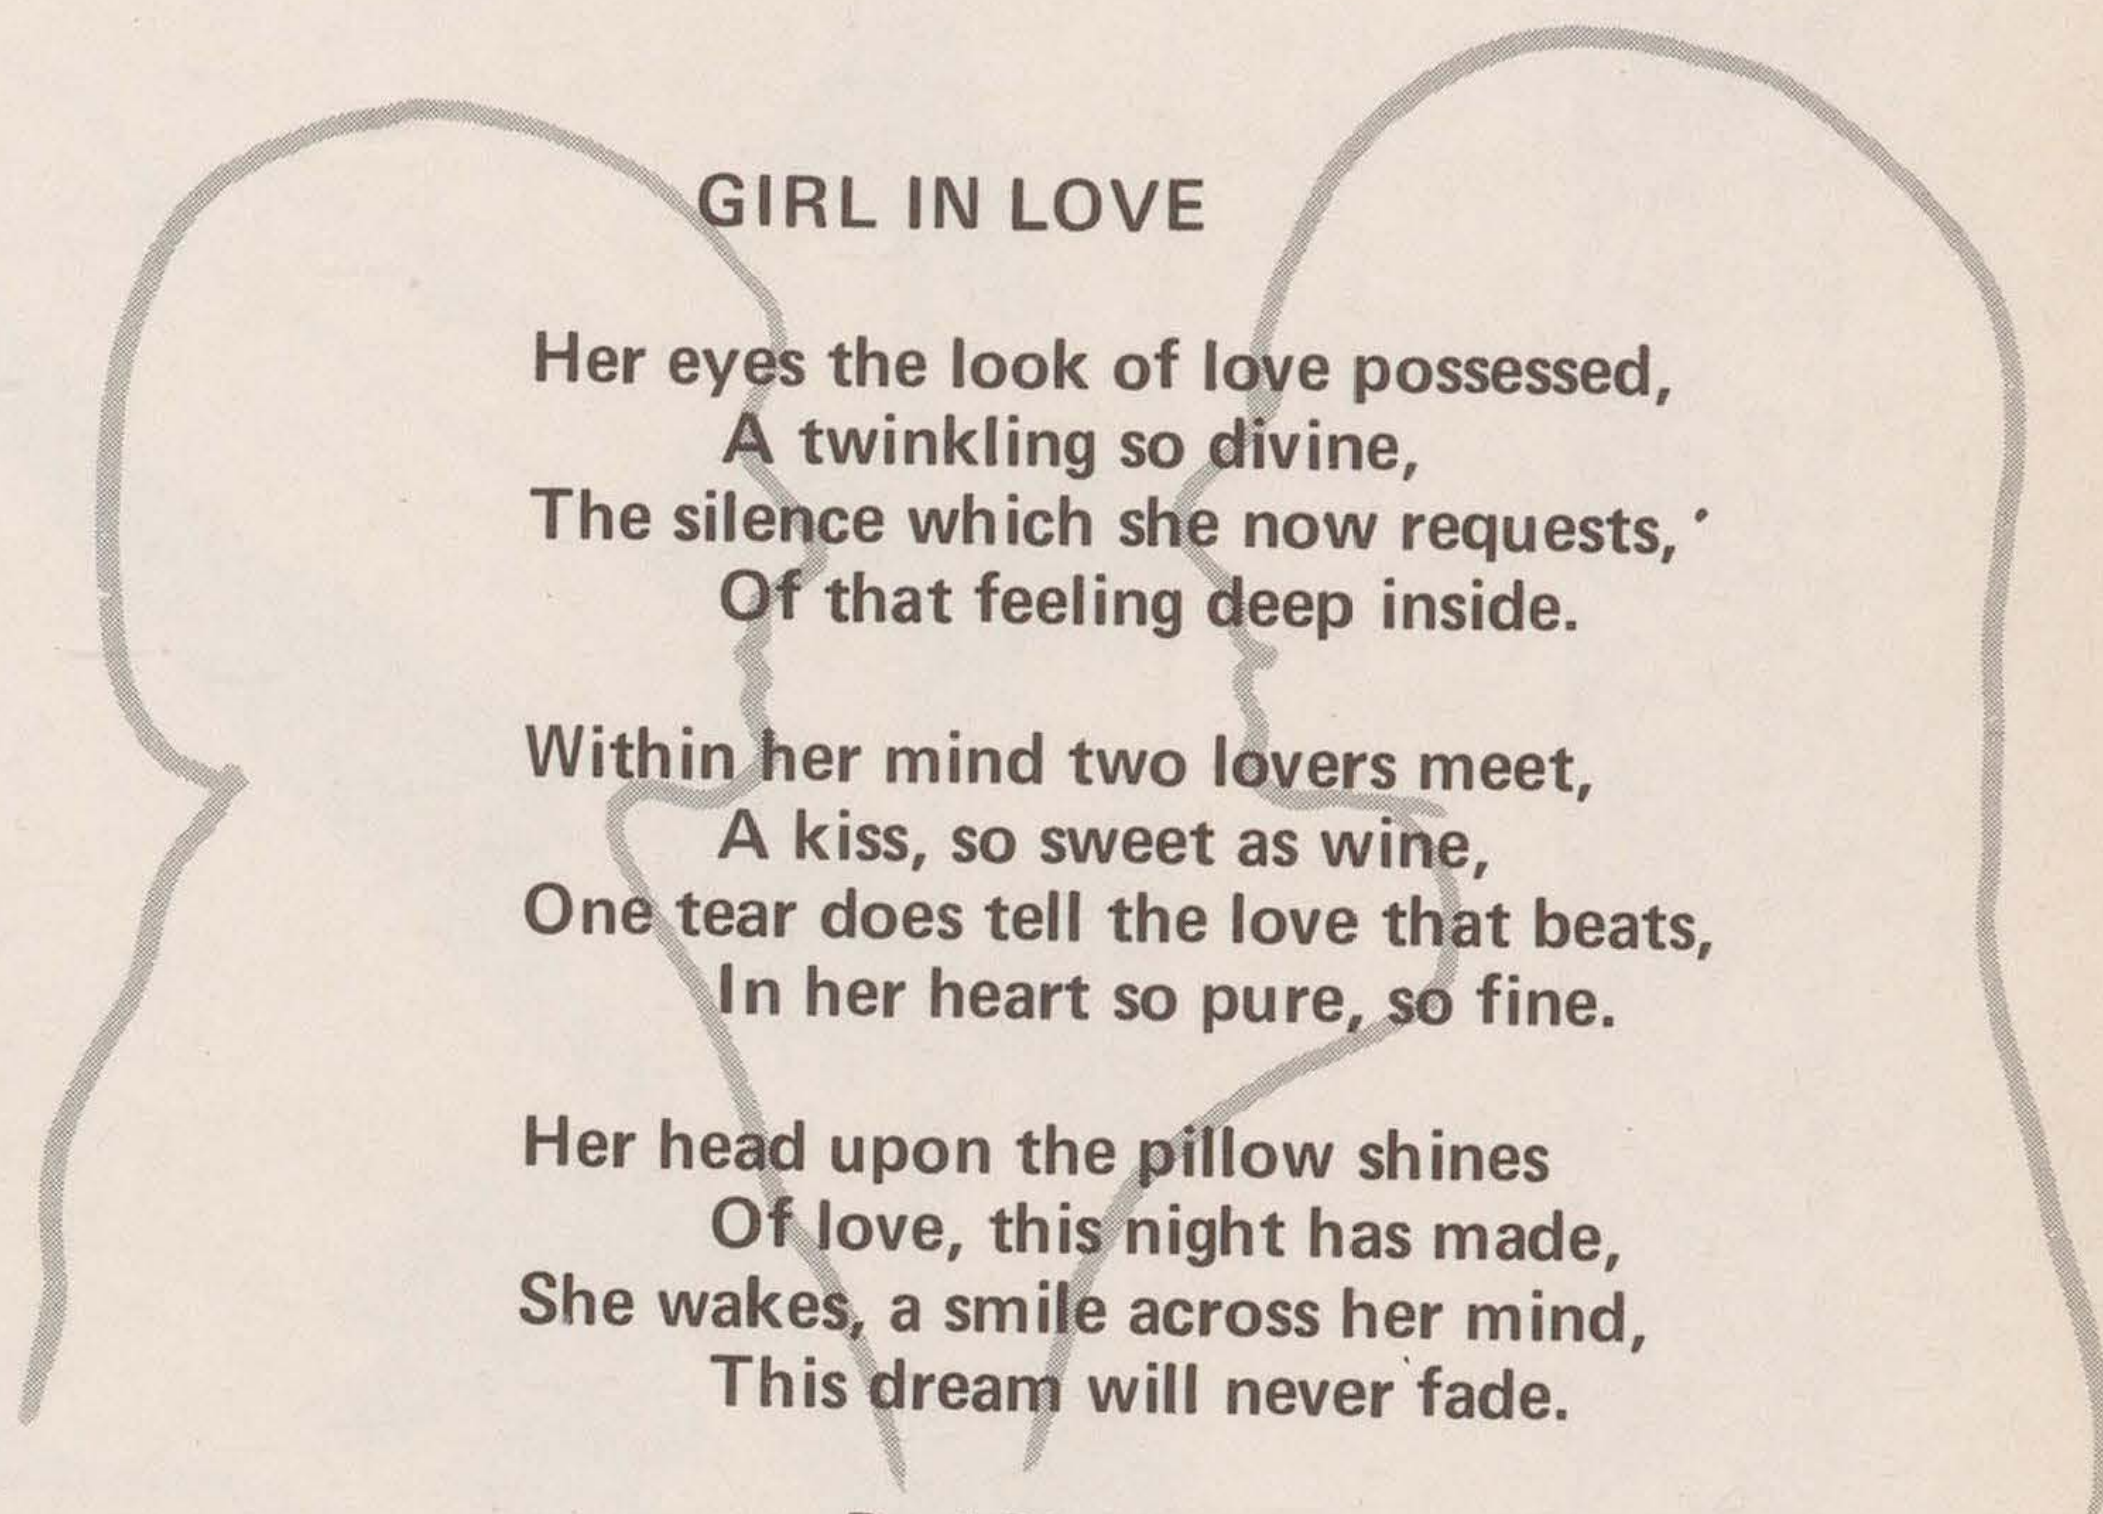

THE PLASTIC FLOWER

Plastic and failed,
Ugly and out of Shape.
Why do they make,
Everything fake.
Eh girls!

Jim Langlois

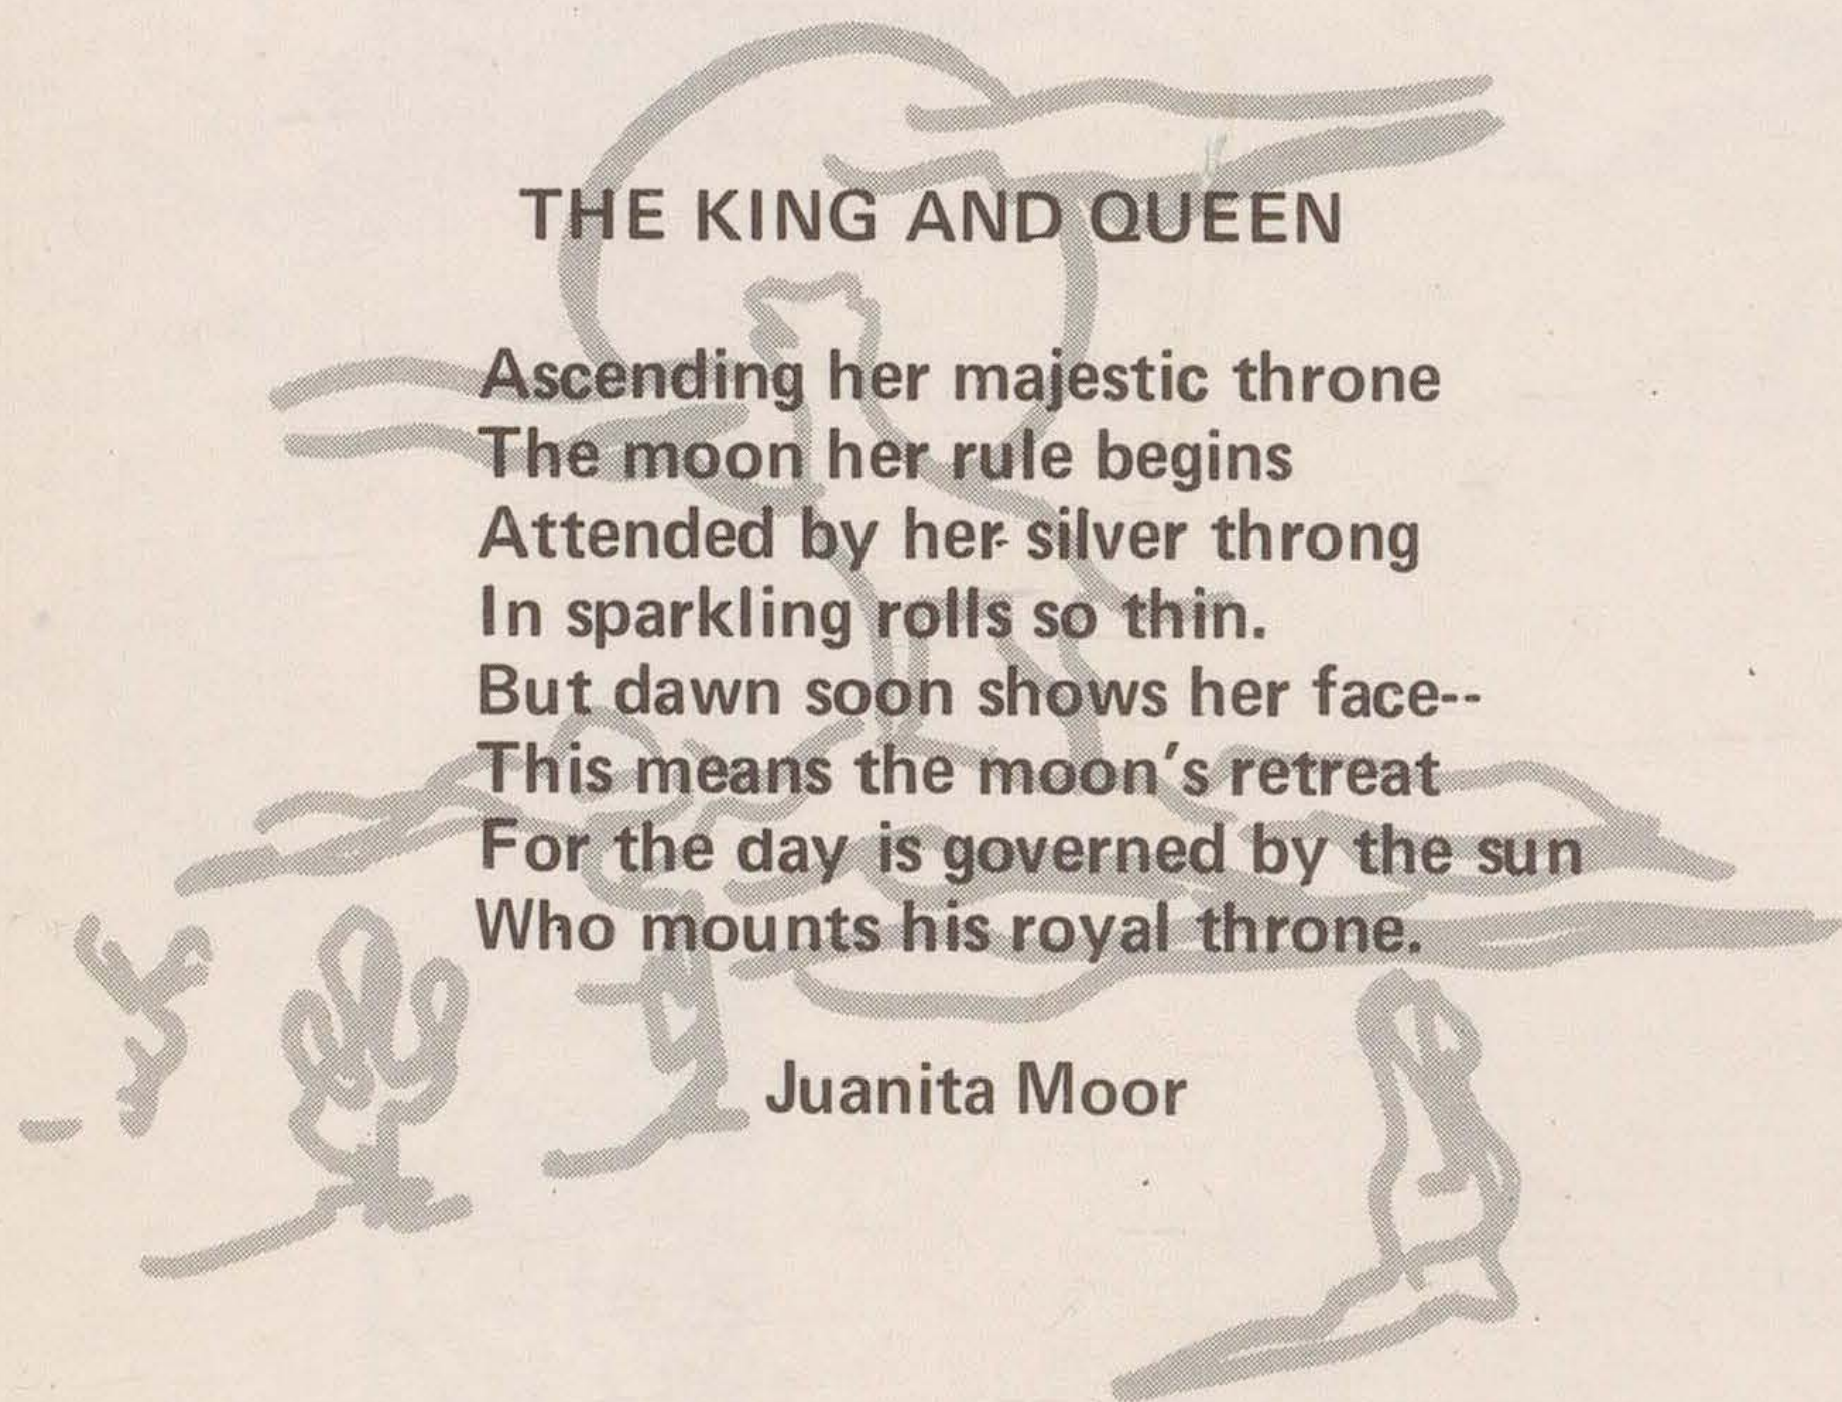

GIRL IN LOVE

Her eyes the look of love possessed,
A twinkling so divine,
The silence which she now requests,
Of that feeling deep inside.

Within her mind two lovers meet,
A kiss, so sweet as wine,
One tear does tell the love that beats,
In her heart so pure, so fine.

Her head upon the pillow shines
Of love, this night has made,
She wakes, a smile across her mind,
This dream will never fade.

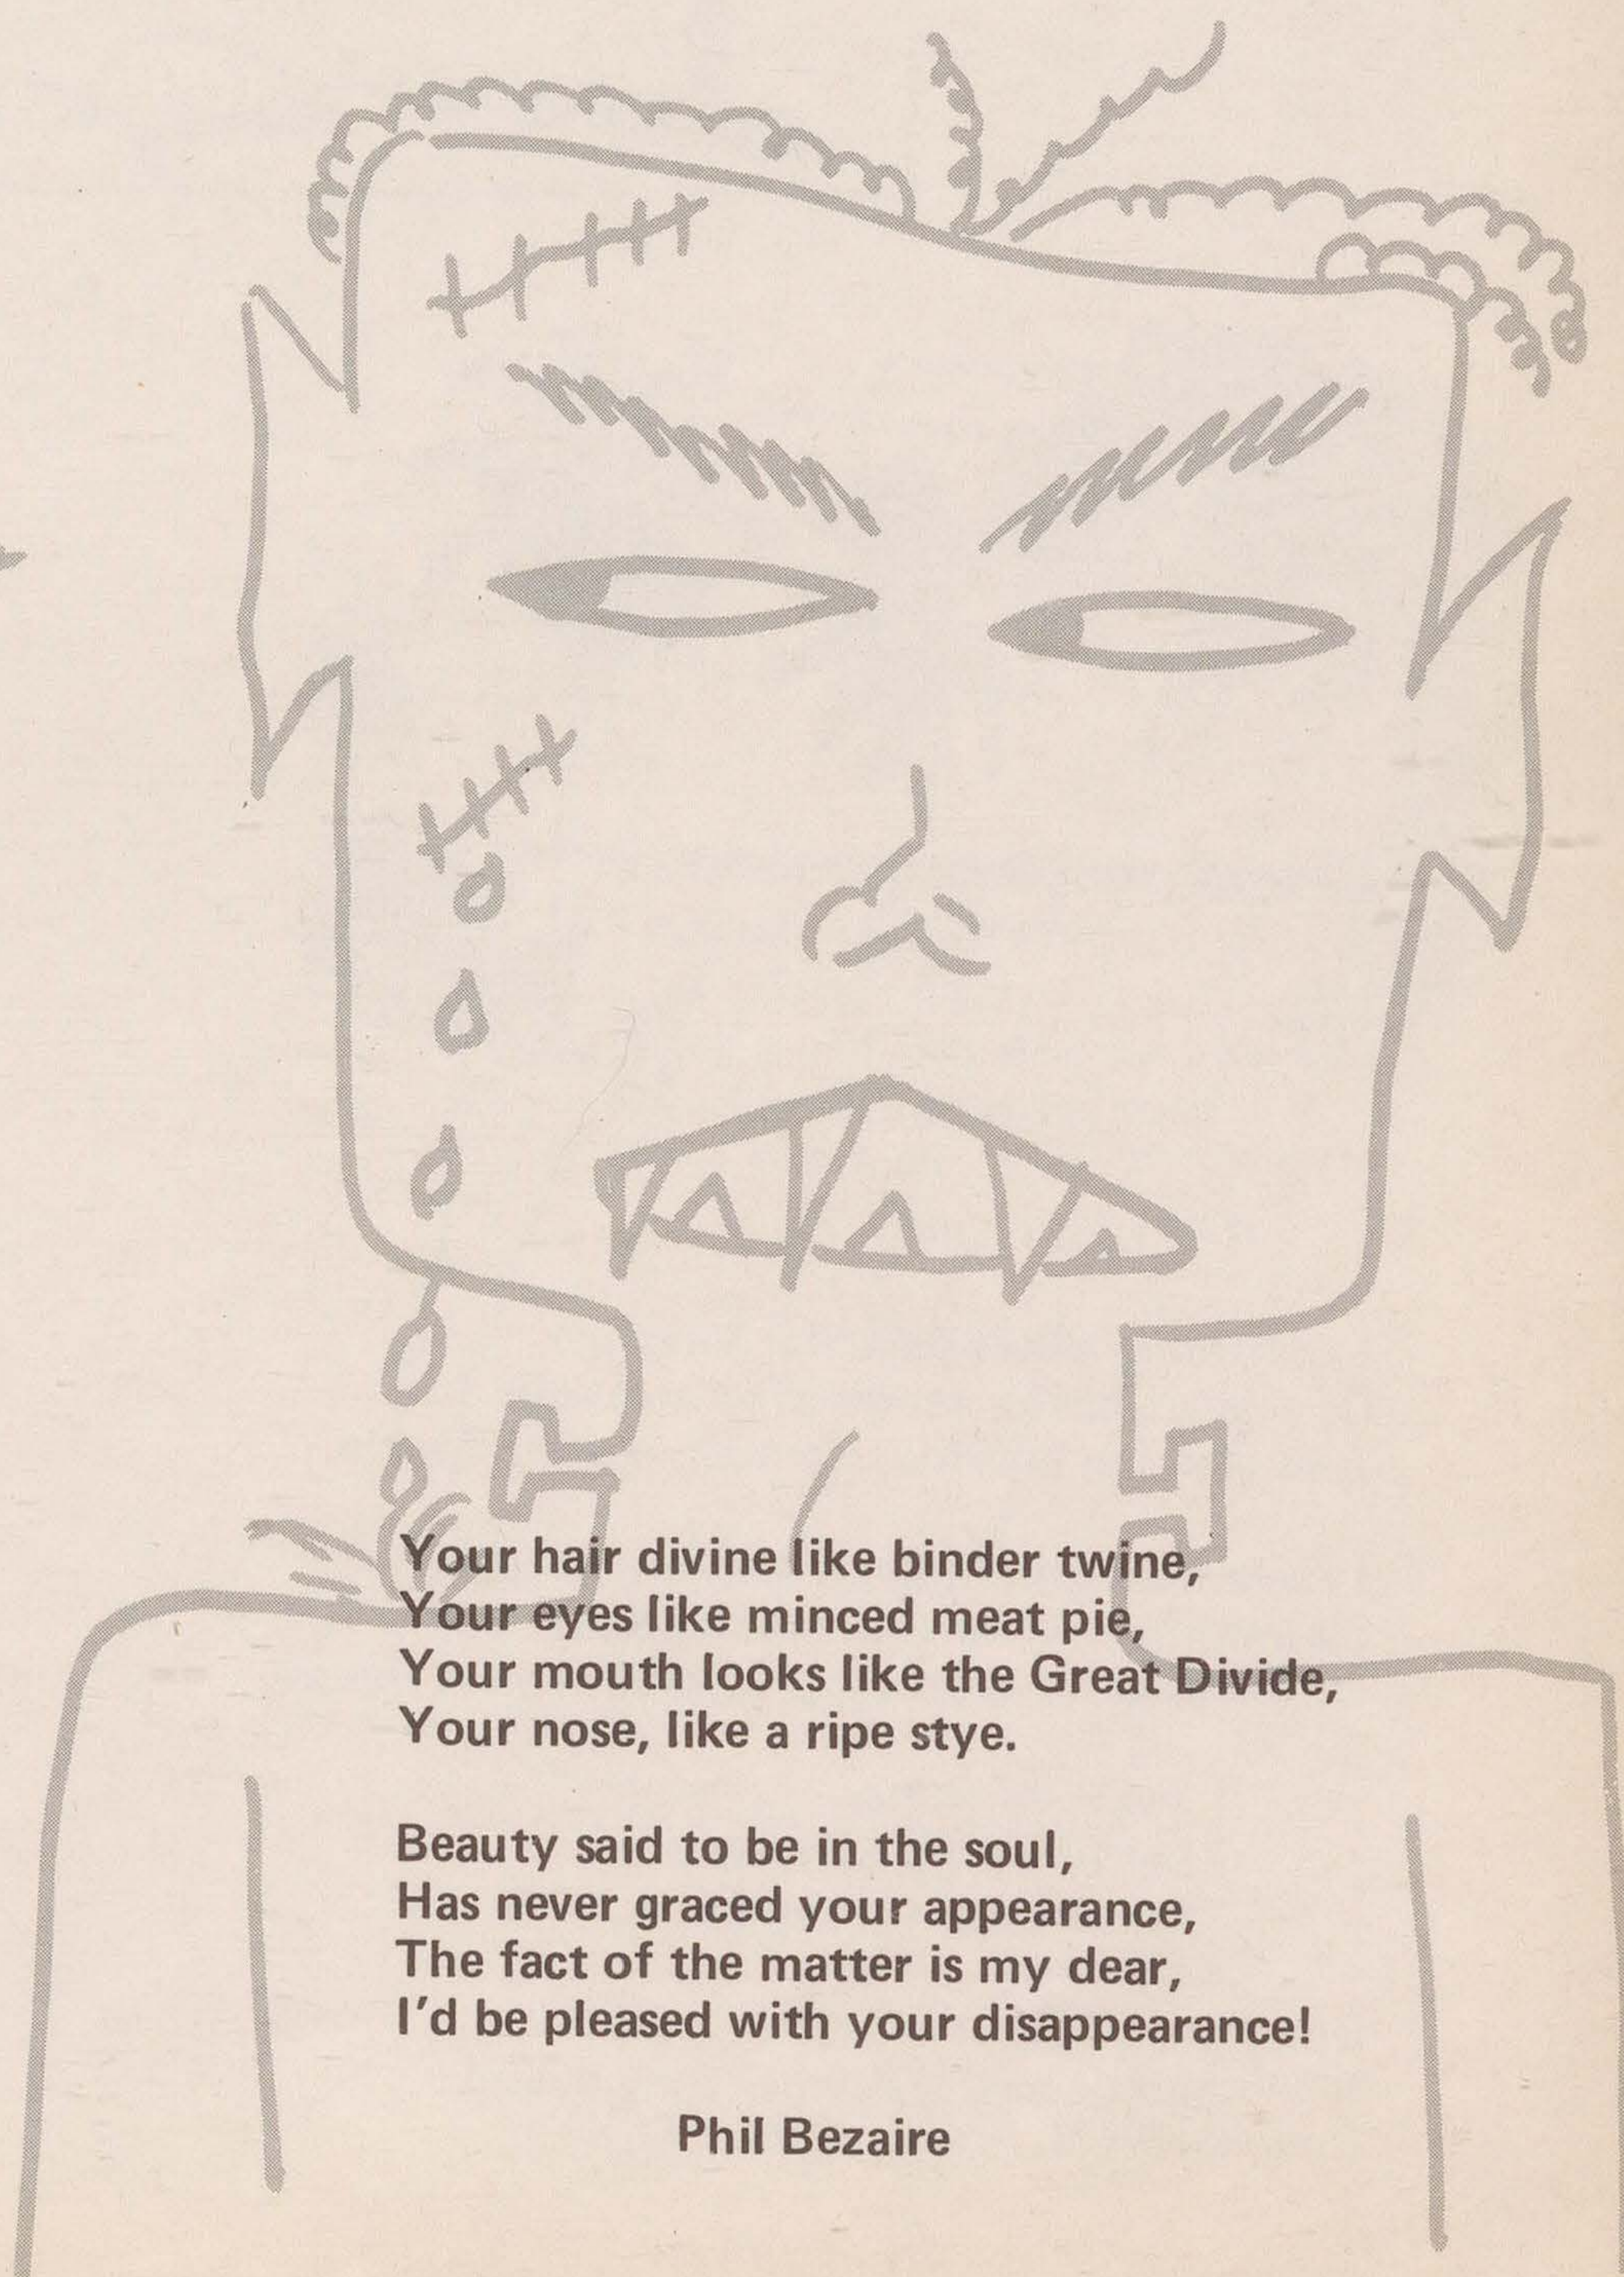

Paul Pietrangelo

THE KING AND QUEEN

Ascending her majestic throne
The moon her rule begins
Attended by her silver throng
In sparkling rolls so thin.
But dawn soon shows her face--
This means the moon's retreat
For the day is governed by the sun
Who mounts his royal throne.

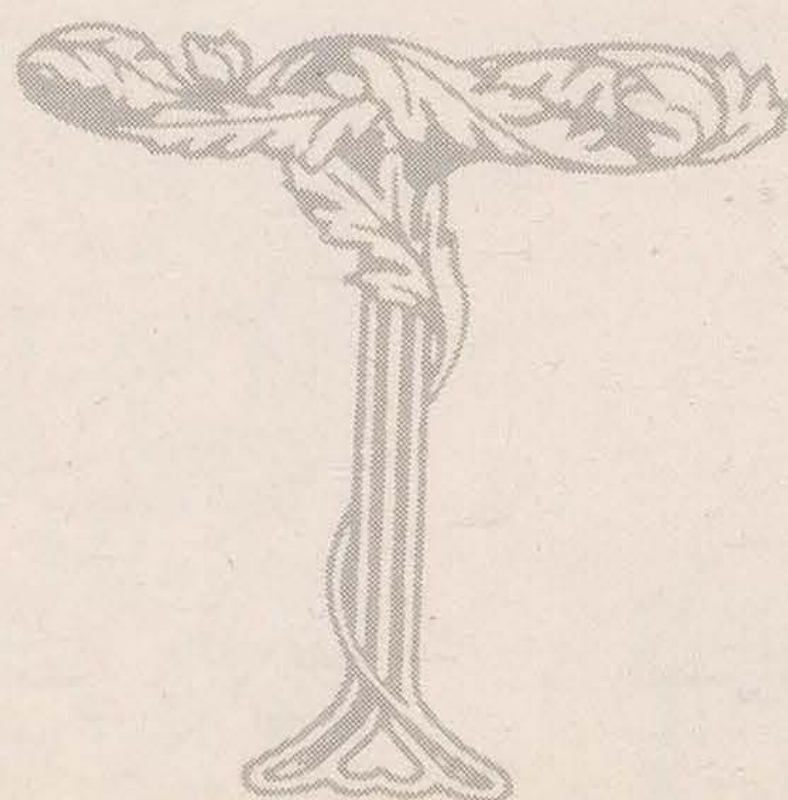

Juanita Moor

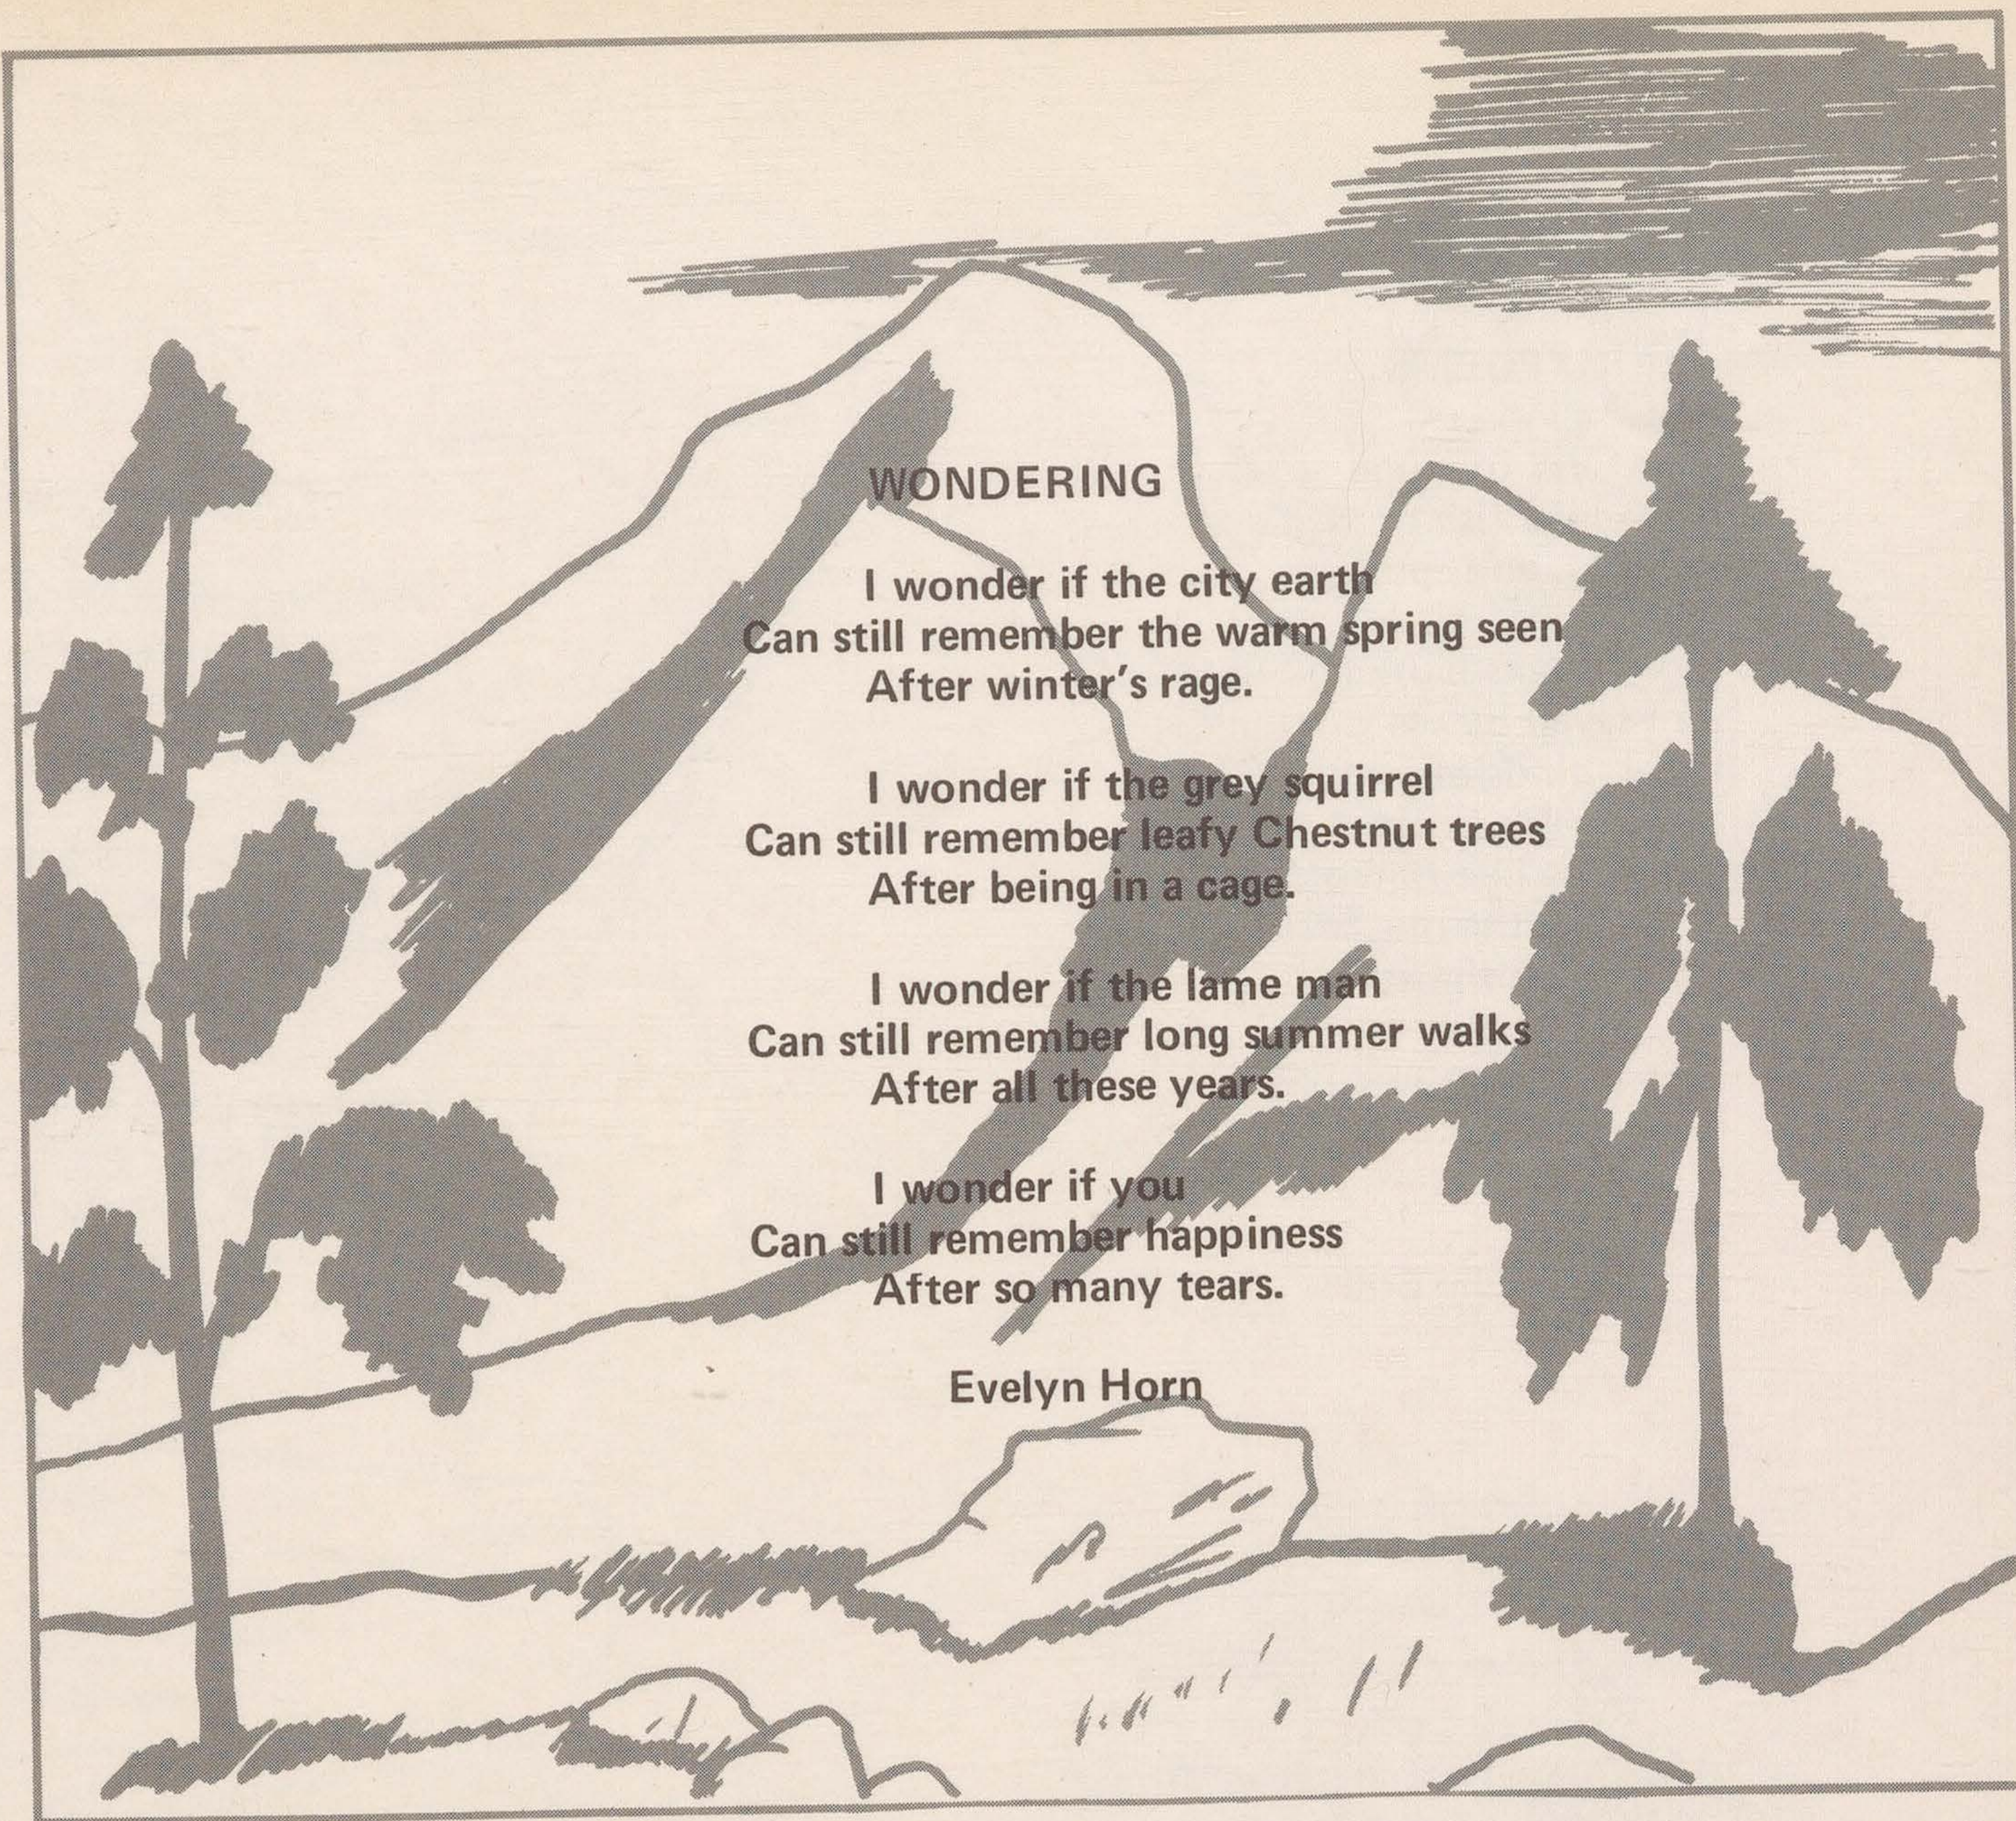

Your hair divine like binder twine,
Your eyes like minced meat pie,
Your mouth looks like the Great Divide,
Your nose, like a ripe stye.

Beauty said to be in the soul,
Has never graced your appearance,
The fact of the matter is my dear,
I'd be pleased with your disappearance!

Phil Bezaire

WONDERING

I wonder if the city earth
Can still remember the warm spring seen
After winter's rage.

I wonder if the grey squirrel
Can still remember leafy Chestnut trees
After being in a cage.

I wonder if the lame man
Can still remember long summer walks
After all these years.

I wonder if you
Can still remember happiness
After so many tears.

Evelyn Horn

REFLECTIONS

I remember those days not long ago
Of peanut-butter sandwiches and solls
And walking barefoot through the misty rain.

I remember wind-blown afternoons when
Swimming in a sardine-packed pool
Or slurping ice-cream has seemed second nature.

I even remember
That birthday party when
The cake fell on the floor.

But most of all I remember a time
When people said just what they meant
Love was real.

Evelyn Horn

HAIKU POEMS

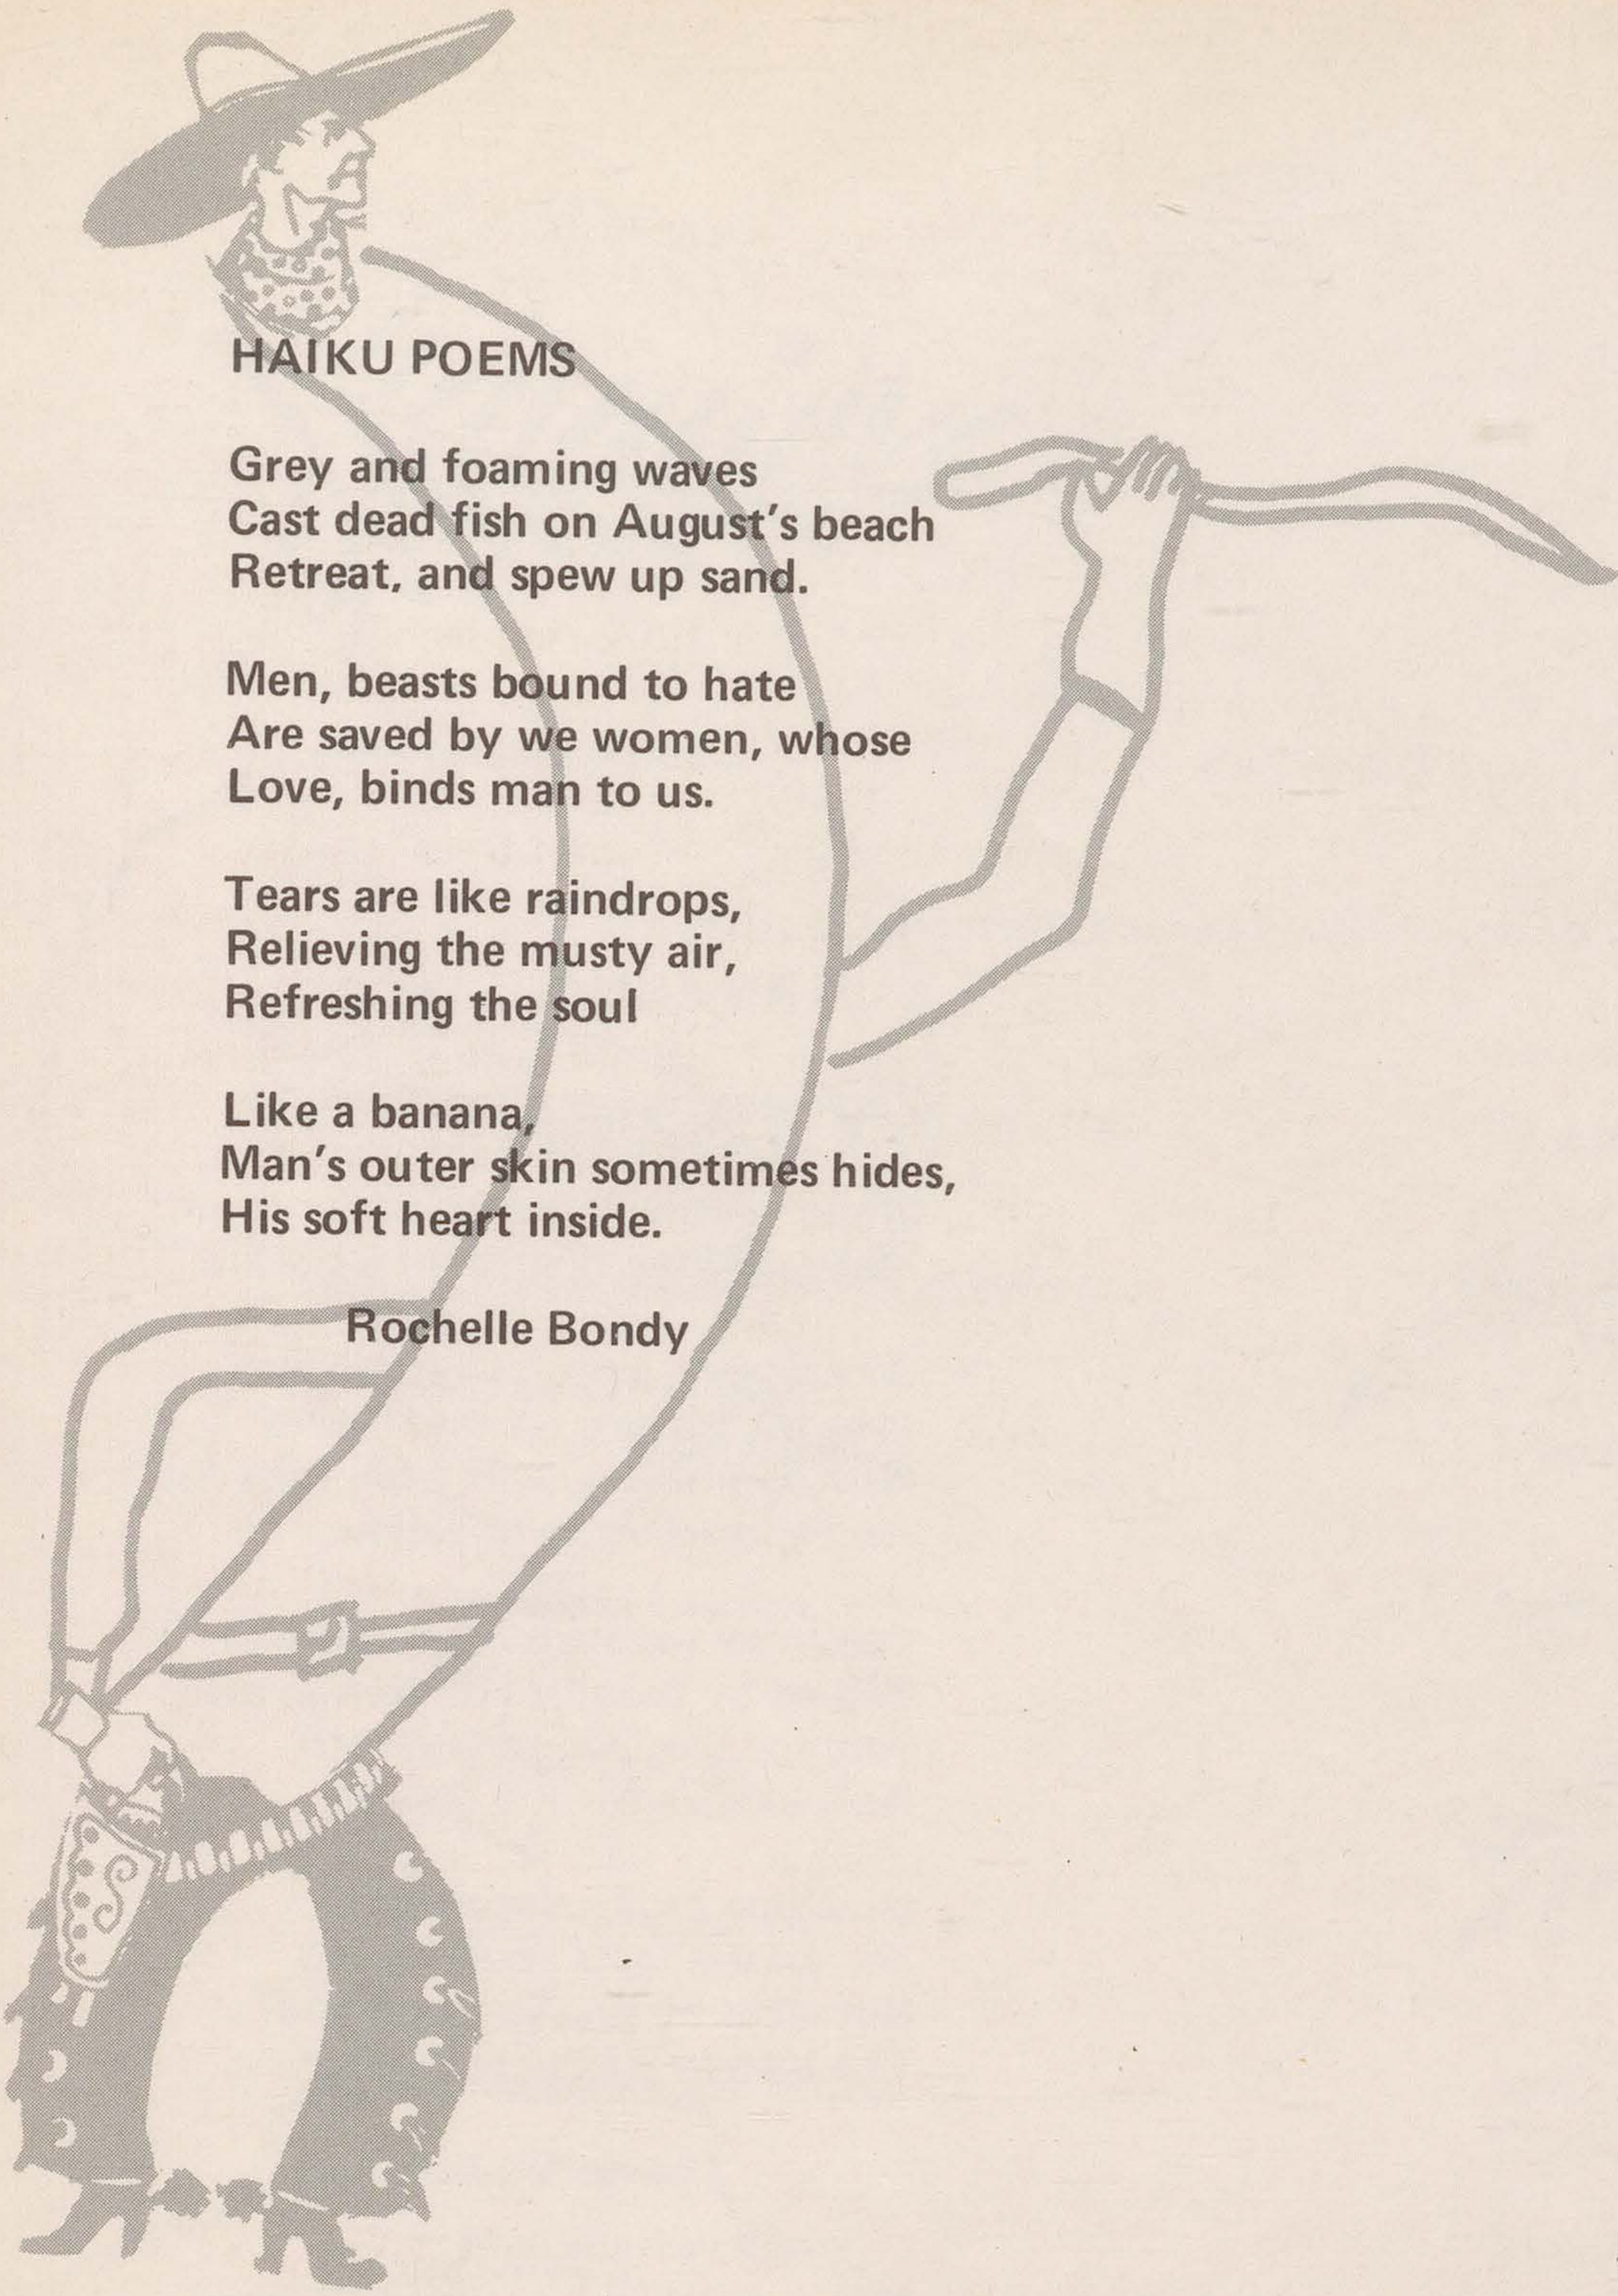

Grey and foaming waves
Cast dead fish on August's beach
Retreat, and spew up sand.

Men, beasts bound to hate
Are saved by we women, whose
Love, binds man to us.

Tears are like raindrops,
Relieving the musty air,
Refreshing the soul

Like a banana,
Man's outer skin sometimes hides,
His soft heart inside.

Rochelle Bondy

CAMOUFLAGE

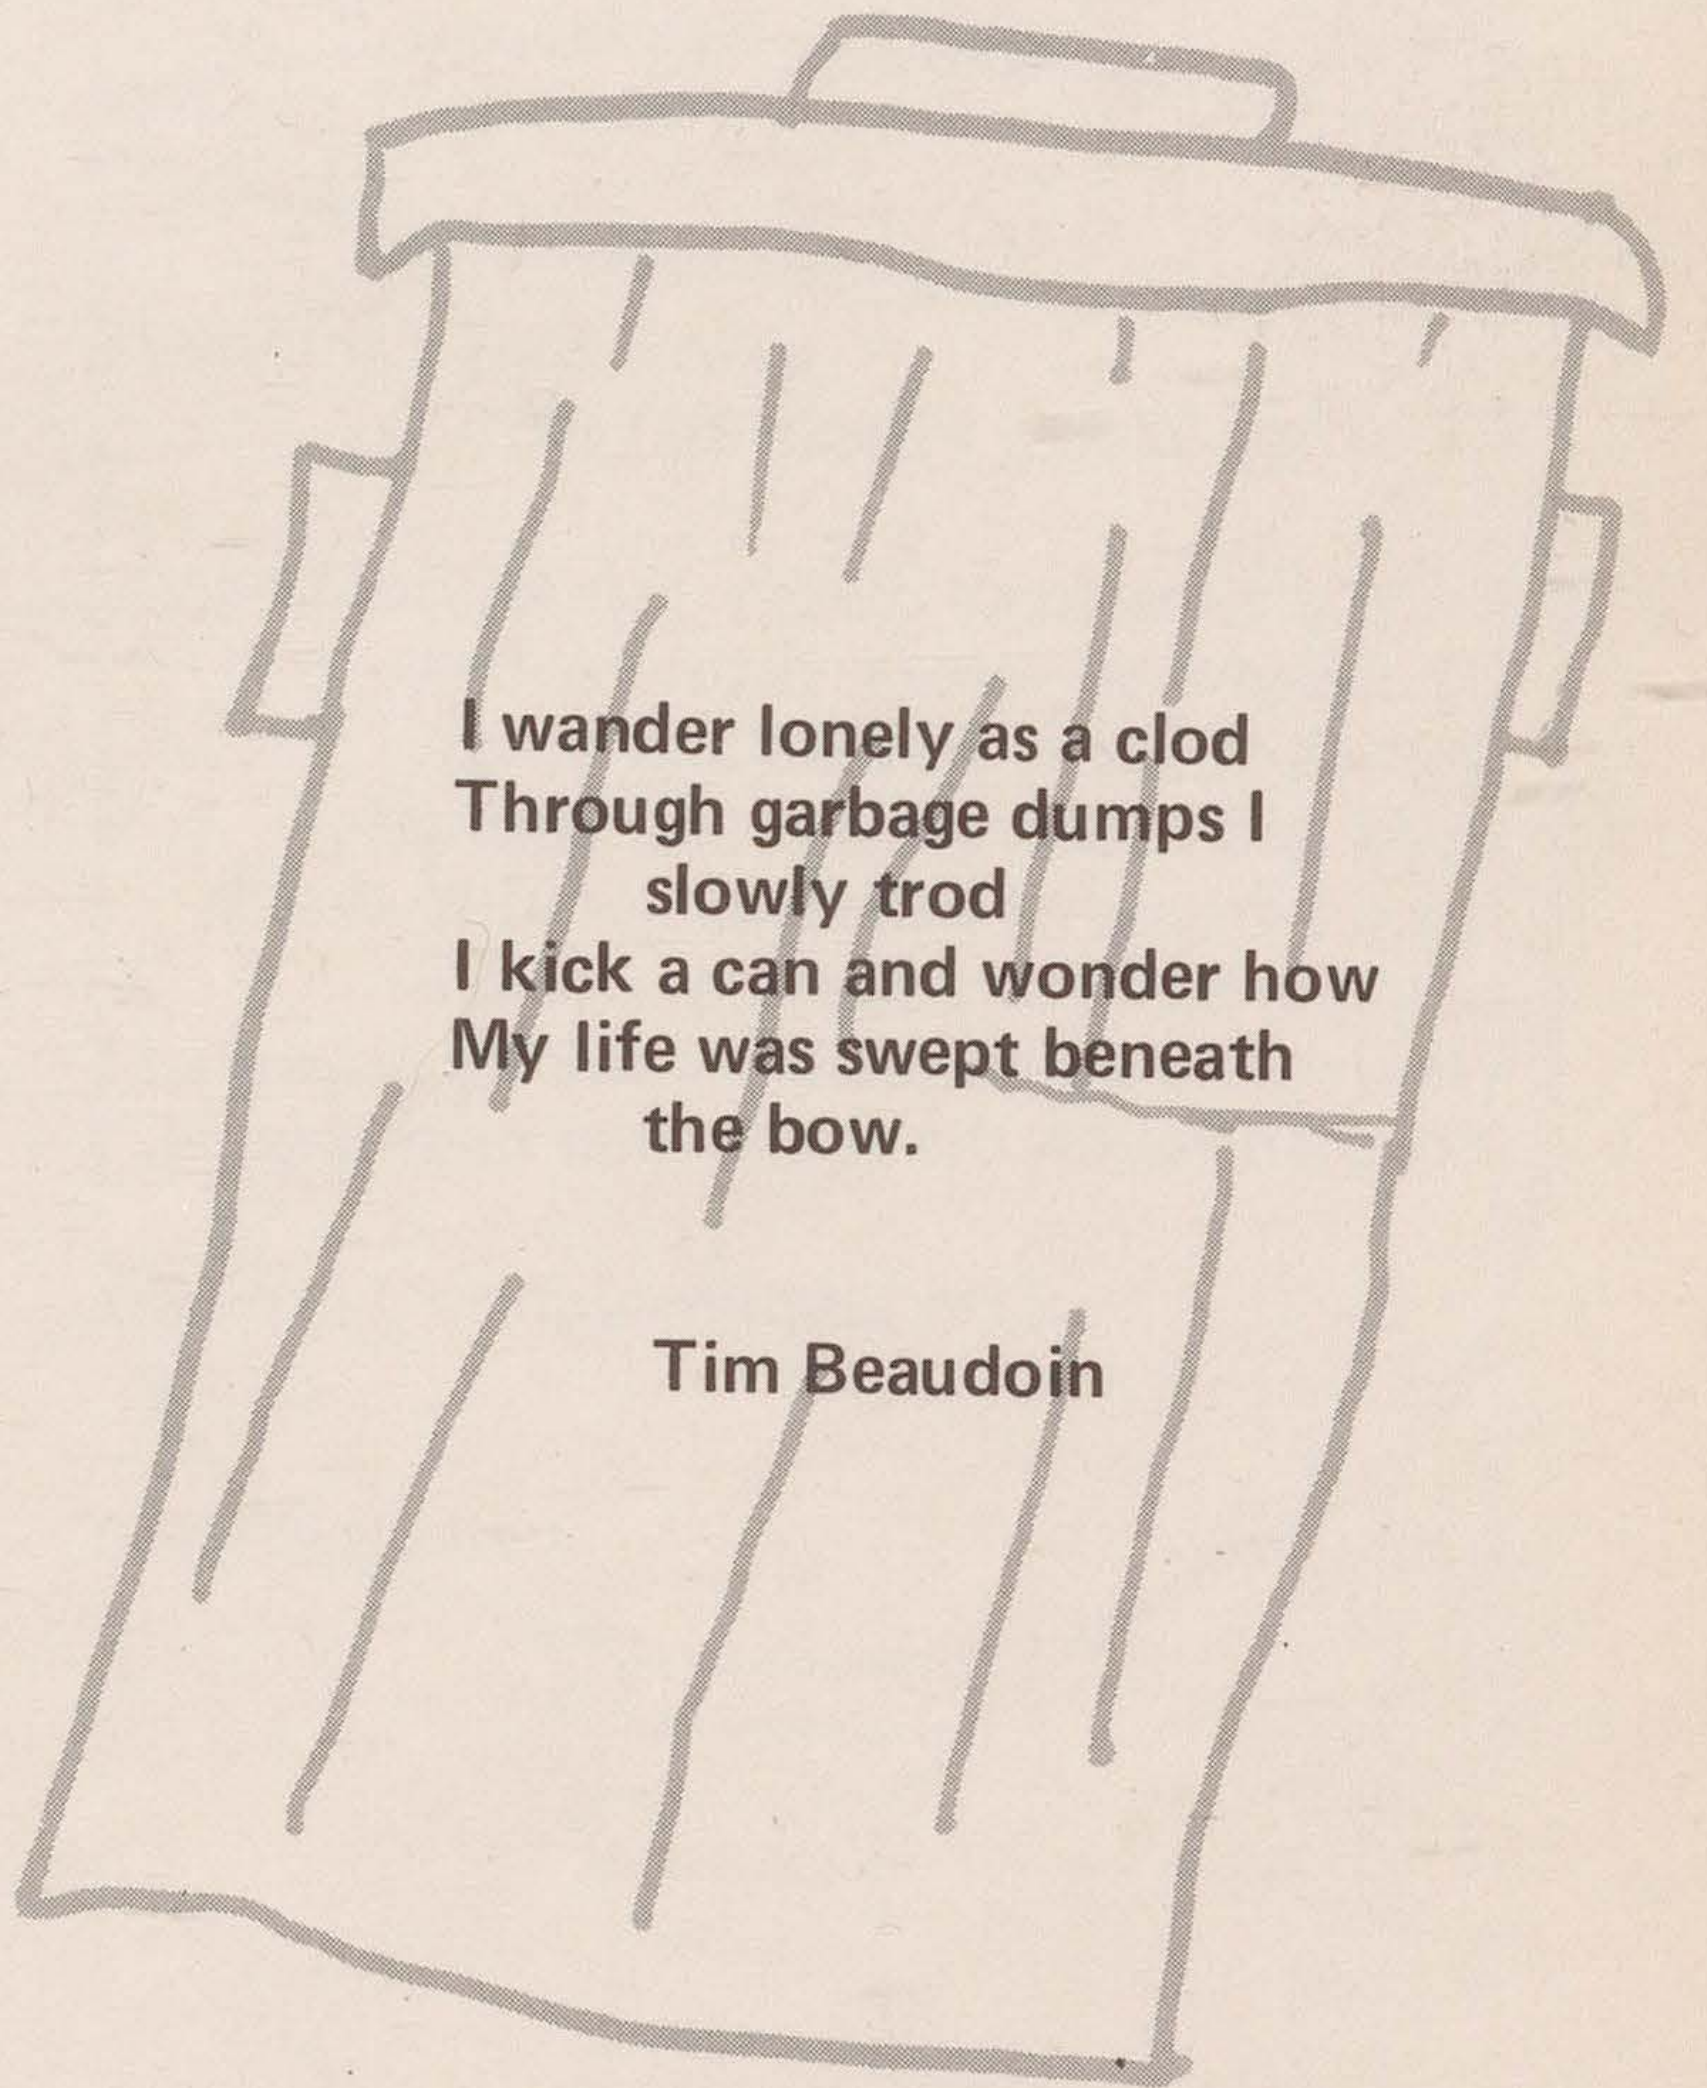

Have you ever seen a spotted deer,
Sink into the brush and disappear?

Rochelle Bondy

I wander lonely as a clod
Through garbage dumps I slowly trod
I kick a can and wonder how
My life was swept beneath the bow.

Tim Beaudoin

LONELINESS

Cold is the chill of loneliness
Piercing and shattering a lonely lover,
An empty shell. It is the colour
Of a lifeless tree--the voice
Of an abandoned child
A barren life, void of sharing
A life that must continue on pain of death.

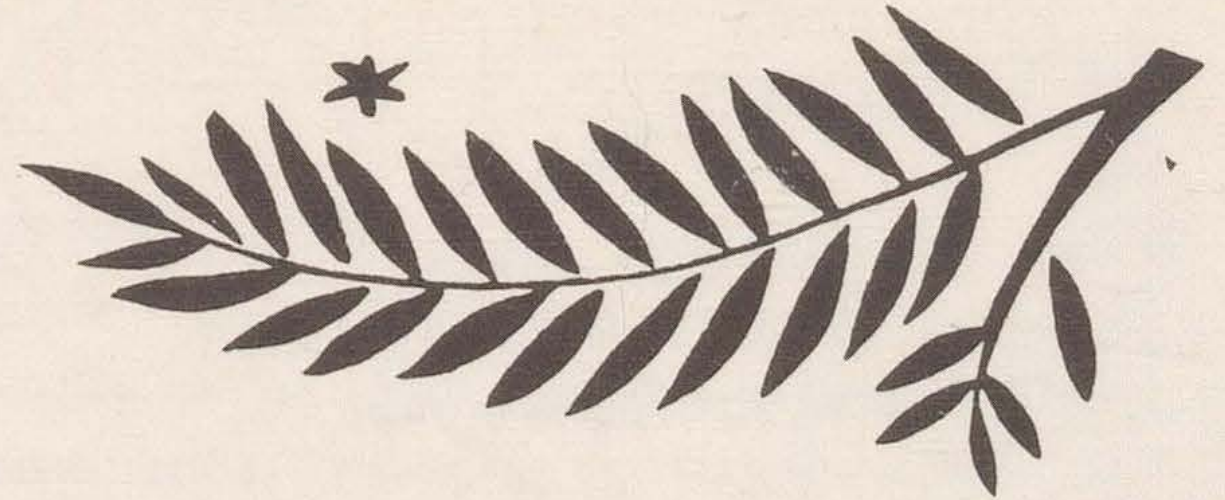

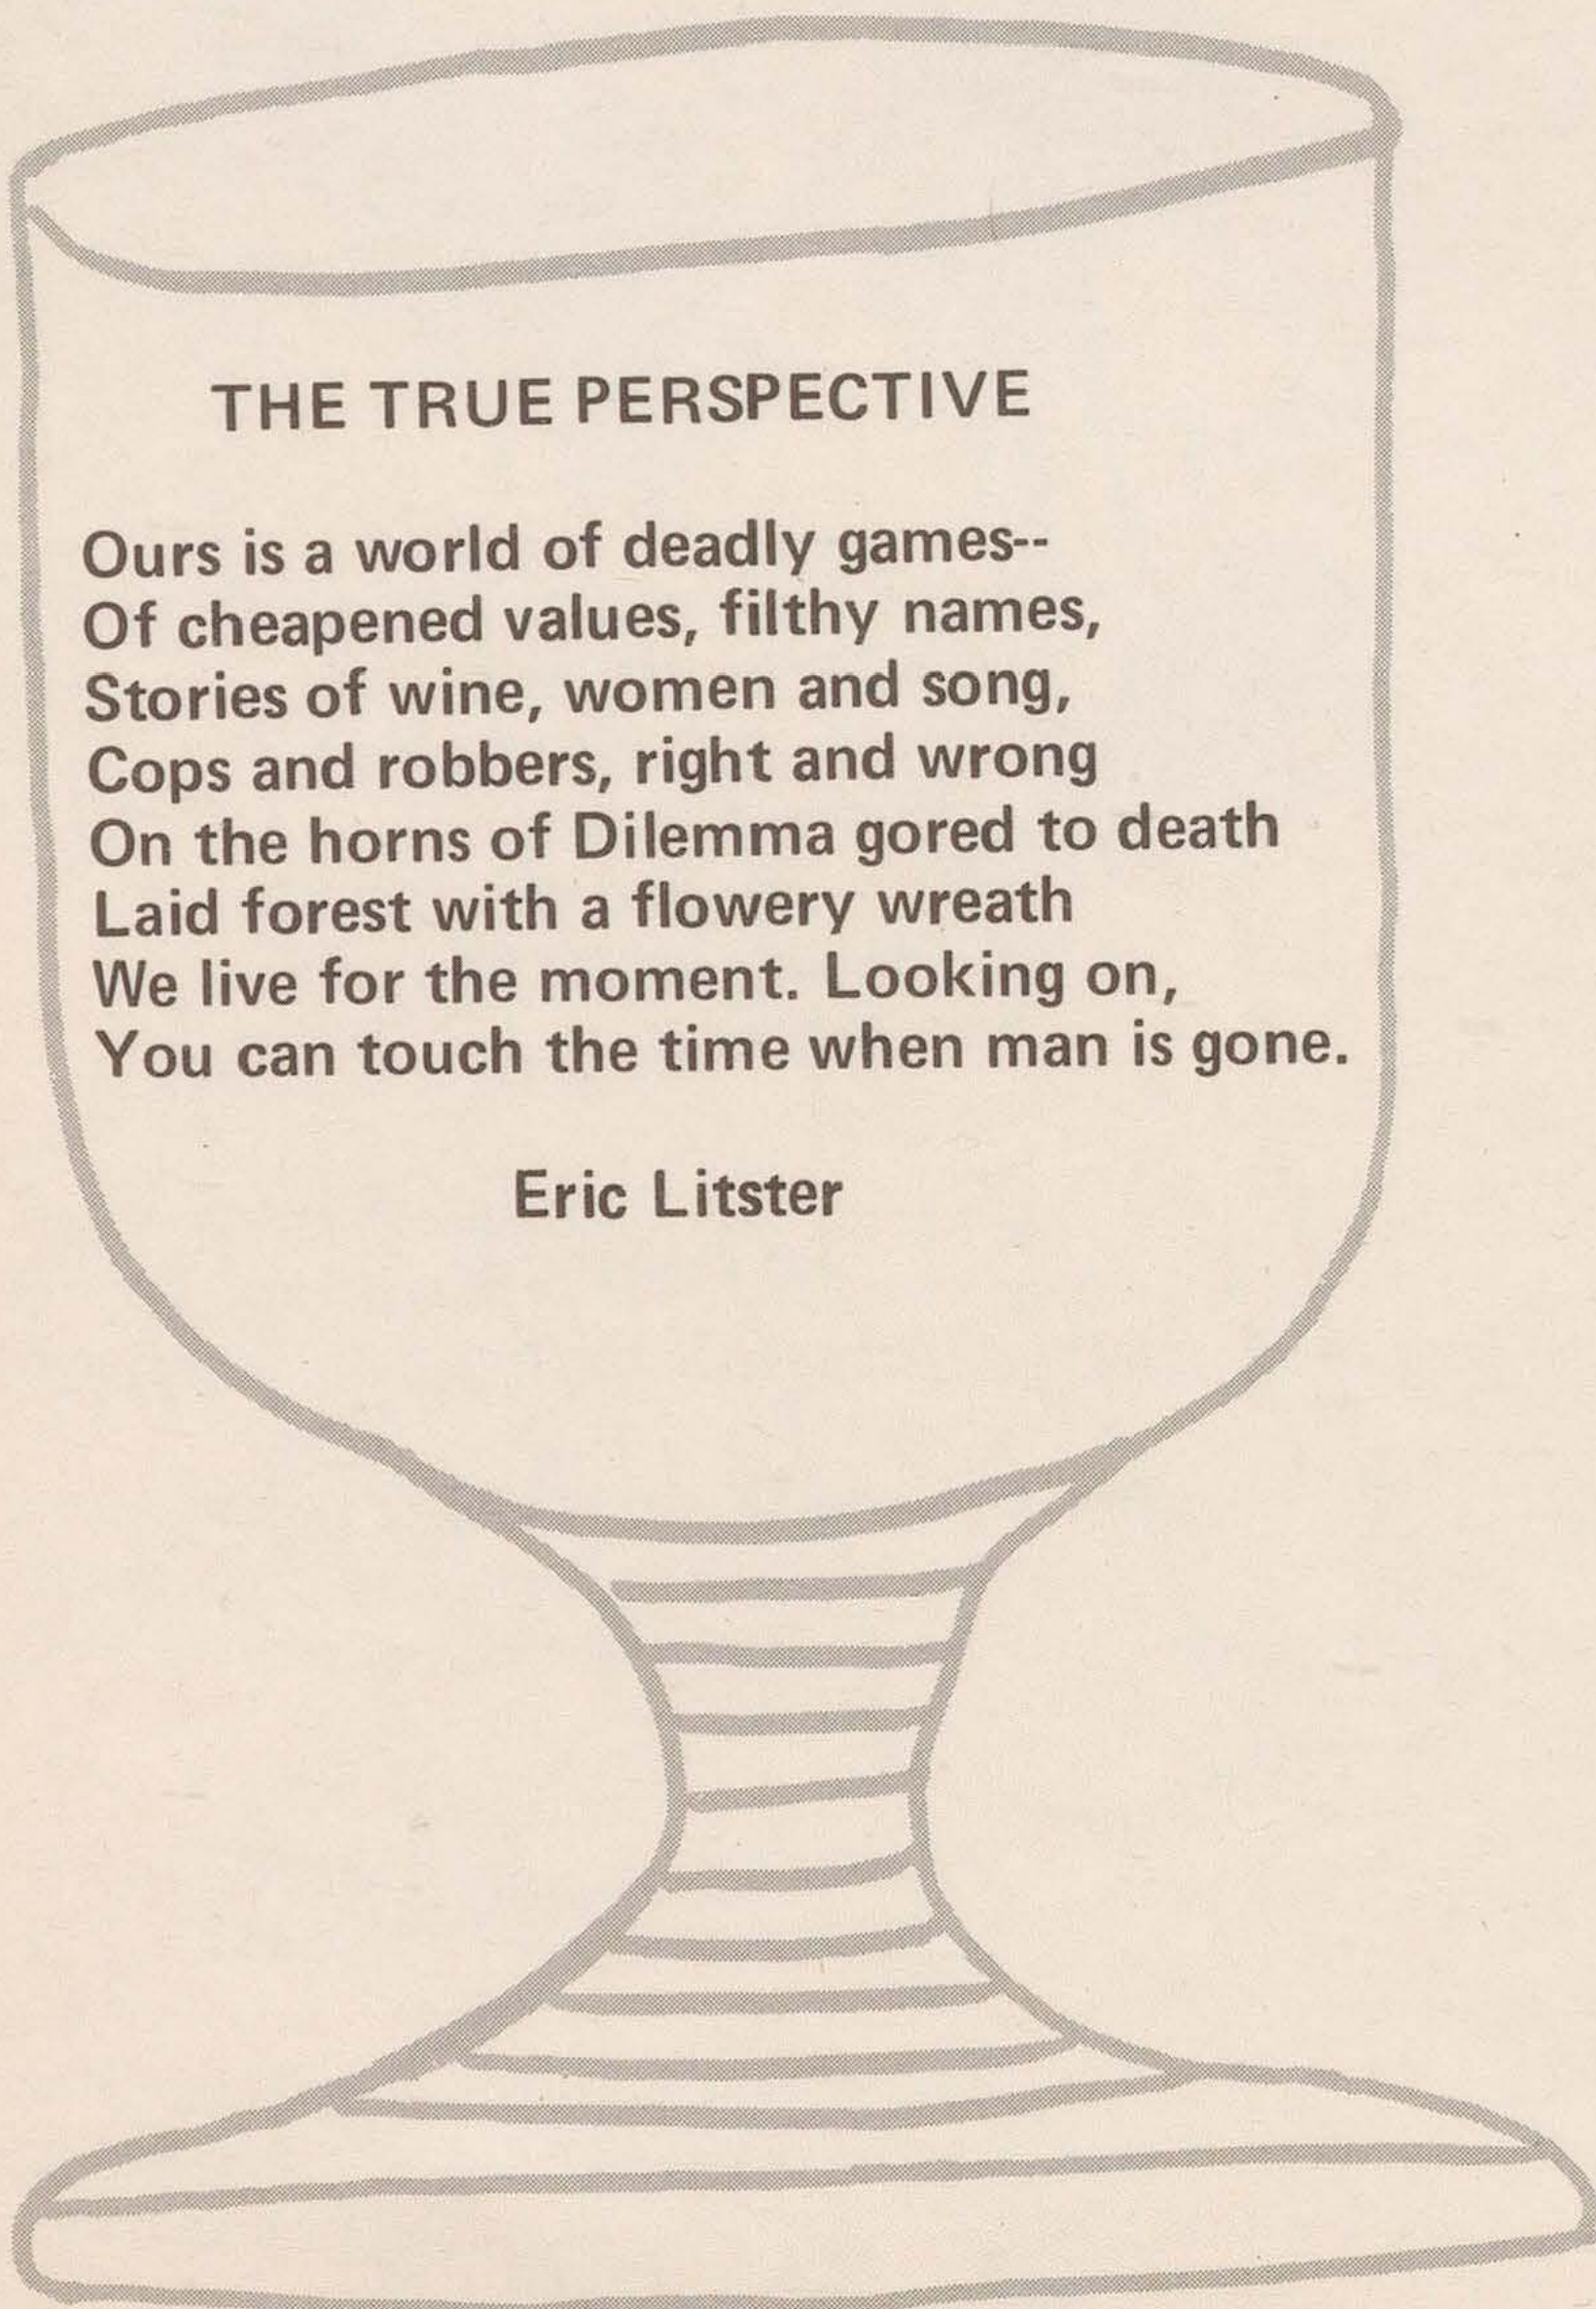

Libby Warren

THE TRUE PERSPECTIVE

Ours is a world of deadly games--
Of cheapened values, filthy names,
Stories of wine, women and song,
Cops and robbers, right and wrong
On the horns of Dilemma gored to death
Laid forest with a flowery wreath
We live for the moment. Looking on,
You can touch the time when man is gone.

Eric Litster

IN AN ANTIQUE SHOP

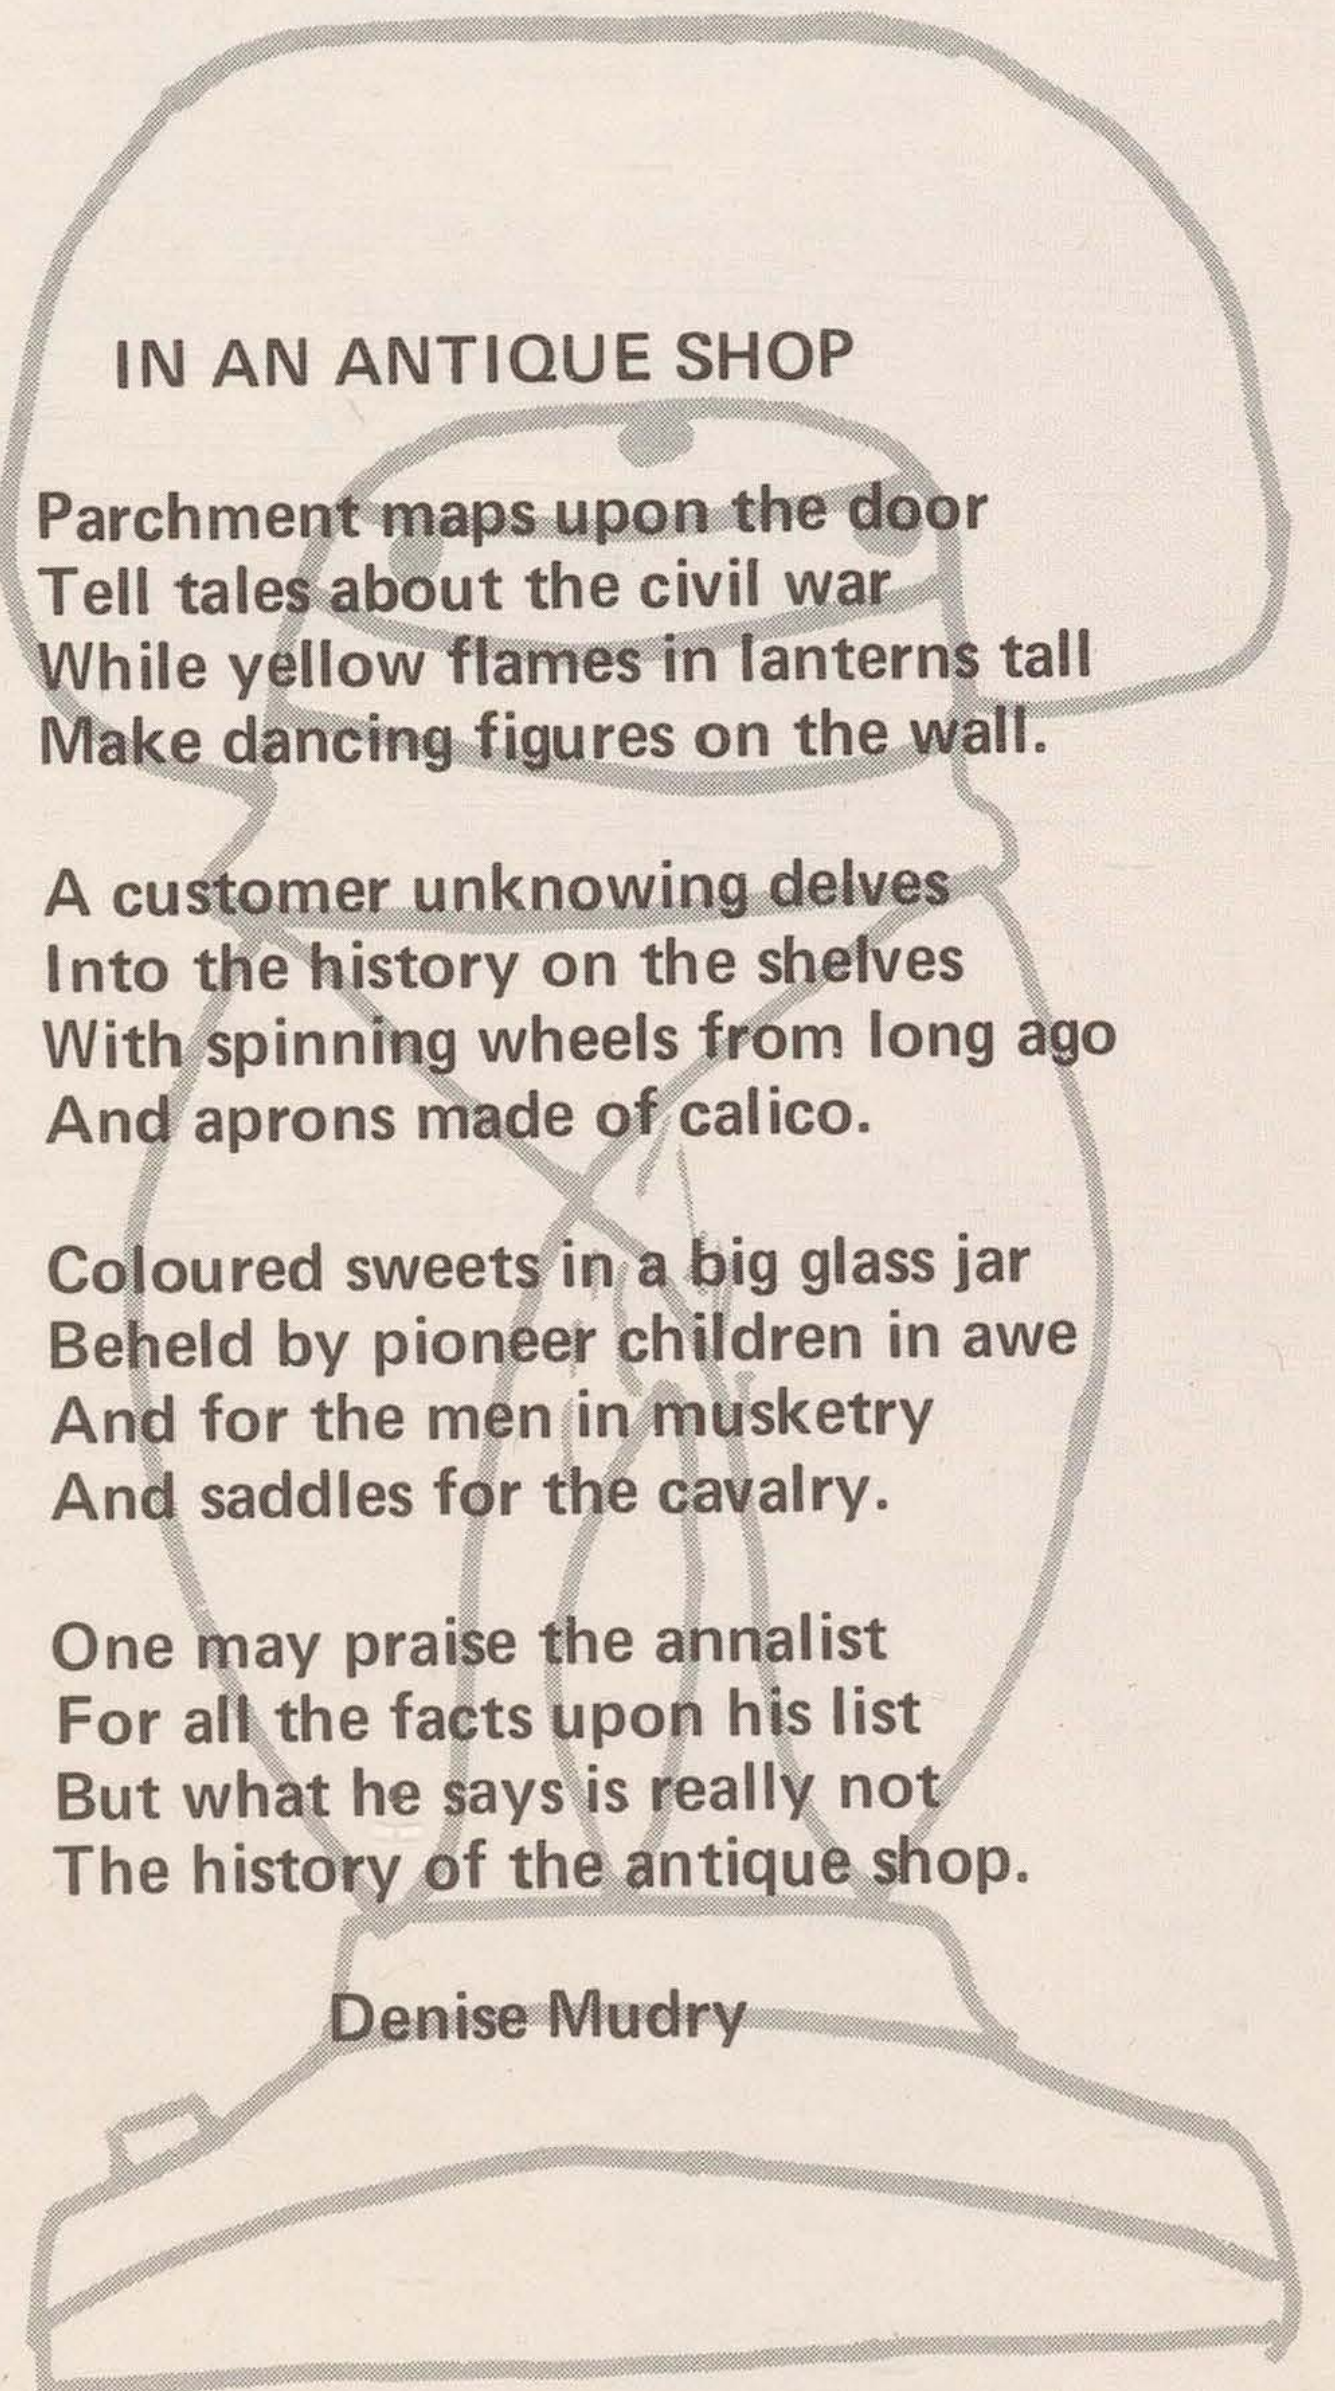

Parchment maps upon the door
Tell tales about the civil war
While yellow flames in lanterns tall
Make dancing figures on the wall.

A customer unknowing delves
Into the history on the shelves
With spinning wheels from long ago
And aprons made of calico.

Coloured sweets in a big glass jar
Beheld by pioneer children in awe
And for the men in musketry
And saddles for the cavalry.

One may praise the annalist
For all the facts upon his list
But what he says is really not
The history of the antique shop.

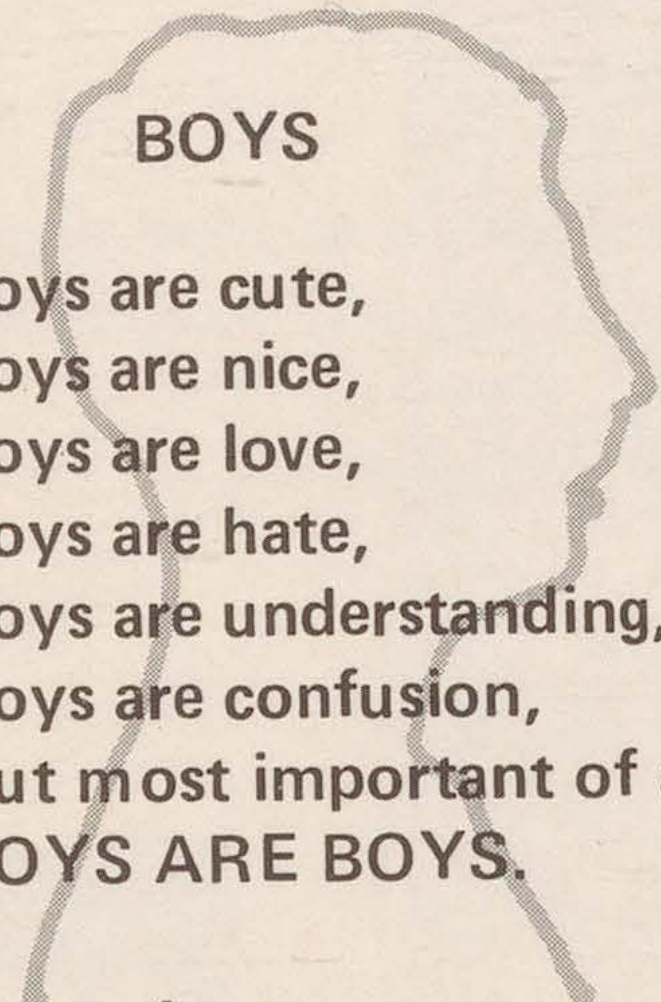

Denise Mudry

BOYS

Boys are cute,
Boys are nice,
Boys are love,
Boys are hate,
Boys are understanding,
Boys are confusion,
But most important of all,
BOYS ARE BOYS.
